LIVE NEWS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

SCAPPOOSE

A goodly number of the people here have protested in the manner in which the declamatory contest was reported on the front page of the Mist. As a report of an interesting event it failed to tell all the story and warped what it did tell.

Mrs. H. N. Stanton is at home from the hospital only slightly improved.

H. E. Gerhart is laid up from an injury to his arm.

Bill Sharp was seen on the streets greeting old friends Wednesday.

Dr. B. Blatchford and family moved to their new home on the Holiday place Tuesday. The Dr. will be ready to meet patients some time next week. A dentist is much needed here and Dr. Blatchford and family are well and favorably known here.

A very pretty church wedding was solemnized on May 18th in the Congregational church at Scappoose, when Miss Hazel Mayers became the bride of Wilby J. Marshall of Eastern Washington, Rev. W. H. Meyers of Portland officiating. The bride was beautiful in a traveling costume and picture hat and carried white lilies. She had as her bridesmaid Miss Frieda Rabinsky, while Fred Rabinsky was best man for Mr. Meyers. The many friends of the young people join in wishing them a happy wedded life.

WARREN

Mrs. G. F. Puzey and little son from Clatskanie are visiting with Mrs. J. S. Bacon for a few days.

Some of the farmers of this place shipped a car load of potatoes the first of the week.

Miss Alice and Master Charles Erickson visited relatives in Portland last week.

The base ball boys defeated Mayor last Sunday on the Mayor diamond, the score being 7 to 8. They will play Goble next Sunday on the local diamond.

Graduating exercises will be given in the hall next Wednesday evening, the 28th. There are eleven graduates, the whole class having passed. Our school will close the 29th.

H. J. Anderson purchased another lot of Oscar Powell last week.

Mrs. Wm. Cole and daughter Ada visited Mrs. H. J. Anderson on Wednesday.

REUBEN

Miss Gertrude Liggett was in St. Helens last Saturday.

Miss Lucile Tierney of Portland is the guest of Miss Leora Alexander.

Miss Lucile Tierney of Portland taught school a few days last week for her sister, who was having dental work done.

Miss Leora Alexander visited friends in Portland last week.

Mrs. Flora Fowler and niece, Miss Florence Fowler, were in Portland Wednesday, shopping.

The school board and patrons of district No. 20 gave the teachers a delightful surprise last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Watts. Whist was the principal amusement of the evening. Mrs. Wm. Hyberger secured ladies head prize and Mr. Sam Alexander gents head prize. Miss Tierney and Harvey Jordan secured the booby prizes. Refreshments were served consisting of salad, sandwiches, assorted cakes, coffee and punch. Toasts were next in order. Mrs. T. C. Watts, in behalf of the school board, presented Miss Liggett and Miss Tierney each with a fine volume of poems. The teachers responded with many thanks. The party returned to their homes after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Watts and the teachers many more happy reunions.

A number of people from Goble and Reuben went to St. Helens last Saturday to attend the meet, which was postponed.

The graduation exercises and program of district No. 20 will be given at Redmen's Hall, June 7. There are nine in the class. George Milne will be valedictorian. Gladys Jordan will deliver the class history. Ice cream and cake will be served. Everyone come and show your appreciation.
