Moore, chief justice of the supreme court, still makes this city as his home. While he has been a member of the supreme court for twenty-four years, he still considers St. Helens his home. We expect him here next May when he will be gladly welcomed by his old friends and neighbors. He is a gentleman whom we all delight to honor.

Lunch at Mason's.

Fancy Box Candy at Mason's. If the railroad is blockaded the river is still open to navigation. Call the Sunny Brook Dairy and order your cream and milk. Phone 106-5. Royal Candy Kitchen for pure, home-made Candies, made in good old St. Helens. The milkman is having a hard time to do his milking and make the rounds of delivery. The Firemen will give a Valentine dance in the city hall Saturday evening, February 12. Anyhow, the ground hog failed to see his shadow and we may expect good weather "in the course of time." The proceedings of the teachers institute held in Rainier, were received too late for publication in this issue, but will appear next week. Walter Moulthrop, the retiring partner of Terry & Moulthrop, will move to Seattle as soon as the roads are in condition for automobiling. School was dismissed several days this week on account of the cold. On account of deep snow and storm, it was dangerous to permit the little ones to attend school. Judge Clark came in on the delayed train Wednesday evening, also Commissioner Harvey. Guess Commissioner Wood is snowed in as he failed to get in an appearance. Wm. McKinster, who resides six miles west of Goble, was arrested Tuesday, charged with having a keg of beer at a dance. He pled not guilty and the trial is set for next Monday. Martin White left last Friday evening for Sunnyside, Wash., in response to a telegram announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Julia Brock. When he left he did not know how long he would be absent.

There was no meeting of the Grange Tuesday evening on account of the bad weather. Mrs. Oscar Erickson spent several days in Portland and with her parents at Creston the past week. A number of parents and the school board showed their interest by visiting school Friday. Also several of the young people were present. We hope they will come again, soon. Ben Skoen was given a fine surprise Friday evening when a party of young people gathered at his home to help him celebrate his birthday and spend a pleasant evening. Warren had an unusual winter Wednesday. The train from Portland ran late at 9 o'clock, arrived about 11 and remained until 4 p. m. when the Astoria train, which had been held up at Rainier, arrived.
