

A Lively Track Meet

A lively track meet was held last Saturday on the St. Helens school field, in which the schools of South Columbia County were participants.

High school, grammar and intermediate events were run off. Contestants were present from Goble, Trenholm, Yankton, Columbia City, West St. Helens and Scappoose. The high scores were made by St. Helens and Scappoose, St. Helens winning the high school events and Scappoose the grammar events.

Individual honors were won by Walter Zysett, St. Helens high school with 22 points, Watts Price, Scappoose high with 19 points, and Frank Robertson, St. Helens high with 12 points. In the grammar events Scappoose furnished the highest individual point-getter in Hugh Adams, who made five firsts, two seconds and a third, or 32 points in all.

For St. Helens grammar, Dewey Smith made 14 points and Jim Adams 12 1-2 points. Scappoose came into town with a merry crowd of fifty rooters, who were the merrier when their team won the ball game over St. Helens by a score of 15 to 14.

Mrs. Carrie Walker of Lapway, Idaho, is expected to spend June with her brothers family.

DEDICATED TO JACK AND HIS FORD.

Oh! Jack, Dspain, don't it give you a pain To ride over the ruts in West's lane?

No wonder, dear air, you failed to steer; The road is not clear, even for an engineer.

But as people can't afford to have auto Fords, Getting out of the road and busting boards.

Please come up here, bring the engineer; Make the road clear, will furnish beer. (Nit) Be sure, Dspain, to come again. And mend the road before the rain. And if you don't we'll get your goat. For all we women for you won't vote.

Later. Hurrah for Dspain, he is here again, soon a ride over the road will be pleasure, not pain.
