Clatskanie, Ore., Aug. 20.—Word was received yesterday of the death in Kansas City, Mo., of Mrs. Annie Conyers, nee Brown, widow of the late W. H. Conyers of Clatskanie. Mrs. Conyers has been in frail health for about five years, being confined to the house much of the time. After the death of her husband in January last her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Smith, took her to St. Louis, Mo., where she has since resided. Three children survive: George B. of Clatskanie, county surveyor of Columbia county; Mrs. Ernest Smith and Mrs. Clifford Smith of St. Louis, Mo. Another daughter, Miss Nora, formerly editor of the Clatskanie Chief, died in the spring. Mrs. Clifford Smith will accompany the body to Clatskanie, where the funeral will take place on Saturday in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Conyers was 72 years of age.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT

INTERESTING BALL GAME AT ST. HELENS LAST SUNDAY

Two thousand enthusiastic fans greeted the uniformed warriors from Portland who came down here to take the measure of the St. Helens tribe last Sunday at base ball. For nearly two hours Justin Wilkins at the gate was kept busy raking in the two-bit pieces from the ever faithful people of this community who have an interest in keeping up a first class organization for St. Helens. Manager Ballagh requested of Marshal Chittim the appointment of several deputies to keep the overflow crowd from the grounds. It was necessary to invoke ground rules so that a single could not be converted into a home run by reason of some zealous fan slipping the ball into his pocket when one of the home boys hit it into the crowd. The grand stand was overflowing; every seat in the bleachers was occupied by a howling base ball enthusiast. And the game; it was the best game ever played outside of the major leagues. Considerable expense was gone to in collecting the large number of star performers by the local management, such men as Chris Christensen of the giants and Matty Stevens of the Tigers composing the battery. Old "Pop" Ballagh, who has seen service in all the principal clubs of the world and who has brought out and developed more youngsters than any other man, held down first base in a manner that brought joy to the hearts of the great throng present. Bill Rodgers Perry on second stabbed the fast ones and wrought havoc with the daring base runners of the Portland aggregation. Joe Dill Tinker, formerly with the world's champions, worked in the short field and nothing escaped him. On the torrid corner our old favorite, Brak Baker, the noted home run hitter of the athletes, was always on the job, nothing being too high or too low for him. In the outer gardens Mitchell McDonald, Buddy Richardson and Ty Flagg cavorted much to the delight of the crowd. At the end of the fifth inning a charge was made when Christensen broke a finger on a foul from the bat of Timms-Cress and old Larry McMorton took his place. From that time on Matty and Larry, the famous old battery of championship days, mowed down the opposing batsmen like so much clover hay in front of a Warren farmer's mowing machine. Nothing resembling a hit was ever made and only three men reached first base. When it came to batting not much can be said except that Buddy Richardson and Larry McMorton knocked two home runs each and with the bases loaded each time. Old "Pop" Ballagh hit the ball on the right field center fence three times up and each time received a package of Duke's Mixture. Three screaming singles was the net result of the stick work of Bill Perry, each hit counting for two runs. Tinker got two hits and walked twice; Brak Baker, on the home run fame, failed to get usual home run, but 3 three-baggers from his trusty bat brought in runs. Oh, it was a glorious game for the home team; nothing but hits and runs. The score was 19 to 0, of course.

From the information given before the game last Sunday on the merits and abilities of the team our sporting editor wrote the above article before the game but after the game was played have to say that at least a dozen people attended the game between the Timms-Cress team, Portland and the St. Helens team. Useless to describe the details that game for St. Helens came back from the grounds on the end of a 10 to 1 score.
