

JUNIORS WIN FROM SENIORS

The Senior-Junior game on O. A. C. field Saturday was a very lively scrap in which the former lost 5 to 0. Larry Keene and Lige Philips, old baseball men, starred for the Juniors and Malcolm Cox hit up a great lick for the Seniors.

GIRLS ARE WINNERS

Miss Lizzie Arnold of Bellingham, 16 years old, won the women's championship for baseball throwing in the Post Intelligencer contest recently. She made a record of 209 feet, 5½ inches. This makes a new world record. Thirteen-year old Mayme McDonald covered the four bases on a ball diamond in 18½ seconds, thereby winning the Dugdale medal. These athletic achievements show that the girls of the girls of the Northwest are world beaters.

Desperados Captured

terday morning. Two of his companions, Duncan and Albert Ferris, were wounded and captured. The two at liberty are Mike Nichatich and Albert Murray. The first named is the most desperate of the lot. He is an Austrian brigand, a robber and cut-throat in his own country.

The Big Contest

The standing this week shows another large ballot cast. The special vote offer has been a strong incentive and votes are being turned in daily for the contestants. Only two days more remain of this offer and this means that every one of the candidates will be doing her best to get in as many subscriptions as possible before it closes. The offer closes Wednesday, Oct. 20th at 6 p. m. and the extra votes will be given each candidate at that time so that the standing will appear in Thursday's issue.

The chance to get extra votes will not be presented again during the contest and when this is coupled with the fact that the contest has only a very short time yet to run, the advantage of working hard and getting as many of the extra votes as possible can be readily seen. The positions of the candidates in the race are such that anyone of them can gain first place with a big majority by getting in a heavy ballot before the special closes Wednesday night.

A subscription now counts practically double the regular number of votes. If anyone has promised you their help, get their subscription now when it will count the most. Only two more days remain of the special offer and hustling during that time will be well repaid.

The result of Saturday's count is shown below. Many votes were cast today which have not been included. The total count including the extra votes issued will be published next Thursday.

Likes Benton County Best

sold last week for $20,000 cash. I think the land cheap in Benton county at what Jim Lewis asks for it. I think I have a number here that think so. I have lived in Oregon twenty years and I think more of Benton county than I ever did. Will start west Thursday, the 14th; have a number of places to stop yet.

DETROIT KICKS ABOUT RATES

Residents of Detroit, Ore., have filed a complaint with the railroad commission against the four-cent passenger fare charged by the Corvallis & Eastern Railway. Complaint is also made that there is no depot or other facilities at Detroit and that the train service is inadequate, inasmuch as all the trains are freight trains and not equipped for passenger business.
