The county and state inspector of weights and measures was in town this week examining the merchants' scales here. Out of four scales in constant use at Mr. Harrison's store all were found to be accurate and were sealed accordingly.

—LISTENING—

With ear to the ground the youthful present is heard in the unseen march of the ever-approaching future.

The step of one is faltering and uncertain, weak and insecure, as of a traveler overcome with journey but half complete. Nightly pleasures and passing party were his guide books.

The tread of another is brisk, firm, vigorous and very secure, as of a trained captain of industry, whose forces in control and making destinies with beck or nod. He improved his time and is now studying the road of success in

THE NIGHT SCHOOL High School Building, Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 7:30.

We wish to thank the people of St. Helens that have paid us a visit, we also invite you to call and inspect our line of 1 1/2c hose.
