Just for the purpose of fighting state wide prohibition, as a matter of protection to the hop industry, representative hopgrowers of the Willamette valley met at Salem and perfected the organization of the Hopgrowers and Dealers' association of Oregon. Besides making the temporary organization permanent, the hopmen elected a vice president for each of the hop-growing counties, and in those counties a county organization will be effected for the purpose of localizing the efforts of the association.

Marshfield society is in a hubbub over the "social highwayman" proclivities of an unidentified member of the local "four hundred." For several months matrons and others, who have attended "500" games, at homes, complimentaries and other similar functions, have been missing jewelry, money and other valuables. The social functions were attended solely by women and so the credit for the lifting ques to a feminine Raffles. Two and two and four and four have been put together and the losers and others now believe they have spotted the guilty party, yet they speak the name only in an abstract way and mention it to those they know won't tell.
