Matthews, Optician and Jeweler

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING

The City and Vicinity

The O. A. C. Sophs give a big affair tonight.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, has been coming to Corvallis for more than 17 years.

Prof. E. D. Ressler went to Portland today to attend a banquet of the University Club, given in honor of Mayor Simon.

Miss Lillian McVicker scheduled for a return from Florence next week, came yesterday morning, a surprise to her parents.

Prof. W. F. Gaskins and W. R. Boone go to Portland next Tuesday to take part in a program to be given by the Euterpean society.

H. W. Stone went to Salem yesterday with two car loads of dried prunes, making four carloads in all he handled. 2 1-4 to 4 1-4 cents have prevailed.

J. H. Robson, has arrived here from Sunnyside, Wash., accompanied by his family and will make Corvallis his home. He is a friend of Evan McLennon.

Mrs. Nellie Marvin Gerhart arrived here today from Seattle on a holiday visit to relatives and friends. She will sing a solo tomorrow morning at the Presbyterian church.

G. G. Robinson, youngest son of Councilman G. A. Robinson, has come from Walla Walla and will engage in barbering here. Mr. Robinson is well known in this city and county.

Albany is changing. An old resident this week counted forty people pass his office, and of the number he knew only six.—Albany Democrat. Perhaps the six were the only ones he didn't owe.

Next Monday one day only, Dr. Lowe, the well known optician and optometrist, will be at Hotel Corvallis. Don't fail to consult him about your eyes and glasses. He does not go from house to house.

The Oregonian this morning got Dr. Cook and the dead Leopold mixed up. Is Leopold now cooking.—Albany Democrat. Really, that isn't much of a joke—on Leopold. And it's a crime against Cook.

The Lebanon business men have sent out 150 invitations to a big banquet and ball to be given the night of Dec. 31st. Harvey W. Scott, Editor Nutting and the G. T. scissors are among those on whom honors have been conferred.

Mrs. J. H. Moore, mother of S. H. Moore, of Job's Addition, died at Brimfield, Illinois, December 3, at the age of 67, the difficulty being leakage of the heart. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were residents of Corvallis once and were well known to many people.

Prof. Joseph Emery D. D., from California, has arrived in the city, and Sunday evening will preach at the Presbyterian church. Prof. Emery was connected with O. A. C. a number of years and is well known here as a man of ability. Doubtless a large number of his old friends will be present tomorrow evening to hear him.

C. A. Cole, of O. A. C., will address Portlanders tonight on "The Care of Young Trees." This will be the second of a series of such lectures to be given. So valuable are some of the suggestions made by the orchardists that a stenographer will be present tonight and at subsequent meetings. Full notes will be taken of the discussion, and these, after being edited, will be published by the organization.

Jamison, the big red-headed star performer on the O. A. C. football team two seasons prior to the last, was married on Wednesday, Dec. 15, to Miss Ethel Titensor, of Logan, Utah. Jamie many times demonstrated his ability to bowl over opponents as big as the side of a house but when Cupid tackled him he went down, and he will probably for ever stay down. The Titensors of Logan are very excellent people, and Jamie is one of the biggest good-hearted fellows that ever blew out of Lewiston, that section of Cache county, Utah, that is actually rolling in wealth. A host of followers at O. A. C. will be pleased to hear of his marriage.

Henkle & Davis

The Gazette-Times 50c per month.

Owing to the inability of Hon. B. F. Mulkey to come to Corvallis next Tuesday evening, the entire entertainment, in which he was to impersonate Hamlet, has been cancelled. Mr. Mulkey wired this morning that an unexpected session of the grand jury at his home town would prevent his coming as intended.

The stockholders of the Corvallis Creamery Company met a day or so ago and elected directors as follows: J. W. Ingle, Dick Kiger, Lee Henkle, Geo. Lindeman and Robt. Wiley. The directors elected Victor P. Moses secretary and treasurer. The company is in good condition, output on hand covering indebtedness. The creamery will be operated the coming year.

"Peruna" Francis put up $500 bail yesterday and was released from the county jail. He and Harry Waggoner were arrested at La Grande ten days ago, the men having left Corvallis two or three months ago, after arrest for gambling and release on $25 bail. Waggoner put up bail several days ago and returned to his business at La Grande. The two cases will come up at the next term of court. There is but one prisoner in the county jail, a man from Lincoln county.

Councilman Irvine met with quite an accident a few days ago that has not yet been chronicled. Frozen water on the back porch of his home caused him to slip and fall. His ear was badly cut, the top of his head was gashed and something was torn loose in the region of his diagram. The old gentleman says he has to go outside now to turn round and it takes two people to help him get his breath. From general appearance, Mr. Irvine had a very hard fall.
