SOME TWENTY YEARS AGO

Superintendent T. J. Cleston is just now finishing up his annual visit among the schools of the county. He visited the Houlton and Malville schools last Friday and Monday went out to Paris and Carico. Mr. Cleston expressed himself as well pleased with the progress made in school work during the past year.

Messrs Orchard & Jones, proprietors of the St. Helens water works expect to enlarge their plant in the near future by putting in a larger pump and building a new tank of larger dimensions. This will be done for the purpose of affording better fire protection, which is a commendable voluntary act on the part of the gentlemen.

Muckle Bros. have had several men with horse and cart engaged for several days cleaning away the wreckage from in and about their sawmill and store. The work must of necessity progress slowly as things are in a very mixed condition. The firm are not able to estimate their loss to the mill as the machinery is not yet all out of water.

Professor W. H. Powell passed through this place Wednesday on his way to Pittsburg, where his parents reside and where he will spend part of his vacation. Professor Powell has finished his first year as principal of one of the Oregon City schools, and his work has been so thorough and satisfactory that the board has seen fit to retain him another year at the same salary, though the salaries of grade teachers have been greatly reduced. Mr. Powell after a years' residence in the Falls city, has nothing but words of commendation to say for its people.

Mr. E. E. Quick has purchased Judge Switzer's interest in the business of Cole & Switzer, abstractors, and at the end of his term of County Clerk will form a partnership with Mr. G. W. Cole to engage in the business of abstracting, conveyancing and general real estate and brokerage business. The new firm will occupy the same old stand as the former firm. These gentlemen need no word of introduction to the people of Oregon as they are both well known men business capacity. They are here for business on business principals.

Rev. Judy preached in St. Helens last Sunday night upon a subject directly pertaining to Coxeyism. The reverend gentleman claimed that the American had cultivated the habit of living far ahead of the times and extravagance, or lack of economy was the principal cause of the present depression and financial condition. No one will hardly dispute this fact, but Coxeyism does not offer a remedy.
