Thursday, Aug. 28, was the first anniversary of the birth of little Miss Edith Kyle, and the occasion was celebrated by about twelve people. A dainty luncheon was served in the afternoon, and we can vouch for the exceptional quality of that, as Mrs. Kyle is an excellent and accomplished cook.
Mrs. Harry Lowe of Houlton, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Ketel, has returned to her home.
O. T. Foster, who has been hauling gravel at Yankton, returned to his home here last Wednesday.
Several Michigan people of this place attended the Michigan picnic at Rainier on Thursday, Aug. 28, and were royally entertained by the Michigan people in that city, about 200 in all being present. The picnic proved a great success. Several new members were added. The next annual picnic will be held at Clatskanie the last Thursday in August, 1914.
Mr. and Mrs. Beagle of Yankton are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Eversaul.

SCAPPOOSE
August 30 was the date set by the county court for the people of Scappoose to decide whether the town should be incorporated or not. Much interest has been manifested during the past weeks in this election. The present state law prohibits saloons in unincorporated towns and the issue in this election largely became—Shall the town incorporate and thus pave the way for getting a saloon here? The election board consisted of Messrs. Geo. Grant, E. Stevens, E. C. Smith, C. E. Wickstrom and T. Roy. Mr. Roy resigned and Mrs. Gettel was elected to serve in his place. The heaviest voting was in the morning. The women showed their interest in the welfare of the community by voting. 140 votes were cast, 61 for incorporation and 79 opposed, thus giving an 18 vote majority against incorporation.

While Mrs. Fred Uhlman was enjoying a vacation at Seaside she was taken ill and brought home. Later she was taken to a Portland hospital and the doctors pronounced she was suffering from cerebral hemorrhage. Present reports are that she is in a serious condition, but her many friends are hoping that she may recover.
The Misses Hazel and Helen Watts spent Sunday with friends in Portland.
Mr. Hill from Vancouver, Wash., has purchased the Blaufus farm and is now living on the place.
Roy Price and wife were at the D. W. Price home on Sunday.
Mrs. R. F. Niblock has returned from her eastern trip. She spent three months visiting relatives in Pennsylvania.
W. Holland enjoyed Sunday at home.
Miss Carrie Stevens of Portland has been elected teacher of the 8th grade in place of Miss Toltz, who recently resigned.
A number of our people have gone to the hop fields for work. Among them are Mr. Garrison and family, Mrs. Gearhart and daughter, Mr. manek and family, Mr. Tolly and family, Mr. Barnett and family.
Prof. E. O. Bundy has returned to Scappoose and is ready for the opening of school. He reports an enjoyable trip east and a good visit with relatives and friends.
