

MIST MISTINGS

Fine Box Candles at the Royal. G. O. Strom made a business trip to Portland Monday. Weatherly's ice cream at Fred Watkins' every day. Try our Marshmallow Sunda. The Royal Confectionery. A. B. Lake left Tuesday night on a business trip to Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Holand of Scappoose spent the Fourth in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. English of Deer Island, visited St. Helens on the Fourth. Brick ice cream every Saturday and Sunday at Mason's Place your order now. Miss Leora Alexander spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Keitel. The best assortment of smoking tobacco and cigarettes at the Royal Confectionery. Come to the baseball park Sunday afternoon and see a good game of baseball. The White Sox play the Kirkpatricks. The Royal has the largest assortment of chocolates in town. Many other kinds, also, to pick from, of home made. F. M. Miles of Portland, was in St. Helens on Wednesday on matters of business connected with the large holdings he has here. Rev. D. V. Poling, well known in Oregon and of national reputation as a speaker and musician, will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church Sunday, July 9. Newton Shears of West St. Helens has joined the automobile colony and is now driving a brand new Ford recently purchased from the Independent Auto Co., the local agents. C. F. Catchheart is acting agent of the S. P. & S. Ry., relieving J. O. Divens, who is en-route east on a vacation. Mr. Catchheart is a pleasant, accommodating gentleman and is giving the traveling public good service. C. C. Moyer of Warren, was a caller at this office Wednesday and contributed to the Mist's exchequer. He reports that during the last rainy weather his hay has been growing to beat the band. He wants good weather now to harvest it.

Help, Help—Police, Police. Don't miss the baseball game Sunday afternoon. Attorney M. E. Miller was in Clatskanie Wednesday attending to legal matters. Do you know the Gem Theater is showing only the best reels? Come and you will come again. R. C. Burgess, lawyer at the St. Helens Lumber Company mill, left Saturday night to spend the Fourth in Portland. Walter Morris and Miss Gertrude Shulack of Portland, accompanied by Miss June Creel of Forest Grove, spent the Fourth as guest of Mrs. W. R. Dinham. D. C. Maston of Warren, was a pleasant caller at this office Monday and remained over to celebrate the Fourth. Mr. Maston is superintendent of the Maston Lumber Co. *See the Gem Theater for a good, clean show. Only the best comedies and classic features are used. Up to date release pictures are used exclusively. You always get your money's worth at this theatre. Another one of St. Helens' good citizens to surrender some of his hard earned coin for a pleasure buggy is William Muekle. He went to Portland Saturday and drove a baby Overland and is now busy making the other auto drivers keep out of his way. Miss Effie Perkins, who is a trained nurse in the Lane hospital in San Francisco, arrived Tuesday morning to spend a well earned vacation with her sisters, Mrs. H. F. McCormick and Miss Leora Perkins. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Strom arrived here Wednesday to spend the summer with their son, H. O. Strom. They left Fargo, N. D., three months ago and have been spending the time at Mr. Strom's residence on the other side of Portland. Chas. A. Payne of Chinook, Wash., was the guest of his friend Rees Hall Thursday. Mr. Payne was formerly connected with the Chinook Observer but has disposed of his interests and is now numbered among the idle rich. Mrs. Annie and Miss Gladys Payne from Portland, spent the Fourth here as the guests of A. S. Harrison and family. Mrs. Payne is one of the old pioneers of Columbia county and sold her farm on Sauvie's Island last fall for $30,000. She now makes her home in Portland.

Miss Maud Harrison went to Portland this week to take up a business course and will be absent all summer. W. R. Hewitt, consulting engineer of the McCormick company, spent Wednesday in Portland. Mrs. C. M. White and daughter of Portland, are the guests of the family of E. E. Quick this week. Don't forget the baseball game Sunday, at 2:30 o'clock. The White Sox try conclusions with the Kirkpatricks. Gus Lang drove down from Scappoose with his family in his new Ford and enjoyed the Fourth in St. Helens. Leo J. Conlin of the local telephone staff, left Saturday to spend the week end with his bride at Seaside. He returned Monday. Mrs. J. M. Rodgers and son Carl, of Salt Lake, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. S. C. Morton for the past two weeks, left Wednesday for Seaside, where they will spend the summer. They will then return to Salt Lake. A card received from Mrs. A. B. Lake tells of her safe arrival at Jackson, Minn., where she is visiting relatives. Mrs. Lake asked that the Mist be sent her until she is ready to return to Oregon. The Independent Milk Co. wish to express their thanks for their patronage. Our motto is good milk and cream, prompt and reliable service. May we hope for your continued patronage. Will and Herman Ketel and families and Martin Ketel motored down from St. Johns to spend the Fourth in St. Helens. Mrs. J. H. Price arrived from San Francisco this week and spent the Fourth here. She will probably make her home in Portland. The official statement of the Columbia County Bank appears in this issue. It shows a healthy growth and is a splendid index of the business and commercial importance of St. Helens. Misses Blanche and Mildred Allen left this week for Washington. Miss Mildred will attend Pullman College and Miss Blanche will take up a homestead in the vicinity where her brother, J. S. Allen, is located. Superintendent Allen will leave probably today for Salem and will be absent for about ten days. He will assist in the examination of teachers as a member of the state examining board. Mr. and Mrs. James Lowe of West St. Helens, who have moved here recently from eastern Oregon, were surprised on their return from celebrating the Fourth to find their son, Geo. C. Lowe, and family from Bend, in possession of their home. They expect to locate here. Geo. C. Lowe is a mill man and expects to secure work here. The high altitude of eastern Oregon did not agree with them, so they sought a home along the shores of the great Columbia. Steele Moorhead, who is a member of the Coast Artillery, Fourth Company of Roseburg, has received orders to report for annual encampment at Ft. Stevens July 15. He is bugler of Fourth company with rank of sergeant. A telegram was received in Portland from the war department that the Coast Artillery will be the next state military organization to be commanded to take its post of duty on the Mexican border. Orders have been received to recruit to full war strength.

Police, Police—Help, Help. Miss Bernice Matson of Portland, is the guest of her friend, Miss Lois Clear. J. H. Price left Wednesday afternoon for Vancouver, B. C., being called there on shipping matters. Commodore Jensen, late of the Klamath, spent the Fourth in this city. He left for Astoria, where he will superintend the construction of the McCormick vessels which are now under way at the yards in that city. Many compliments have been paid the Strand Theater for the excellent music furnished for the pictures. In fact they all say the music is simply great and would be a credit to cities many times larger than St. Helens. Now days music is absolutely essential for the proper presentation of pictures and it is hoped the Strand Theater can continue furnishing this high class music in connection with their "Better than Best" programs. David Davis and wife and Capt. E. P. Watts and wife motored down from Portland Tuesday and were the guests of Mrs. Annie Cox. Mr. Davis was formerly connected with the Mist, and he says he always makes it a point to visit St. Helens the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and Christmas to mingle with his old friends, as he has a warm place in his heart for St. Helens. Capt. Watts is a son of our old friend T. C. Watts of Reuben, and was born and raised in this section. Dr. J. G. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, the well-known eye specialist of Portland, will make regular visits to St. Helens every 20 days in future. Dr. Lowe leaves for the east July 6, to be gone several months, and Dr. Turner will attend to any of Dr. Lowe's patients who may call during his absence. Watch papers for dates later.

Let us rig you out for Camping. JOCKO HIS TENT You can have just lots of fun camping out if you will come and let us "rig you out" properly before you go. If you get anything to "fry in the pan" you must have a good gun and rifle, some ammunition and fishing tackle that won't break when Mr. Fish takes your hook. It's tantalizing to see game and have no gun, or to hook a "one" and lose him, isn't it? Don't do it. Our stuff's the best; it stands the test. A. S. HARRISON & CO. WE BUY AND SELL FOR LESS
