

LOCAL HAPPENINGS AND DOINGS

YOURSELF AND OTHERS WISE AND OTHERWISE

Born: to Mrs. Hugh Lelferman on June 24th, 1914, a son.

J. M. Fry of Scappoose was a St. Helens visitor Thursday.

Mr. Earl Barber was a Seaside visitor during the week.

Miss Lois Perry of Rainier visited in St. Helens on Thursday.

The Misses Bonnie of Yankton visited in St. Helens Wednesday.

Joel Hill of Clatskanie is in St. Helens today transacting business.

Rocking chairs from $1.50 up.
Ross's Furniture Store

Mr. Arthur Ketel was in Portland on Tuesday.

E. A. Rotger was a business visitor at Portland during the week.

L. E. Allen was a Portland visitor during the week.

Mrs. Fred Watkins was a Portland visitor on Tuesday.

J. F. Larson of Quincy, was a business visitor in St. Helens last Monday.

There will be service in the Episcopal Church next Sunday evening, June 28 at 7:15.

Mr. John Farr and family were passengers on Capt. Abel's car to Portland Tuesday.

Carpet Sweepers from $2.50 up.
Ross's Furniture Store

Miss Mildred Wright of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jeffcott in St. Helens this week.

A. S. Harrison attended the meeting of the Retail Merchants Association at LaGrande last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Christie were Rainier visitors, during the past week.

Mrs. J. H. Cronkite and little Jim visited with Portland friends in that city last week.

George McBride came down from Portland yesterday and attended to business matters in St. Helens for a few hours.

Mrs. J. H. Collins of Rainier was visiting St. Helens friends during the week.

Mrs. Matthews and her daughter Miss Ethel, departed yesterday for Seaside where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Ishister returned last Tuesday from Portland where she had been visiting friends for several days.

Miss Anne Ketel and Miss Elsie Philip returned Saturday from their school at the Willamette University at Salem.

Miss Lulu George returned to her home on last Saturday from Portland where she spent the winter as teacher in one of the schools of that city.

Mrs. George Shorter and her daughter of Shelton, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Shorter's uncle, J. W. Day, in St. Helens this week.

The starting time of Abel & Shepard's bus to Portland has been changed, the big car now leaving St. Helens at 7:30 in the morning instead of 7:45. Other times of arrival and departure remain the same.

Miss Maud Allen of Smith County, Kansas, arrived in St. Helens this week for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. M. F. Hazen. She will visit in St. Helens for some time and will then continue on her trip through the northwestern country on a sight seeing trip.

Word comes from the St. Johns Fire Company that their boys will visit St. Helens on the Fourth of July to participate in the festivities of that occasion. There will be an excursion from that city and it is expected a large crowd of people will come down.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Waters and Mrs. Grant entertained the ladies of the "Whirl" at the home of Mrs. Waters. The tables were beautifully decorated with red and cream roses. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with fancy work and a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Waters and Mrs. Grant proved themselves delightful hostesses.

W. J. Fullerton returned to St. Helens last Tuesday after spending two weeks as a guest of the Good Samaritan Hospital where he had an attack of typhoid fever. Dr. Cliff attended him and by careful nursing and modern treatments Mr. Fullerton escaped a serious siege of the dreaded disease. The many friends of Billy are really pleased to see him return in his usual good state of health.

J. W. Allen returned this week from a business trip to San Francisco.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Peel were Portland visitors during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Christie and Mr. Tabor were La Center visitors Friday.

George W. Grant the Scappoose livery man, was a business visitor at St. Helens today.

Mrs. W. F. Jones and the Misses Mueller of Portland and Miss Jones of California were guests of Mrs. A. J. Deming during the week.

Marshal Chittim pulled in a single drunk and disorderly this week who was taken before Recorder Quick and given five days on the street to think over the good time he had.

Charles R. McCormick of San Francisco was in St. Helens last Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. McCormick and together they went to Drain to attend the McCormick-Perkins wedding.

Steamer Multnomah of the McCormick line took out a million feet of lumber and sixty passengers from St. Helens for California, when she sailed last Saturday.

The Steamer Yosemite of the McCormick line left St. Helens yesterday with a load of 900,000 feet of piling and ties for Southern California. Forty passengers took passage on her.

The Cello will arrive at St. Helens this afternoon and will take on a cargo of lumber for Southern California. Mrs. M. J. Rutherford is one of the passengers coming up from San Francisco.

Mrs. S. C. Morton entertained at Five o'clock Tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. T. C. Morton who is spending the week at the home of her son, S. C. Morton in this city.

Last Sunday U. S. Spain was driving down the street in St. Helens when the valuable Boston Bull Dog, Opal, owned by Hayes Estabrook, ran out and the machine passed over her body killing her. Mr. Estabrook feels his loss very keenly.

Mrs. A. R. Grewell of Warren left a few samples of gooseberries at the Mist office this week which for size would be hard to beat. She has quite a patch of these berries on her place near Warren and says they are all of about the same size and quality.

G. W. Montgomery of the wholesale firm of Montgomery & Mullins of Los Angeles, Cal., was looking after business matters in St. Helens this week. His firm handles a portion of the output of the St. Helens mills.

Mr. S. M. Hauptman of San Francisco, Secretary-Treasurer of the St. Helens Lumber Co., and the Charles R. McCormick Co., arrived in St. Helens yesterday on business connected with the company. He stopped off at Drain to witness the McCormick Perkins nuptials.

Mrs. A. J. Deming entertained the Ladies of the M. E. Church Aid Society at her home in St. Helens. Dorothy Perkins Roses were the attractive decorations. After the usual business meeting Mrs. Deming served cake and ices.

The Kenton Tennis Club sent some teams down to St. Helens this week to compete with our tennis players and, as usual, the visitors went back home a defeated bunch. Quite a number of tennis enthusiasts came down with the players in a launch and a very enjoyable day was had by both the visitors and local players.

Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Ross entertained at dinner on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton and Mrs. T. C. Morton. After dinner a number of friends were invited in for the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Deming, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Allen, Dr. and Mrs. Jeffcott, Misses Mildred Wright and Eugenia Deming.

Our thanks are due to Mrs. J. E. Thayer of Columbia City for a gallon bucket full of delicious wild black berries picked back of Columbia City. These berries are quite plentiful this year and many people are out in the woods every day picking them.

Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. Southard were hostesses at one of those delightful "Whirls" at the Southard home on Willamette street last Wednesday afternoon, at which time a number of ladies were guests. The floral decorations were unusually effective and a most pleasant afternoon was spent. They had an out of town guest Mrs. Shorter of Shelton, Washington.

E. B. Tongue of Hillsboro, was looking after legal business in St. Helens this week.

The council meeting last Monday night was quite an interesting affair. Differences of opinion among the councilmen were aired very thoroughly and matters of importance were discussed at length. The matter of the injunction suit of M. Fresh against the city was discussed by the council but nothing was decided upon except to test the matter out in the courts which will probably be done next week.

The decision of the Circuit Court, in the suit for Criminal Libel brought by the Benedictine Sisters of Mt. Angel, Oregon against J. E. Hosmer, editor of the Silverton Journal, was sustained last week by the Supreme Court. The opinion of the Supreme Court was written by Hon. Chas. L. McNary, Chief Justice McBride and his associates concurring and confirming the unanimous verdict of the jury which found J. E. Hosmer "Gilty of Criminal Libel."

—CHURCHES—

METHODIST NOTES

Preaching services at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.

Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.
Epworth League service at 7:50 p. m.

The evening service is especially for young people.

Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

EDWARD T. LUTHER,
Pastor.

THIRST SATISFIED AND THE MYSTERIES OF CHRISTIANITY

Subjects for discourse at Plymouth Congregational Church for Sunday, June 28th, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Bible school at 10 a. m.

Christian Endeavor service 7 p. m.

"A church home for strangers and friends."

"Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

Everybody welcome.

F. J. MEYER,
Pastor.

FOR SALE—Two good box ball alleys, 40 feet long, with balls and fixtures complete, tent included.

If taken at once can be had at a bargain. Located in St. Helens.

F. S. WALTON
St. Helens

JAS. MUCKLE & SON

—GOODS OF QUALITY—

Don't Forget

SATURDAY, JUNE 27th IS RED LETTER DAY
10 S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS FREE.

Use the Telephone

TELEPHONE ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED
AND DELIVERED. PHONE NO. 3

CURLEE
$2.50, $3.50, $5.00
PANTS

REDUCTIONS ON MEN'S PANTS

Reductions on all Men's Curlee Dress Pants, for style and quality unexcelled.

$5.00 Pants for $3.50
$3.50 Pants for $2.50
$2.50 Pants for $2.00

Hats at Removal Prices

Men's fine felt Hats in black, brown, grey and navy. In all shapes and sizes. Light, cool, comfortable for summer in silk, and soft gray felt, very stylish and becoming. Ranging in price from $1.50 up.

Nice soft work hats in black and brown, with wide brim, rather high crown, worth up to $3.00 now on sale for $1.95.

John B. Stetson Derbies regular $5.00 hats at $2.95.

LADIES' KAYSER SILK GLOVES NOW 50c

In either black or white—regular size length. "The Tips Outwear the Gloves". Best quality silk. Sixteen button length Gloves in black or white. Warranted not to cut thru or wear out at the finger ends. Special value, $1.00 pair.

$3.50 NEMO CORSETS $1.98

If you want a nice white dress for the Fourth of July call and select from our stock of Dimities, Lawns, Voil, Ratine, Poplin, Flaxon and Crepe. We have some dainty patterns that will make you a serviceable and becoming dress.

White Dress Goods

Your choice of 50 high grade NEMO corsets, made of best Contel and fitted with durable Lasti-Kop supporters. Sold everywhere for $3.50. While these last we are offering them for

PETERSON'S CASH STORE WILLOPEN JUNE 29 In the Wellington Bld'g

A strictly up-to-date Grocery, handling besides a complete line of staple groceries, a full line of the well known Preferred Stock canned, glass and carton goods I respectfully extend to you this invitation to visit the store and take this occasion to solicit your valued patronage, which I will endeavor to merit through fair and courteous treatment. Prices always right We are new to you. You are new to us. We hope to get acquainted
Sincerely,
FRANK L. PETERSON, Prop.