

If you like to have the birds about your place undisturbed it will be well to put a quail on those small red squirrels with a target rifle. If you do not they will not only destroy the birds' eggs, but will kill their half grown young ones.

Have an eye for the small fruit. It is easily tended to and harvested, and by careful handling at canning time it will greatly assist in cutting down the living expenses. It is more conducive to good health, too, than so much greasy meat, gravy, etc.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF COLUMBIA.

J. H. Upton, Plaintiff,

vs.
L. H. Combs, Defendant.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an execution rendered in and issued out of the above named court in the above named cause, to me directed and dated May 23, 1913, in favor of Jay H. Upton against L. H. Combs, for the sum of one hundred thirty-nine and 15-100 dollars, with interest thereon from the 30th day of January, 1913, at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, and the further sum of ten and 00-100 dollars costs together with costs of and upon this writ commanding me to sell the following described real property, to-wit:

Beginning at the northerly corner of that certain half acre tract of land formerly owned by A. H. Matthews and Katie Matthews in Section 4, Township 4 N. Range 1, West Willamette meridian in the Susan Frantz Donation Land Claim, at which point the westerly line of J. A. J. Campbell's tract of land intersects the southerly line of the county road; thence southerly along the boundary between said Campbell's and Matthews' tracts of land 94 feet, thence westerly at right angles to the line last above described 40 feet; thence northerly to the southerly boundary line of said county road 80 feet from the point of beginning; thence easterly 60 feet along the south line of said county road to place of beginning. Said land having been conveyed by A. H. Matthews and Katie Matthews to L. H. Combs on September 14, 1909, by deed recorded in book 11, page 445, record of deeds for Columbia County, Oregon, said land being situated in said county of said state.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution and in compliance with the commands of same, I will, on Saturday, the 12th day of July, 1913, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., at the front steps of the court house in St. Helens, Columbia County, Oregon, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the above named defendant had on the 8th day of April, 1913, or since had in and to the above described real property to satisfy said execution, interest, costs and accruing costs, less the sum of $36, which said L. H. Combs has paid on above since issuance of execution.

Dated and first published June 13, 1913.
Last publication July 11, 1913.
A. E. Thompson,
Sheriff Columbia County, Oregon.
