Bishop Seadding has named December 20 as the date for a "welcome to the new pastor," Rev. F. M. Baum, at the Episcopal church.

There are two pocketbooks containing money, and a watch fob at the office awaiting owners. Parties properly describing same can get them at any time.

Skates will be free to ladies Thursday P. M., 3 to 5:30. This session will be more especially for beginners, so come and learn. There will be plenty of help for all.

President F. L. Kent, Dr. Withycombe and O. G. Simpson, of O. A. C., will attend the coming sessions of the State Dairy Association, Dec. 9, 10, and make addresses.

The Eugene school board is considering the advisability of abolishing football at the high and graded schools. Such a resolution has been presented by Chairman Murphey.

The advance sale of seats for "King Dodo" began this morning, fully one-half of the capacity of the opera house was sold out before noon. "Dodo" will surely get a warm reception.

Jess Townsend, the McMinnville man who fired into a charivari party and killed a man named Lawrence, has been convicted of manslaughter. It does not pay to shoot promiscuously.

W. S. Brown is just in receipt of 9,000 apple trees that are to be planted on the Willamette Valley Orchard Co.'s property west of Corvallis, the Sam Wyatt place. Work there is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

The Southern Pacific has promised to give Roseburg certain considerations asked and has agreed to build Grants Pass a fine new station. It seems a certainty that the Southern Pacific is to favor itself in Corvallis also.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold their Bazaar Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week. This is your chance to buy your Christmas presents. Miss Pratt's art work will be on sale among other good things. Homemade candies will be feature; a table for the sale of second-hand goods will be another, so here's your chance to dispose of such things and get others at a reduced price. Don't forget—at the Mining Building, Dec. 1, 2, and 3.

Another O. A. C. man has made good. From the Cobalt Daily Nugget, of Ontario, Canada, we learn that E. W. Phillips, formerly of this city and a student for several years at O. A. C., has been engaged by the Coleman Development Company to superintend the development of mining properties controlled by them. This is the same company that employed Mr. Phillips last year, paying him a net salary of $300 per month. This year it pays him $4000 per year and receives only a portion of his time. E. W. has other profitable interests in hand and bids fair to become a plutocrat, if not a "Canuck."

Mr. Wm. S. Noyes, a distinguished mining engineer and capitalist of San Francisco, stopped off in Corvallis to visit a few hours with acquaintances in the city, yesterday. Mr. Noyes has been long associated with Mr. Ben Bowers, a former Benton county boy, and expressed himself as much impressed with O. A. C. and its work, of which he obtained a general ideal. He was much interested in the operations of the creamery, which is quite a prominent feature of the commercial side of this community. The fame of our Oregon apples is everywhere throughout the south and east, and he was very much pleased with the fruit displayed in the markets of Corvallis, particularly those unexcelled Kings at August Hodes' store, which will compare favorably with the best fruit produced anywhere.

Few are the people of Corvallis who have not seen and admired the lawn and street parking at Prof. F. Berchtold's new home at the corner of 6th and Tyler streets. Last night some persons driving a cow or cows permitted the animal or animals to get on that lawn and parking, particularly the lawn, and tramp it full of holes. That's rather exasperating, don't you think? The Berchtolds have spent time unlimited and a great deal of money to make their property appear to the best advantage, and no other lawn in this city has showed quite so well. It is an outrage that animals should mar its beauty. The Berchtolds made an effort to find out who the driver was but it was too dark. There is not a lawn or parking in this city that does not show the markings of cattle, sheep, dogs or humans. In many places the damage is considerable, in other places there is only the evidence of boys or young men having run over the ground. It is some consolation that the city council is now considering the matter and at its next session, probably, will pass an ordinance regulating the driving of animals through the streets and providing a penalty for trespassing. The council should not forget to prohibit driving herds or single animals at night.

The E. E. Wilson 125 acres, bought by J. F. Culver a year ago, has been bought by A. L. Stevenson. Mr. Culver came from Coos county and will return there. Mr. Stevenson is not yet certain what he will do with the place.

There will be a regular communication of Corvallis Lodge No. 14 A. F. and A. M. tonight at Masonic Temple, with work in the F. C. degree. All members are requested to attend and visiting brothers will be cordially welcomed.

It will be news to some, at least, that Miss Edith Adams, the 'cello artist with the Central Grand Concert Co., is in reality Mrs. Maximilian Dick, wife of the violinist of the same company. The Polk County Observer is responsible for this statement.

Coach Metzger has returned from Portland and will remain in Corvallis several days. He is being congratulated on the great work he was able to get out of his team. Metzger is hailed throughout the Northwest as a very wily instructor in the gridiron game and all experts give him unstinted praise for his achievements this year. Local enthusiasts feel that he is the real article.

The ferry is doing land-office business these days—everybody across the river wants to get here. W. L. Walker, in town this morning, intimated that about one more failure of the ferry would induce all the east-siders to go to Albany to trade, and if it is necessary to wait two years for that bridge all the people will have left his section. As one watches the waiting of the teamsters, the slow-going ferry, and the difficulty in getting on an off the old scow he is easily convinced that that there should be an early change.
