

LOCAL HAPPENINGS AND DOINGS

YOURSELF AND OTHERS WISE AND OTHERWISE

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sutherland have moved into the M. C. Gray residence on the corner of Columbia and Willamette Streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blackburn, Miss Edna Harris, Ed. Laws and Louis LaBare returned Wednesday from a camping trip over on the Nehalem where they spent three weeks. They report a very pleasant time except Elmer who says he had to help his old neighbors pitch hay as help is very scarce in that locality and he was pressed into service at every opportunity. However he enjoyed the trip very much.

President Tarbell of the Columbia County Fair is again busy with a crew of men completing the new buildings at the fair grounds. Everything will be in readiness for the exhibits when the time comes and there will be room for all exhibitors.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cassett have moved into their new bungalow on Casneau Street.

The K. of P. Lodge of St. Helens installed officers for the ensuing term last week as follows: C. C., Jacob George; V. C., S. R. Sonneland; P., H. W. White; M. of W., J. W. Clark; M. at A., James O'Connor; I. G., Martin White; O. G., A. L. Stone.

Mr. A. T. Farris of Eugene, representative of the Superior School Seat Co., spent several days in St. Helens and vicinity this week interviewing the school boards of the community. He placed several orders for seats and school supplies.

George M. McBride came down from Portland this week and spent several days here looking after legal business.

Mrs. M. E. Miller went to Canby, Oregon, this week and the result is that there is a shortage of local news in this issue.

Ray Chapman, Manager of the Plaza Pharmacy, left last week for a trip to his old home in Eastern Oregon and before returning will visit with relatives in the Willamette Valley. During his absence Oswald Deming is in charge of the store.

Dr. R. J. Pilkington, one of the leading physicians of Astoria, was a visitor in St. Helens last Monday, being called here as a witness on the case of Hans Christensen vs the Nehalem Railway Co. The case was settled out of Court by the railway company paying to Mr. Christensen One Thousand Dollars.

John McCourt, ex-U. S. District Attorney, was a business visitor in St. Helens last Monday.

Norman Merrill of Clatskanie was on our streets the early part of the week.

While in Southern Oregon the past few weeks, Wilbur Muckle has purchased a car load of pure bred goats for Charles Muckle. Mr. Muckle will put the goats on his McNulty Creek farm.

Mrs. Patridge who has been visiting at Seattle for sometime was the inspiration Thursday for an attractively appointed ted, presided over by Mrs. L. G. Ross.

Those present were Mrs. Emerson Quick, Mrs. Arthur George, Mrs. James Dart, Mrs. Flora Owen, Mrs. Charles Blakesley, Mrs. Margaret Rutherford, Mrs. Alma Heilbron, Mrs. William Ross and Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dillard and their two sons are at Seaside this week. Mr. Dillard will return to St. Helens next week to look after business matters, while Mrs. Dillard and the boys will remain at Seaside for some weeks.

Mayor A. W. Mueller returned from Seaside last week where he spent several days with his family.

Mrs. A. B. Lake was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland this week where she was operated on by Drs. Peel and Kirby. Reports from the hospital as we go to press are that Mrs. Lake has rallied satisfactorily and is in a fair way to complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blakesley were Portland visitors during the week.

W. J. Fullerton left Thursday for Seattle where he will take in the big Tillamook Potlatch and before returning will visit with friend and relatives in several portions of the Puget Sound Country.

Editor Bayliss of the Clatskanie Chief was a business visitor in St. Helens Tuesday. He was returning from Eugene where he had been attending as a delegate the Synod of the Presbyterian Church.

J. H. Price was a visitor in Portland last Wednesday.

Mrs. Eugene Blakesley was hostess last Friday at a Thimble Tea, her guests were Mrs. Laud Rutherford, Mrs. L. G. Ross, Mrs. A. J. Deming, Mrs. J. Allen, Mrs. S. C. Morton, Mrs. Frank George, Miss Heilbron, Mrs. M. A. Stine and Mrs. W. W. Blakesley.

An ad in this issue announces that the Independent Auto Co. has taken the Columbia County Agency for the Ford Automobiles. Since taking the agency for this popular car the boys have disposed of nearly a dozen machines in the county and will keep a sufficient stock on hand to meet the demand. Read their ad.

Several of the Masonic Fraternity of St. Helens went to Rainier last Saturday night for a fraternal visit to the lodge of that city.

Fred Cramer of Rainier came to St. Helens this week and purchased the interest of T. W. Blew in the saloon business of Estabrook & Blew in St. Helens and took charge of the business on the same day. The firm name hereafter will be Estabrook & Cramer.

J. S. Allen is taking his vacation and spending the time with his relatives in Spokane.

Mrs. M. F. Hazen spent Thursday in Warren where she attended the meeting of the Warren W. C. T. U. which met at the home of Mrs. Gust Isaacson. A very enjoyable day was spent and much business transacted.

Constable J. L. Campbell of Clatskanie brought up Charles Eklund, a Norwegian sailor, last Thursday and placed the man in jail here awaiting an examination as to his sanity. The man is suffering with countrymen are after him with guns and knives and that he will be killed. He was captured after travelling through the woods for several hours and was quite violent when taken in charge. He is at present in the county jail.

FOR SALE—Hogs and Pigs, all ages and sizes.

Earl Saxton,
Bachelor Flat.

WARREN NEWS

The many friends of Mrs. Charly Baker were congratulating her last Friday, July 10, on having reached her 87th birthday. She has lived in this neighborhood since she and her husband came from the East in April of 1890. She is known all over the county for her Christian life. She has six children, twenty-one grand children and twenty-one great grand children.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanwood of St. Helens were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Isaacson last Sunday.

Misses Ruth and Eva Miles of Portland arrived here Tuesday evening and will stay with their mother Mrs. L. A. Puzey.

The dance given in Erickson's hall last Friday evening was well attended and a good time enjoyed by all.

A good deal of work is being done on the roads of this vicinity. Crushed rock is being placed on all of the cross roads.

A picture show was given in Erickson's hall Monday night by the Traveling Picture Show Company and a good crowd attended. Another show will be given in about three weeks but the exact date is not yet known.

While the red flag signifying scarlet fever has been taken away from several homes, there are still several of them left in the community.

Mrs. A. Muhr is still at the Emanuel Swedish Hospital in Portland, where she underwent a serious operation a couple of weeks ago.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. G. Isaacson Thursday afternoon and was well attended for such a busy season of the year.

Mrs. Olson of St. Helens visited her mother, Mrs. M. Bacon, this week.

Mrs. Green of Missouri is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cooper.

METHODIST NOTES

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m.
Preaching Services at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.

Epworth League, a service for the young people conducted by the young people at 7:00 p. m.

Mid-week Prayer Meeting 7:30 Thursday evening.

A cordial welcome is extended to all.

EDWARD T. LUTHER Pastor.

Letters unclaimed at the St. Helens, Oregon post office for the week ending July 11th, 1914.

Mr. R. J. Howell

Mrs. Walter Jones
Lula Moore
Capt. A. R. Kammerer.
Letters unclaimed by July 25th, 1914 will be sent to the Dead-letter office.
IVA E. DODD, P. M.

SCAPOOSE

Mr. and Mrs. Goodnough Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Bushman.

A fine shower was given for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Duncan Wednesday and many useful articles were brought for them.

The play grounds are progressing nicely under the management of Mrs. Grant Watts.

Mrs. Emma Smith called on sick friends at the hospital at Portland on Wednesday.

C. L. Smith and daughter Ethel visited St. Helens, Monday.

Francis Sholtz is visiting at the Rose City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Frederickson of Linnton Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adams.

Mrs. Harry Stanton went to the Good Samaritan Hospital, Tuesday.

It seems good to see Chancy Butler's pleasant smile on our streets again.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grewell expects to leave for Florida next week. The bridge crew is here again.

Scappoose Ball Team played against Deer Island and Scappoose won.

Bob Hobert took in the ball game at Portland, Sunday.

D. W. Price and family are away to Newport this week.

Virgil Stevens was up from St. Helens, Tuesday.

Mrs. Adams has a nice sleeping porch added to her house which looks real nice.

Orvil Garrison, Ben Copeland, Dennis Balch, Henry Crouse all went out camping this week.

Say, if you had made a bigger hole in the window, we would have got the watermelons, boys.

The Redmen and Pocahontis lodges had a joint installation on Saturday night. After installing was over ice cream and cake was served and a delightful program rendered.

The Ladies of the Maccabees of Rainier came to our city Thursday loaded down with good eatables and our Ladies here joined them and they all went for a picnic. After the lunch was over they caught craw fish and all had a jolly good time.

Charlie Lenard is working at Houlton, at the depot for the S. P. S. Mr. Hobert made a flying trip here Sunday.

JAS. MUCKLE & SON

—GOODS OF QUALITY—

SUMMER SEASON SPECIALS

Shopping news that will be of interest to the economical buyer. A careful perusal of our bargains each week will result in considerable saving to you.

MEN'S FLANNEL SHIRTS

If you are planning a trip to the mountains or coast you will find our heavy flannel shirts very serviceable as well as comfortable to wear on your outing. In colors of blue and gray, with two pockets and trimmed with heavy white pearl buttons.

PRICES $1.50 $2.25 $3.50

39c MEN'S POROSKNIT UNDERWEAR 39c

Special clearance reduction on Men's Guaranteed Porosknit Underwear. If it fails to give your moneys worth in underwear satisfaction you can return it and your money will be refunded. Guarantee with each garment.

REGULAR PRICE 50c—the garment 39c

COMFORTABLE SUMMER CORSETS

The new models in the Royal Worcester Corsets are designed especially for comfort during the warm weather. They have low bust, no side steels and very few bones. Made of best quality white sateen and are unmatchable. We would be especially pleased to have you call and see the different models.

PRICES $1.00 $1.50 $2.00

GIRLS MIDDY BLOUSES

Before you leave for your vacation, see that you have some extra MIDDIES in your trunk, for you will find them ever so useful to slip on and wear, without going to a lot of trouble to fix up. You will find a nice assortment to select from in our stock, they are of heavy white galatea, laced or button front, in the Norfolk or Sailor styles.

PRICES $1.00 $1.25 $1.50

DRESS MAKERS' SUPPLIES

We have a new stock of Warren's Girdelin, material used as a form for girdles in black and white from four to six inches in width. Very useful for making girdles

BEAUTIFUL NEW SHIRT WAIST CHIFFON

In colors of white, blue, black and navy, very sheer with Moire effect. 36 inches in width. Something very dainty and yet durable for your nice waists.

PETERSON'S CASH STORE

The Store of Quality, where Money Talks. Where the good people who pay their bills get value for their money. Everything Neat, Fresh and Clean.

Prompt Service, A Square Deal and Your "Money Back" Guarantee with every article purchased.

FRANK L. PETERSON, Prop.