THE BIG GAME AT EUGENE

O. A. C.'s Schedule Now Complete---
One Big Game in Corvallis and Several Minor Ones---Team May Go to Los Angeles to Play.

When it is determined whether there will be a game with St. Vincent College, Los Angeles, December 4, the football arrangements for O. A. C. will have been settled. The schedule secured by Director Angell is as follows;

- October 16—Pacific University at Corvallis.
- October 23—Catholic Young Men's Club, of Portland, at Corvallis.
- October 29—Whitman College, at Walla Walla;
- November 6—Willamette University, at Corvallis.
- November 13—University of Washington, at Corvallis.
- November 19—University of Oregon at Eugene.
- November 26—Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, at Portland.

U. of O. Games.

- The State University has scheduled but four games thus far, as follows;
- November 6—M. A. A. C. at Eugene.
- November 14—Idaho at Portland.
- November 19—O. A. C. at Eugene.
- November 25—U. of W. at Seattle.

The Two Teams

O. A. C. will have the nucleus of a good team to start with, but will lose several of its good men this year. Among those not expected back are:

Jamison (tackle), Pendergrass (guard and captain), Dobbin (end), Cady (end), Brodie (end), and Cooper (left half); Hastings (sub-half), who goes to Berkeley. Those remaining from last year are: Wolf (half and fullback), Endberg (end and half), Wallace and Evendon (guards), and Kelly (center). They are all good men.

The University will have all her old men except Moulten (tackle), Hurd (half) and McIntyre (guard), and possibly Sullivan (sub-half). In other words, it starts with about 17 varsity men of last year. Practice begins next Monday. George Hug, Oregon's center in '04, '05 and '06, and an all-Northwest man, will be the regular assistant coach. Coach Forbes lives in Springfield and has been in touch with his men all Summer. It is practically assured that Hayward will be with the varsity again this year. Oregon will get a number of good men from the "prep" schools. Scott, guard in '06 and center in '07, will return to college and try for Moulten's place at tackle. He weighs 215 and played a good game for the "alumni" last Fall in the practice game at Eugene. He has two more years on the varsity.

BOOSTS AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Salem Statesman Says Many Good Words For State School Here.

In connection with O. A. C. day at the state fair, the Salem Statesman says:—"The O. A. C. booth in the main pavilion has been attracting wide attention. It includes a comprehensive display which gives some idea of the wide scope of the work being accomplished by the great state institution and is well worthy a careful inspection by all visitors at the fair.

"The Oregon Agricultural College is located at Corvallis, a city of five thousand inhabitants, supplied with mountain water, provided with an excellent sewerage system."

"UNCLE JOSH PERKINS"

"Uncle Josh Perkins," the great comedy success, is down for an engagement of one night at the opera house on Thursday, Sept. 23. The play is built on original lines and is said to be presented by a brilliant company, who made the most possible out of every type of character enacted. While built largely for laughing purpose, there is enough pathos, human interest and thrilling situations unfolded to suit all classes of men, women and children too. The forthcoming engagement of this company will doubtless attract the usual attention from the playgoers of Corvallis. Reserved seats on sale at Graham & Wortham's, prices 25c, 50c, 75c.

EXACTLY RIGHT

Albany Democrat:—"The state fair is short this year on county exhibits, and there is a reason for it. Some one says there should be a prize of at least $500, and a little less on races. The races may draw, but they don't give a country the reputation a large display of exhibits does. If the fair could have ten county exhibits there would be something doing. It is something worth working for. At least $1000 could be set aside for prizes for such exhibits.

OBSERVER BOOSTS GOOD BOOSTER

Citizen Expresses Appreciation of Another's Well-spent Energy.

Editor GAZETTE-TIMES:—In your recent articles on "Boosters; and Who They Are," you have brought attention to many pretty places about the city and each place you have mentioned is deserving of all the praise given. I wish to call your attention to one place which evidently has missed your notice.

A person going from town west to the city limits on Monroe street, cannot but be impressed with the barrenness of a goodly share of the residence property along the street, especially after Ninth street is crossed. An oasis in this desert may be seen at this time if one turns north on Eleventh street. J. R. Mont-

SEES BIG THINGS FOR WILLAMETTE

Dallas Paper Believes Era of Suburban Development at Hand.

"Many of the valley newspapers are filling their columns with comment on the taking over of the Willamette Valley Company properties by the Northwestern Corporation, and are predicting all sorts of big things in the way of railroad development as a result," says the Dallas Observer.

"The Observer does not believe that there is anything to get excited about. The stationery used in the various offices of the Willamette Valley Company has borne the heading "Northwestern Corporation" for the last year, and the employees of the system have made no effort to conceal the fact. It is more

POLK COUNTY WON AT SALEM

Woman Enables County Adjoining Benton to Get First Award.

Salem Capital Journal:—A train load of happy people from Polk county went home last night, and the three carloads that came in from Falls City were the happiest of all, because old Polk won out first prize in the state fair county exhibits. It was a further honor for Falls City, because Mrs. Wolff and her daughter, Mrs. Willets, of that town, put up the whole display, with a little help from the county court—$50 and some glass jars. Mrs. Wolff had nearly as much more in the shape of her individual exhibit, and about one fourth of all the green house display. Mrs. Wolff has been an exhibitor for many years, and is of the most skillful decorators in the state. Her exhibit consisted of

ABE KING LOSES HEAVILY BY FIRE

100 TONS OF HAY, LARGE BARN AND MUCH FEED LOST.

$2500 LOSS; BARN INSURED

Spontaneous Combustion Sets Fire to Barn and Destroys Structure With All Its Contents---Horses and Cattle Turned Out.

Fire destroyed a large barn, one hundred tons of hay, wagons, buggies, harness, feed and two calves at the Abe King farm last night about 11 o'clock. The total loss is placed at about $2500, with less than $1000 insurance.

House in Danger

The fire was not discovered by the Kings until the entire barn was a mass of flames. There was time to open the doors, and fortunately the horses and cattle in the structure were driven out, with the exception of two calves. There was nothing to do but let the fire burn and turn attention to the residence, which was in great danger. With the help of neighbors, who did valiant service in carrying water and wet blankets and carpets to the roof, the home was saved, though at times the heat from the burning barn was so intense as to make it well-nigh impossible to work.

Disrupts Milk Route.

Abe King is one of the dairymen supplying milk to patrons in this city. The loss of his harness and vehicles made it impossible for him to make the regular rounds this morning and will se-
