

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE.

Miss Olga Marek is again assisting in the post office.

J. G. Watts was doing business in St. Helens on Tuesday.

Miss Maud Duncan has gone to Portland for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sandstrom were Portland visitors last Saturday.

Dr. Flynn of Portland, was a business visitor here last Thursday.

A 9-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Grewell last Friday night.

Lloyd Price is home again, trying to shake off another attack of poison oak.

Mrs. Edgar Stevens has been quite ill for a few days, but is improving again.

Miss Ardath Hagey entertained Miss Eva Garsson at her home over Sunday.

Mr. Hilts, clerk at Watts & Price store, Sundayed with his family at Sheridan.

Miss Ethel Smith of Portland, spent the week end with her old friends here.

The Price family took an auto trip up the highway last Sunday and report some rain.

Albert Leonard and wife were guests at the parental home a couple of days last week.

Miss Merrill of Portland, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Rhodes.

Mrs. Kilpack and son, Gilbert, of Portland, are spending a few days as guests of Mrs. J. G. Watts.

The new Cloninger building is now getting its coat of paint and will soon be ready for its occupants.

M. J. Butler is confined to his bed with a lame back, with prospects of several days' rest from work.

Chas. Duncan of Portland, a real estate dealer, was in our vicinity Tuesday looking after farm land.

Gus Hegele has been ill at his nephew's sanitarium in Portland. Glad to see him able to return home.

Emmet Stevens has lumber to build a new garage. He is advised to build it in a fire proof spot this time.

We are all glad to get the latest report from Tom Cloninger. He is much better and now recognizes his family.

Mrs. Emma Smith came down from Portland Wednesday to attend Pocatontos lodge and returned to Portland Thursday.

The children are all preparing for Hallow'en. A party is being planned to be given in the W. & P. hall by the Endeavorers.

R. Snyder moved 55 hives of bees from the Dangerfield place to his farm, where he will keep them for John Rusk, who has bought them.

Robbers entered Milloy's pool room Sunday night and helped themselves to some canned goods and a few other articles, but the loss was not very great.

Oh, yes; lest we forget! Here's good advice. Put a good, strong padlock on your hen house and get a good dog and gun. Something doing this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roy of LaCenter, spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Elizabeth Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Roy are moving to Portland as well as their mother and will be close together.

Mrs. J. C. Johnston, who has been visiting her daughter at Rogue River, returned home Tuesday, bringing her daughter and baby with her for a visit. There is great rejoicing at the Johnston home.

Mr. Schunk, who lived here about five years ago, and after becoming very ill was taken East by friends, has returned to visit old friends. He is stopping at the Sandstrom home at present.

The report we received from H. West's Jersey herd at the Panama-Pacific exposition is as follows: Seven first prizes, four second prizes, two junior champions, first on calf herd, first on young herd, first on graded herd, first on dam, first on get of sire, third on get of sire. Several thirds and fourths, grand champion, which gave him a large silver cup worth $200. The cup is placed on a stand made of fancy wood and it all together stands three feet high. Mr. West can point with pride now to thirteen silver cups.

High School Notes.

Fridays are current event days in history class.

Guy Beaver has returned to school. He is in the eighth grade.

"Exam Week" so far everyone has come out with a smiling face.

The B class of the third year sewing class are working on woollens.

The board have ordered gasoline irons and ironing boards for the sewing classes.

Lenore and Mary Metcalf and Rhoda West spent Monday night with Gladys Payne and partook of a duck dinner.

This week seemed to be visiting week. Those visiting different rooms were: Mrs. Bert West, Mrs. L. Brown, Mrs. D. W. Price, Mrs. A. E. Johnson and Mrs. Mildred Watts. We like to have the parents come.

We are sorry to say that the Adams children have left us. Addie entered Washington High on last Monday and Ben entered one of the public schools.

Mr. Fowler, in physical geography class: "What can you do to a swamp in order to prepare it for cultivation?" A fresman immediately answered: "Irrigate it."

All tryouts for the debating squads will be on Thursday. Those entering are Helen Watts, Lauriel Blatchford, Hazel Wikstrom, Marjorie Holland, Valdes White, Ray Holland, Dix Holaday, Lyle Jobin, Dewey Cloninger and Kenneth Ackley. For the tryout the question will be: "Resolved, that the United States should have compulsory military training. A full account will be given next week.

HOULTON.

Mrs. Clinton Scott was a Portland visitor last week.

Glen Burnett has started to High School at St. Helens.

Frank Kelley and wife were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Cooper of Warren was a Houlton visitor Tuesday.

A. T. Kiblan and daughter, Helen, went to Portland last Wednesday.

C. C. Chambers spent a few days in the big city the first of the week.

Miss Wonita Broiles of Yankton, is visiting Miss Juanita Moffett of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thompson have gone to Portland to reside this winter.

Jarvis Davis, who has been very ill at his home near Yankton, is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Negro and little daughter spent the day in Portland Saturday.

Charlie White left Tuesday afternoon for another hunting trip of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lake visited friends and relatives in Portland over Sunday.

Miss Hazel Rasey of Deer Island, is here to visit her sister, Miss Lulu for a few days.

John McQueen went to Portland Saturday for a few days. He returned on Monday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Schoonover has returned to Forest Grove, after a week spent here attending to business.

Sherman Saxton was a Portland visitor Tuesday of this week, returning on the afternoon train.

Mrs. Thompson White spent the week end in Portland with friends, returning Tuesday afternoon.

C. C. Chambers and family will leave soon for North Carolina, where they will make their future home.

Grant Watts, the Scappoose merchant, was a business visitor in Houlton and St. Helens Tuesday between trains.

Mrs. Merle Staines spent a few days here at the home of E. I. Staines and wife last week, returning to her home Thursday at Everett, Wash.

Mrs. Mary Morgus, Mrs. A. T. Kiblan and daughters, Lavinia and Rose, motored to Portland Thursday in Mrs. Morgus' Overland car.

Miss Naomi West, the new teacher here, spent the week end in Portland with her parents, returning Sunday evening. Miss W. is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brehaut.

Rev. Snyder and Charlie White returned from their hunting trip Saturday evening, having had a very pleasant time, but little success with their rifles.

The Jitney dance at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening, was a success in every way. There was a good crowd, excellent music and a delicious cafeteria luncheon. The proceeds amounted to quite a sum.

Miss Lillian Cade will celebrate the eleventh anniversary of her birth with a Hallow'en party at her home near Houlton, at the Lone Fir Dairy farm, on Monday evening. A large number of her young friends have been hidden, and it will be an occasion of much merriment.

Edward Bellamy has moved into the Lofstrand building to assume his new place of business, having purchased the business from F. Ambrose. Mr. Bellamy and his wife are both familiar with the shoe repair business, and hope to be kept busy at their trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham returned home on last Friday afternoon, after an absence of several weeks spent at Trout Lake, Wash., where Mr. Graham goes for his health; he is very much improved by his rest.

Rev. Sanford Snyder went to Portland Tuesday to see C. K. Olson, who is there at St. Vincent's hospital. Mr. Olson was injured a few weeks ago by falling from a scaffolding while at work on A. T. Kiblan's new store, and sustained a broken limb and numerous bruises. He is getting on very nicely now, however, and hopes to be out again as soon as his broken bones heal.

Ted Prescott arrived in Houlton on Wednesday morning from Montague, Cal., near Mt. Shasta. Ted says he came to Oregon again to get a good wetting; there has been no rain for five months at Montague. Mrs. Prescott is there, and will probably come to Houlton in the near future.

RAINIER.

Mrs. Alice Moeck, formerly of this place, but now of St. Helens, came down Saturday night and visited over Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. C. Wilson.

Mrs. H. Frick arrived this week from The Dalles, where she is spending the winter for her health. Mrs. Frick is very much improved in health and says that she likes the climate of the upper Columbia.

Oscar Everman left last Friday for his old home in Kentucky, where he expects to spend some time with his people. Mr. Everman will be greatly missed by his many friends in Rainier.

Some big improvements are being made around the Congregational church. The work is being done under the supervision of Wm. Reid, and will add greatly to future social events held there.

The Parent-Teachers' association met for the first time Friday evening, October 15, and elected Miss Allen president and Mrs. M. Sheelra secretary. A short program was rendered, but the greater part of the evening was taken up in formulating plans for the organization to work along the coming year.

George Tufts is passing around the regulation signs this week, the object is a 10-pound boy, who arrived Saturday night.

J. C. Smith, one time resident and merchant and first depot agent in this city and father of Mrs. Jack Stacy of this place, died at his home in Portland last Saturday evening after a lingering illness of cancer of the stomach. Deceased was born in Polk county, Oregon, September 29, 1858, where he lived with his family. It was in Polk county that he entered his first business career, that of the stock business. He was married to Miss Mills E. Evans, to which union seven children were born, six of whom are living to mourn their loss. There also remains his mother, Mrs. Nat Webb, at Walla Walla, Wash. Later in life Mr. Smith moved his family to this place, where he entered the mercantile and hotel business until the year 1895, at which time he disposed of his business and engaged in the real estate business at Portland, in which business he was engaged at the time of his death.—Review.

CLATSKANIE.

Mrs. A. C. Palmer returned from Portland Wednesday evening after an absence of several weeks looking after business interests. On Monday she attended the funeral of her brother, Mr. Garland, an old Oregon pioneer.

J. E. Booth accompanied Mr. Reeder, of the Delta gardens, on a trip to Portland and Willamette Valley points during the week to test out some cattle which the latter expects to purchase in preparation for the opening of the cheese factory.

A clever little comedy, entitled "The Deestrick Skule," will be presented at the Columbia theatre on Friday evening, Nov. 12, by the "Victory" and "Live Wire" classes of the Methodist Sunday school. The proceeds will be devoted to the basement fund.

J. J. Kinyoun and family came down from Portland on the steamer Beaver on Friday last, bringing their household goods with them and have taken up their residence in the apartments over the Lewis market. Mr. Kinyoun is a blacksmith and has established himself in business in the Cravens livery barn.

Last Friday at the debating tryouts the following candidates were successful: Alma Kent, Thillie Pulliam, Herbert Geary, Clarence Evenson, Nellie Geary and Jesse Lewis. The other two aspirants, Edward Larson and Helena Faltinat, will be held as substitutes in case of accident to any of the team. The judges were: Mrs. Conyers, Mrs. McCord and Mrs. Trafzer.—Chief.

YANKTON.

Miss Olive Hyde is visiting relatives in Idaho.

Mr. Hastings is enjoying the visit of relatives from Indiana.

Mrs. Eber Brown has been entertaining during the week a friend who is one of the nurses in the St. Vincent hospital.

The scholars of the Yankton school gave a basket social on last Friday evening, which was well attended. The baskets were donated by the scholars, and sold to the highest bidder by Mr. Hastings, who was auctioneer for the occasion. The sale of baskets brought a little over fourteen dollars. The money will be used for games for the school.

Geo. W. Young, D. D., will speak in the city hall Monday evening, November 8, at 7:30 p. m. He is a noted speaker and a forcible reasoner. He has been connected with the Anti-Saloon league for a number of years and has devoted much time to the cause of temperance. Admission free.

CITY LEGISLATURE.

Surveying for St. Helens—Houlton Sidewalk—New Walks Ordered.

Council met Monday evening with all members present.

The County Surveyor stated that he had surveyed the line from the west line of Knighton D. L. C. to east line of right of way of S. P. & S. for the proposed sidewalk to be constructed along the south line of the county road and suggested that monuments be erected and the county line be determined.

The attorney for Hillsboro National Bank discussed with council the collection of interest now due on sewer warrants. Taken under advisement to be taken up Wednesday evening.

Councilman Ballagh reported the Sheldon dock had been fixed, as requested.

The recorder reported that he had mailed letters notifying property owners of their indebtedness on sewers.

Chas. Muckle asked council to improve street crossing near his residence. Referred to street and alley committee.

Councilman Southard reported that sewer between Winter and Oak streets was clogged up and overflowing. Referred to Southard to have same remedied.

Councilman Southard also reported sidewalk along Willamette street opposite Block 28, in need of repairs; also that brush over many portions of the sidewalk along Hemlock street. Marshal was instructed to notify owners to construct an 8-foot walk. He was also instructed to see that the brush along the sidewalk on Hemlock street was removed.

CREAMERY NOTES.

Carpenters are at work finishing the interior of the north room in the Masonic building for the creamery. A number of the directors were in town Wednesday to decide on the machinery. They have quotations from several houses who furnish creamery supplies and will select the machinery best suited for the plant at this place.

The creamery hopes to have electric power. Mr. McCormick stated that if sufficient business could be secured, he would be glad to furnish twenty-four hour service.

SHIPPING.

The J. B. Stetson took on 150,000 feet of lumber for San Pedro, California, and 15 passengers.

The steamer Klamath pulled out the first of the week for San Pedro, California, with a million feet of lumber.

The Forest Home is still in the yard undergoing repairs and will not be ready for a cargo for a week yet. She was condemned by the inspector and certain improvements ordered, which are being complied with.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia. D. B. Horton, plaintiff, vs. Joseph L. Brink and Viola A. Brink, his wife, and Vida Davenport, defendants. To Vida Davenport, defendant: (In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 11th day of December, 1915, being the day fixed by order of this Court for you to appear and answer, and being more than six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: more than six weeks from the 29th day of October, 1915; and if you fail to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in his said complaint, to-wit: for judgment upon a promissory note for $700.00, with 8 per cent interest thereon from the 20th day of November, 1914; for the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for a decree of foreclosure of the mortgage upon the following described premises, to-wit:

Beginning at a point that is 762.4 feet west of the point that is 25.75 feet north of the quarter section corner between Sections 8 and 9, in T. 7 N., R. 4 W., of the W. M., for the following; running thence from said point of beginning var. south 35 deg. 46 min. west 145.2 feet; thence south 54 deg. 14 min. east, 100 feet; thence north 35 deg. 46 min. east, 124 feet; thence north 54 deg. 14 min. west, 92 feet; thence west 8.5 feet to the point of beginning; together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published in the St. Helens Mist, a weekly newspaper printed and published, and of general circulation, in Columbia County, Oregon, once each week for six (6) consecutive weeks, by order of the Honorable James A. Eakin, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia, made on the 27th day of October, 1915, the first publication being October 29th, 1915, and the last publication on December 10, 1915.

MAGILL, MCKENNEY & BRUSH, Attorneys for Plaintiff, 228-31 Morgan Building, Portland, Ore. 45-7

St. Helens Improvement Company
HEWITT BUILDING

See us before investing. We will treat you right. We are home people and work for the best interests of St. Helens and Columbia county.

Handle Real Estate, Fire Insurance and Rentals

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED

BRICK, PLASTER, LIME, CEMENT
Complete Line of DUPONT EXPLOSIVES

FRANK WILKINS On Sheldon Dock

Have them during the whole meal

SNOWFLAKE SODAS
give a wholesome, delicious piquancy. Perfectly at home at the most elaborate banquet or the simplest meal.

Your dealer has them
Ask to see the New Family Tin

PACIFIC COAST BISCUIT CO.
PORTLAND, OREGON

THE NORTH BANK ROAD

Manufacturers' and Land Products Exposition

Portland, October 25-Nov. 13

2nd Annual Show of All-Oregon and Southern Washington Agricultural Products and Manufacturing Resources.

PRESENTED BY PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Round Trip Rates

Excursion Sale Dates from Houlton, October 25, 29; November 1, 5, 8, 12. Return Limit Five Days After date of Sale.

J. O. DIVENS, Agent, Houlton.

PROTECT yourself against disease germs by the use of a reliable disinfectant.

KRESO DISINFECTANT is a shield against disease because it will kill the germs that cause disease.

Used in accordance with the directions in the booklet, KRESO DISINFECTANT will prevent Meningitis and the equally dangerous disease, Tuberculosis. KRESO is approved by your State Board of Health, and is used by thousands of hospitals, physicians, railroads and health boards. Read the booklets.

Half pint bottles at 20c will make 6 1/4 gallons of disinfectant.
1 pint bottles at 35c will make 13 gallons of disinfectant.
1 quart can at 50c will make 25 gallons of disinfectant.
Half gallon can at 75c will make 50 gallons of disinfectant.

YOUR PHYSICIAN WILL APPROVE YOUR USE OF KRESO.

For Sale by your Druggist.

A. J. DEMING
ST. HELENS, OREGON

EUROPEAN PLAN AMERICAN PLAN

EVERYTHING MODERN AT THE

ST. HELENS HOTEL

J. GEORGE, Proprietor ALL BUSES CALL AT HOTEL

RATES $1.00 AND UP

SPECIAL RATES TO REGULAR BOARDERS