LOCAL U. S. MARINE IN SANTO DOMINGO

Archie V. Linville, son of John H. Linville, formerly of this place, is with the expeditionary force of U. S. marines recently rushed to Santo Domingo for the protection of the American legation there during the current revolt against President Jimines.

When insurrection breaks out anywhere to the south of Key West or north of Venezuela, the U. S. marines are always first on the spot. Preparedness is the motto of the marine "soldier and sailor, too"—always prepared to serve in any climate—always prepared to move at a moment's notice without previous warning, and always prepared to efficiently hold the "situation well in hand."

Young Linville enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at its Portland recruiting station on July 30, 1914.
