TRENHOLM

O. D. Kyle visited St. Helens Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Myrtle Schneider left Sunday for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. Ella Smith, at Happy Hollow.

James Lowe of Houlton was seen on our streets Sunday.

The Library and Literary Association gave a fine program at the school house Saturday night to a large, appreciative audience. The new sectional book case is installed in the school room, the books have arrived and the Trenholmites look forward to a great amount of pleasure in the perusal of these volumes during the long, rainy, winter evenings.

Miss Gladys Lamberson arrived in Trenholm last week and will spend the winter here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lamberson.

Mrs. Chas. Hein made a trip to Houlton and St. Helens last Saturday.

Mrs. George Wilson visited Houlton and St. Helens on Wednesday last.

W. E. Eversaul is busy repairing roads, and they certainly need repairing, as they were becoming almost impassible.

O. T. Foster and son Lee returned from Portland Saturday where they went to sell their team.

P. E. Brockway was a visitor at Houlton and St. Helens Tuesday.

A party of girls gathered at the home of A. M. Campbell Saturday afternoon to help Melissa Allen celebrate her 10th birthday anniversary. A pleasant time is reported.

The telephone project is progressing nicely and Trenholm will soon be able to talk with the outside world again, as we expect to have one of the best telephone lines in the state.

George Cropp visited Portland last week and had a splinter of steel removed from his eyeball.

O. T. Foster has blis out for an auktion sale at Houlton, on Saturday, the 22nd of Nov., when he will sell his team, cows and other personal property.

Join the Boosters

If you like the old town best,
Tell 'em so!
If you'd have her lead the rest,
Help her grow!
When there's anything to do
Let the fellows count on you;
You'll feel bully when it's through,
Don't you know?

If you want to make a hit,
Get a name!
If the other fellow's it,
Who's to blame?
Spend your money in the town
Where you pull the shekles down;
Give the mail concerns a frown—
That's the game.

When a stranger from afar
Comes along,
Tell him who and what we are—
Make it strong,
Needn't flatter, never bluff;
Tell the truth, that's enough;
Join the boosters—they're the stuff,
You belong?

If you'er used to giving knocks,
Change your style!
Throw bouquets instead of rocks
For a while,
Let the other fellow roast;
Shun him as you would a ghost;
Meet his hammer with a boost
And a smile.
