MIST MISTINGS

Lunch at Mason's.

Mrs. Slade was a Sunday visitor to Portland.

Miss Jessie Stokes spent Saturday in Portland.

James Kemp took a run to Portland Sunday.

Jacob George was a Portland visitor Friday.

Mrs. John Arvidson spent Monday in Portland.

Meet your friends at the Royal Confectionery.

Miss Leona Perkins spent the week end at Eugene.

Miss Lucille Slade was a week end visitor in Portland.

Dressmaking, room 9, Bank building. Mrs. E. G. Hibbs. 3t

Clyde Sutherland made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tonzat spent the week end in Portland.

Mrs. Hi Mott Allen returned home from Portland Wednesday.

Dr. H. R. Cliff attended the K. of P. lodge here Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frad Watkins were passengers to Portland Sunday.

Congolium Rugs in all sizes and patterns. Ross' Furniture Store.

Don't forget that the St. Helens dairy wants to please you. Phone 107.

Royal Candy Kitchen and Confectionery. The best of Hot and Cold Drinks.

Rubber tire Go-Carts and Buggies re-tired while you wait. Ross' Furniture Store.

Mrs. George Pringle and son, George, returned home from Lebanon on Thursday.

Mrs. John Strickwich has just undergone an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. F. A. Wikstrom of Scappoose, visited Monday and Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Van Natta.

Reese Hall, Lester Wellington, Raymond Deavers and Edgar Muckle motored to Fleida to visit friends.

Hon. W. B. Dillard delivered a very interesting address before the grades and High School on Lincoln's birthday.

Wm. Wacha, wife and son, arrived Sunday evening from Stanton, Michigan, and are the guests of Peter Felton and family.

The "Friendship" class of the M. E. Sunday school will give a tea in the church parlors Wednesday, March 8, from 3 to 7 o'clock.

I bought a lot of child's Sulkies at a special price and will sell them at a greatly reduced price while they last. E. A. Ross' Furniture Store.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wood, Miss Ruth Wood of Prescott, and Kenneth Blakesley of California, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Baker.

It is announced that the mill will start up Monday morning. The delay was caused by additional repairs being made and more time was required than expected.

Vanillaette and almondette crackers, finest and best at Eddie's place. Fresh stock of candies, the best to be had. Ice cream, the good kind. Canned goods for lunches, soft drinks. Also news stand. You are always welcome.

Important repairs are being made to the St. Helens restaurant. Additional room has been cut off from the adjoining building, a new front put in and new floors. When completed it will present a neat and attractive appearance.

Von A. Gray transacted business in Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. T. Isbister was a business visitor in Portland Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. T. S. White of Yankton, February 18, a son.

Reuben Stein attended the hockey game in Portland Friday evening.

For Sale—Two-seated Surrey, nearly new. H. J. Southard, 9-tf.

Call the Sunny Brook Dairy and order your cream and milk. Phone 106-5.

A. S. Harrison and John Strickwich motored to Portland on Wednesday.

If you want milk that is absolutely pure, buy it of the Sunny Brook Dairy.

Mr. Hewett of San Francisco, is looking after his business interests in this city.

Royal Candy Kitchen for pure, home-made Candies, made in good old St. Helens.

Jack Cunningham of Portland, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Lidyard.

Miss Carrie Elbertson of Portland, spent the week end at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Ross.

W. H. Bumgardner of the Bachelor Flat neighborhood, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

Washington's birthday was observed by the county and city officials. Also the bank and the postoffice.

Willis Bumgardner, who carries the mail from the railroad to Columbia City, was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Mrs. G. O. Van Natta of Ashland, is visiting her son, A. B. of Portland, and J. W. Van Natta and family of St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stacey of Rainier, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barnett Sunday and Monday.

Only one ship docked this week, the Celilo, which is now in port. She will take on a million feet of lumber and will pull out some time this evening.

Glen R. Metsker and family motored to Tacoma Monday, where they celebrated their wooden wedding at the home of Mr. Metsker's parents.

Miss Beth Perry entertained her Sunday school class Monday evening. The class has had a contest on for some time and the losing side gave the social. A splendid hour was spent and an excellent lunch served.

The High School basketball team received a wholloping from the Scappoose basket throwers Saturday evening, the score being 47 to 3. The home team did not have the old regulars at the fore for the reasons best known to the school.

We were misinformed when we stated that the Hat Shop had gone out of business. It has simply changed locations and is now located in the Morgus building, west side. New Spring hats are being received daily.

Mrs. S. C. Way of Perry Heights, drove in Wednesday evening to meet her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Kulper, and granddaughter, Miss Frankie Rice of Portland, who will spend a week as her guests.

From the Portland Labor Press we learn that O. R. Chiles, formerly connected with the Mist office, is in the Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs. A letter from the home states that he is not doing very well. He was sent to the home July 30, 1914, suffering from necrosis. He is receiving neosalvarson treatment as his case is specific.

J. E. Copeland, captain of the government dredge, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after the terms of the will of the late James Bacon.

L. F. Kline of Portland, a friend of John Philip, was here Wednesday looking after the road building contracts advertised by the county court.

Mrs. Florence B. Farnsworth died Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Portland, after an illness of some ten months. The funeral will be held at Salem Friday, under the auspices of the Eastern Star.

Moving pictures of fish and wild game of Oregon will be shown at the Strand Theatre this Friday evening, with lecture by State Game Warden Carl Shoemaker. 2:30 in the afternoon for school children and 7:30 for adults. Admission free.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks arrived Monday from Carlton, Oregon, and moved out to their new home in the Yankton district. They have recently purchased a choice forty acre tract from the St. Helens Lumber Company and expect to make their future home in Columbia county. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks moved here from the big W. W. Cotton ranch in the Willamette valley, where Mr. Brooks has been employed since coming to Oregon from Maine.

REUBEN.

Ernest Sargent was a St. Helens visitor on Wednesday.

C. D. Andrich of Portland, was a visitor at this place on Monday.

Gordon Knight is visiting with his father at Dilley, Ore., this week.

Mrs. C. P. Rambalsky and daughter visited at Mayger over Sunday.

The Columbia Timber Co. started up their logging camp on Monday.

Ernest E. Malleber lost a fine cow last Saturday by some unknown disease.

J. M. Lindsay and W. H. Wagner attended the G. A. R. Post at Rainier last Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Wasser and son, of Maple Dale, visited with Mrs. Philip Linton on Friday.

WARREN.

Mr. Lind spent Saturday in Portland.

Mrs. P. H. Lund visited her brother in Portland Saturday.

The farmers are taking advantage of the good weather. Plowing has begun.

Tom Grewell is doing some contract work at the county farm this winter.

Joe Erickson, Jr., is reported getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. C. Miller visited relatives in Portland several days, returning home Tuesday.

The Methodist Sunday school reopened Sunday. It was closed on account of the bad weather.

Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Hazen attended the Methodist quarterly conference at Houlton Monday afternoon.

Mrs. May Disney returned to Warren last Wednesday after spending several days with her niece, Mrs. McKay, at Scappoose.

Mrs. Kate Ferry and her little laughter of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Baker, several days the past week.

Mrs. Erickson came home Monday after spending a few days in Portland and hopes Mr. Erickson will be able to come home in a few days.

Rev. McDougall, superintendent of the Portland district of the Methodist church, preached here Sunday evening. Rev. Snyder, who has just recovered from a severe attack of the grippe, was present.

The Young People's society of the Lutheran church gave an interesting program Tuesday evening, honoring Washington and Lincoln. The program consisted of appropriate speeches, readings, songs and selections by their twelve-piece orchestra.

TRENHOLM.

E. Kelly was a recent visitor to Portland.

D. Fowler has just returned from a short trip to Grants Pass.

Several buildings caved in during the recent snow and sleet storm.

P. Brockway is just recovering from an attack of snow blindness.

Mrs. Fowler has returned from a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. G. Hyde of Yankton.

P. Holden has returned to Portland, having spent the winter at the home of his mother, Mrs. Tatro.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have returned to their home at Eagle Rock, after an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fowler.

WELL, DO YOU KNOW

Bennett has changed locations?

If you do not, call and see his new barber shop opposite the St. Helens hotel in the new Hewitt building.

A real shoe shine at Bennett's.

Dr. Stone's Heave Drops cures heaves. Price $1; for sale by all druggists.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all parties, contractors and carpenters contemplating the erection, alteration and repairing of any building within the corporate limits of the city of St. Helens, Oregon, that they must, before the erection, alteration or repair of any building, obtain a permit in writing from the building committee of said city, in accordance with provisions of ordinance No. 101 ordinance in recorder's office. Building committee: E. I. Ballagh, H. Southard, N. O. Larrabee, and mayor.

E. E. QUICK, City Recorder.

Fancy Box Candy at Mason's

TRADE IN ST. HELENS

WATCH

THE TOGGERY

GROW

OUR GUARANTEE GOES WITH EVERY ARTICLE

W. E. LIDYARD, Manager — Men's Furnishings

The Strand

"WE AIM TO PLEASE"

ENTIRE CHANGE OF PROGRAM

SUNDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY

MATINEE SUNDAY AFTERNOON at three o'clock

CHILDREN'S MATINEE SATURDAY at three o'clock. All under 12 free

TUESDAY

Is educational night, when we show the latest news in pictures and educational films as well as comedies and dramas.

Admission 5 and 10 cents

Except Sunday and Monday, the feature night, when admission is 5 and 15 cents.

The Strand

PRESENTS

The Distinguished Emotional Actress

DOROTHY DONNELLY

In a Screen Version of

HURLBURT FOOTNER'S

great novel

"SEALED VALLEY"

A vivid tale of the untrodden woods

5 Acts. 300 Scenes

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Feb. 27 and 28

ADMISSION 5 AND 15 CENTS

The Strand

"WE AIM TO PLEASE"

FISH
OYSTERS
POULTRY
BUTTERMILK
AND CREAM
CLAMS, CRABS
SALT AND CURED FISH

ST. HELENS MARKET

Phone 42 Res. Phone C-72

S. R. SONNELAND, Prop.

HAVE A HEART

Don't spend your money out of town. When you go out of town to buy you don't know what you are getting. We are ready to supply your every want in Staple and Fancy Groceries. Quality is our motto.

Williams & Hall Co.

THE "RED RIBBON STORE."

PERSONAL ATTENTION COURTEOUS TREATMENT

WHEN A YOUNG LADY LOSES HER HEAD

You can generally find it on a man's shoulder.

If you want the young lady to put her head on your shoulder, be sure to have an attractive shoulder. The shoulder of our coats fit snug and true to the form, and give you a classy attractive appearance.

J. F. RYAN

MERCHANT TAILOR

St. Helens Oregon

LOWEST PRICES ALWAYS HIGHEST QUALITY

JAS. MUCKLE & SON

"Goods of Quality"

NEW SPRING GOODS ARRIVE

Large shipment of new Spring Wash Goods just received, consisting of Voile, Crepe, Organdie, Poplin, Pique, Gingham, Percales, Dimity, etc.

You will be enthusiastic over these new patterns, such an array of colors, soft, flimsy materials, portray the opening of jaunty Spring styles.

Prices marked at the lowest first and will remain the same throughout the season.

ST. HELENS GARAGE

U. S. D'SPAIN, Prop.

Phone 57

Has autos to hire night or day. Auto Supplies and Gasoline for sale. Agent for the celebrated U. S. Tires. Machine Shop in connection. Prices reasonable and all work guaranteed.

PICTURE FRAMING VICTOR VICTROLAS RECORDS and NEEDLES

COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHINGS

UNDERTAKER E. A. ROSS LICENSED EMBALMER