

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE *

All the boys in town are building sleds these days. The trucks are still tied up on account of the snow. Mr. and Mrs. R. Niblock entertained Rev. Johnston and family on Sunday last. Mrs. J. S. Mann of Linnton, spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crowley. Frank L. Smith shipped another carload of cattle Monday to be used in the Portland market. Everybody seemed to be casting suspicious glances at everybody they met Tuesday. There was a detective in town. Mrs. L. M. Duncan is quite sick at present, but with daughter Maude as nurse, we believe she will soon be up again. A man by the name of James Harrison died at Pisgah Heights after a short illness. Paralysis was the cause of death. Mrs. Dr. Hatfield has been sick for several days. Mrs. Chas. Barker is taking Mrs. Hatfield's place in the school room. On account of sickness in the Englert family, Mrs. Alice Englert Wayburne came from The Dalles to assist in nursing. Miss Athline Tolly closed her school at Fernhill in Beaver valley, until the weather conditions are more favorable. We learned that Tom Roy has returned from California and is now employed at Al Harrison's store in St. Helens. Wood is in great demand these days—anyone having several hundred cords report to agent Niblock, who will furnish buyers. Miss Ella Jace Butler has returned from Eugene, but expects to go back in a few weeks. Mrs. M. J. Butler has been having her turn doctoring the grip. Jesse Hammer of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Forest Grove, came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Phoebe L. Whitney, last Saturday. Wm. Howell and family are moving back to Scappoose from Eastern Oregon. Snow is reported five feet deep there—putting a stop to logging. A mournful dog tale. Some one shot Mr. Crowley's pet dog. The train killed a dog belonging to James Tabor and another canine belonging to Rob McKay. We can't blame the train, but anyone who is low enough to deliberately shoot a pet dog without a good cause is a low character. On account of the boat Hoo Hoo being tied up, awaiting the clearing of the river of ice, Harry Smith and wife are spending a few days with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gillett.

FROM NEW YORK

Pomona, N. Y., Jan. 3, 1916. Editor Mist:—I enclose $1.00 to extend my subscription. I do not know when it was due or how much per annum. You are giving an interesting paper, and am glad to know St. Helens is doing so well. We have had several years of fearful times since the no-tariff crew have the control. If they are not cleaned out next trip, Europe will deluge this country with cheap goods and what gold we have accumulated through this war will leave in three years, factories go out of business and labor on the street as it was after this crew came in power. I am always interested in the shipping reports each week from St. Helens. Yours truly, G. N. HAUPTMAN.

MONEY TO INVEST

SUNDAY CLOSING LAW TO SLEEP

The Sunday closing law seems to be up in the air. In Multnomah county the matter has been appealed and Judge Gantenbein has granted an injunction. The officials of Columbia county have accepted Judge Gantenbein's decision and will not enforce the law. As the matter will be decided at the next election the enforcement of the law will be permitted to rest. As it has been asleep for some fifty years it is thought little harm will ensue to permit it to sleep a few months longer.
