The City and Vicinity

The O. A. C. Freshmen give their big reception tonight.

All the news all the time in THE GA-ZETTE-TIMES, 50c per month.

J. R. N. Bell is at home from Presbytery and Synod at Dallas and New-berg.

Next Tuesday evening is the date for the regular quarterly meeting of the Commercial Club.

Lee Bell, of Baker City, son of J. R.
N. Bell, will come to Corvallis tomorrow for a visit with home folks.

Sheriff W. A. Gellatly, having sold his farm in Blodgett valley, will have a sale of personal and farm property October 15.

Miss Margaret Fowells, one of the popular instructors in the city schools, went to Independence this afternoon for a brief visit with friends.

Bowen Lester leaves for Mississippi next Monday. He came here nineteen years ago at the earnest solicitation of J. H. Harris and has never returned to his old stamping ground.

Tomorrow night the Coffee Club gives its first grand ball of the season. This affair is to be one of the genuinely swell ones attended by the 400 of Corvallis's uppertendom. If you are not there, you are not "IT."

Wallace R. Struble, Albany's booster, is sending out some unique souvenir postals advertising the big Apple Fair.
These are done in colors, the feature being a fine apple smiling like our old friend Billiken, or Silliken.

Mrs. John Thornton received word yesterday that her father, one of the pioneers of the state and who lives near Woodburn, was seriously ill. This morning Mr. and Mrs. Thornton and children left on the early train for Woodburn.

A handsome reward is offered for the return of a maltese Angora half-grown cat to the family home, 428 South Third street. The kitten strayed away or was taken today. Any information will be appreciated. If you see a kitten with a tail as large as your wrist, telephone 3187.

Manager Lowe, of the Independent Telephone Company, has an extra set men in the field installing telephones in Corvallis. A new consignment of telephone instruments was secured today and additional instruments will be shipped to Corvallis each day. This means that ever possible effort is being exerted to supply applicants with telephones, and within a very few days every one whose application is in will be connected up.

Capt. Tyler, of Newport, stopped off here today, and tonight at the Commercial Club rooms will manipulate a Victor Victrola, a music "masheen" better than the best. He has some of the Red Cross records, the best made, and there is promise of some excellent music. All the members of the club have a cordial invitation to listen and smoke a cigar as the sweet cadences float forth on the atmosphere.

Cards have been received by friends in this city, announcing the arrival on October 4 of a 10-pound baby boy at the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Handsaker, Davenport, Wash. The parents were formerly prominent residents of this city. Rev. Handsaker having been for several years the popular pastor of the Christian church here, and they have many friends in Corvallis who extend congratulations. The little son has been christened Eugene Sterling.

Last evening, the members of the Catholic Altar Society held their extraordinary meeting to arrange the details of the Bazaar for the benefit of the church building fund. It was decided to hold the Bazaar on Nov 18, 19, and 20, under the chief management of Mrs.
A. Metzger, Mrs. C. A. Gerhard, and Mrs. J. M. Nolan. These three ladies will respectively superintend the candy booth, the cooking department, and the fancy booth; and will soon call on their numerous friends and acquaintances to assist them in their work.
From the energy with which these ladies have entered on their arduous tasks, from the enthusiasm displayed by the other members of the Altar Society, and from the generosity with which these efforts have always been seconded by the public of Corvallis it may be safely predicted that this Bazaar, like many preceding ones, will turn out a social and financial success.

Frightful Fate Averted

"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap, writes Frank Dibbley, Kellier, Minn.
"without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infallible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Skin Eruptions.
World's best for Piles. 25 cents at all druggist.

A SELECT DISPLAY
LADIES' COSTUMES

A representative of the celebrated Matzen line of cloaks, suits and costumes will be at the store of J. M. Nolan & Son in a few days for the purpose of showing the ladies of Corvallis and vicinity the very newest creations in garments for this coming season's wear.

Of course the ladies will want to see this select display of latest modes and all who desire to do so are requested to notify Nolan & Son at once, so that they may be informed of the exact date when this special representative will be here, as his stay in Corvallis will be limited to one day.

LATEST FROM STATE AND NATION

Music comes high. The bands at the Hudson-Fulton celebration cost $30,000. The parades cost $235,000.

A Washington judge has decided that it all children attending school can be legally forced to undergo vaccination.

Bellboys in Michigan hotels can no longer serve drinks to patrons. The judges say it is illegal to so employ minors.

The American public is now to be burdened with the troubles of J. M. Barrie, the noted writer, and his actress wife. Barrie wants a divorce.

Twelve acres of the Norcross apple orchard at Medford has just been sold for $16,000.
Eighteen acres of the Burchell orchard has sold for $11,000.

Solon Z. Taylor, a retired farmer of Halsey, was perhaps fatally injured when a spirited team he was driving got beyond his control and threw him from the wagon Tuesday evening.
The wagon ran over his chest and face, breaking his jawbone and nose. His son Dr. Frank Taylor, of Portland, was sent for.

A Chicago multi-millionaire named Osterman has been throwing money around at Walla Walla in such a way as to attract attention. At the fair he gave the band $20 each time it played a selection that suited him and he paid $10 for the morning paper, one of which he bought from every boy that shaved a paper at him. A friend with him offered to pay for drinks and Osterman took his money and tore it up.

Not satisfied with causing J.
E. Hosmer to pay fine in the police court of Silverton carrying a gun, A. G. McMillen swore to a complaint before Judge Webster, in Salem, Saturday, charging him with the same offense, and Hosmer was again arrested and taken into court by the Sheriff. Here he pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $22. This is the third action that has been brought against the editor within the past three weeks, and it is reported that he will be again arrested on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Any sparsely settled road district in Oregon can get good roads now by simply voting in December on the initiative of ten per cent of its citizens such funds as may be required. The cash can come from the absentee land speculators and the residents can get their money back in warrants for work. The roads will raise land values permanently, and the idle tracts can be made to pay their share by a little acting together.
