

Ten New Teachers In Area Schools Listed

Reservation-area public schools report 10 new teachers for the 1959-60 school year and also a new principal at Chiloquin High School.

New teachers in the Bly schools include Janet Kelner, who teaches commercial courses and physical education, and her husband, Robert Kelner, who teaches social studies, physical education, and also coaches.

New teachers in the Bonanza schools are Janet Meinhold, teaching home economics and physical education, William Caywood, teaching 7th grade, and Norman Stratton, teaching 8th grade.

At Chiloquin Elementary School, Nancy and Claude Morgan, husband and wife, are the new teachers.

Chiloquin Junior High School's new teacher is James Zeller, who teaches 8th grade and has a B.S. degree from S.O.C. New teachers at Chiloquin High School are Lowell Swanson, teaching science and math, and Ervin Tippery, who teaches English. Swanson has a B.S. degree from OSC, and Tippery received his B.S. degree at Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska.

New principal at Chiloquin High School is Al Samples, who is already well-known in the Bly area by virtue of 4 years teaching and coaching experience at the high school there. Al, born in Canada, got his high school education in Klamath County at Henley High School. He enrolled at the University of Oregon in 1939, but interrupted his college training in 1943 to enter the air force. He returned to the U. of O. in 1947 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1949. He received a master's degree in physical education in 1950 from the same school, and worked on a doctorate until 1951, at which point he entered the Klamath County school system, teaching and coaching at Altamont Junior High School near Klamath Falls. He spent 4 years there and then entered the Bly schools in 1955. Meanwhile he has continued work on his doctorate and has completed all the requirements except for the writing of a dissertation. Familywise, Mr. Samples has a wife and one son.

Parents and other interested citizens are welcomed and urged to attend PTA meetings and various school events to get acquainted with the new teachers, renew acquaintances with the returning ones, and generally gain more understanding of the functions of the public schools.

WILL YOUR CHILD BE NEXT? ... or someone else's child?

THIS DOESN'T HAVE TO HAPPEN TO OUR YOUTH!
YOU can HELP cut it DOWN . . .

✓ Don't let Minors Drink      ✓ Control your own Drinking
(Adults Set the Example for Children)

REMEMBER - - - Their Future is in YOUR HANDS