One of the interesting marriages solemnized in this city recently was that of Charles Reed, of Kings Valley, and Mrs. Emma Ingram, of Corvallis. The former is 66 years of age, the latter 61. E. E. McVicker performed the ceremony Saturday, the wedding taking place at the bride's home on Third street. Marriages after the parties have reached three-score years are rather rare.

Walker, the parents, will leave for Logan about Thursday, and the entire family will make the Utah town their home. The Walkers came to Oregon from south of Salt Lake City in hope of benefiting Mrs. Walker's health, but the low altitude has been of no service to her. Those who have seen "The Time, The Place and The Girl" are responsible for the statement that there is not a single song in it that is not clever and catchy. Most plays of this sort have one or two breezy things upon which the entire production hinges but the unceasing variety of melody and mirth of this production has gained for it an undying reputation. It is to musical comedy what Uncle Tom's Cabin has been for drama, except that "The Time, The Place and The Girl" has not been allowed to deteriorate by unworthy productions. It has been held up to the highest key by the best talent obtainable to interpret the leading roles and backed by a chorus of real merit who are costumed in the richest dresses that money can buy.

J. R. Cochran, rural mail carrier, who returned a few days ago from a trip through California, was particularly struck with the wonderful crops produced by irrigation. Three crops of alfalfa, a total of ten tons to the acre, looked mighty good to him, and Mr. Cochran came back to Corvallis wondering why the Willamette and Marys rivers are not used for irrigation purposes. While in the land of flowers, Mr. Cochran also looked at city improvements and he affirms that nowhere did he see a narrow paved street. The people there paved wide—but he discovered that they pay enormous taxes. At Modesto, a very rapidly growing town, $7.00 a hundred is being paid. While in California, Mr. Cochran visited a brother whom he had not seen in twenty years. He recognized his brother, but that gentleman did not recognize him.

COUNCILMEN DRAW

This councilmen drew lots last night, as provided by the new charter, and decided as to who should hold for the long and short terms. The long term men are:

- J. B. IRVINE
- G. V. SKELTON
- GENE SIMPSON

These men will hold their councilmanic honors until 1913 unless they are mobbed or there is other providential hindrance. Messrs. Gray, Robinson, Osborn, Cordley, Johnson and Bogue will hang on until 1911. By-the way, this aggregation is doing some mighty good work and it might be well for them to hang on forever.

One thousand feet of automobile racing films is the feature of the Palace theater change, and one can see all the principal parts of the race course at Crown Point, Indiana, in these pictures. The whole series is exciting and is well worth seeing. Walters and Murray have returned and are accompanied by Wistrand and Summers. Last night they put on a playlet entitled "Mrs. Mouser" which seemed to please a majority of the audience.

Sunday's Oregonian contained an excellent likeness of four generations of the Yates family: Father Joseph Yates, aged 75 years; Walter Emery Yates, 48 years; Roy Thomas Yates, 24 years; Roy Walter Yates, five months. Father Yates feels that four generations, all males and of the same name, is quite a record. Joseph Yates is the father of five children, all Oregon born. He is from Arkansas and takes pride in the fact that he has never been "licked" or sued; neither has he sued anyone. Father Yates came to Oregon when he was eighteen years of age, crossing the plains with an ox team, and landing at Portland October 10, 1852. He landed in Linn county in 1853 and has lived there ever since.
