Clearance Sale on ladies' hats. Regular $1.25, now 49c; regular $2 on sale at 98 cents. Noah's Ark.

"Mickey" McDonald now hits the high places in a baby Overland which he recently purchased from Henry McCoy.

Mrs. E. I. Ballagh and children left Tuesday evening for Westport, Wash., where she goes to visit her mother, Mrs. F. W. Wilkins.

Manager Ballagh has a surprise to spring for our Sunday's game. He has a brand new southpaw signed up to do the heaving for St. Helens.

The new telephone directory is out and is much appreciated by the subscribers. So many changes made the old directory practically useless. The new directory was printed in the Mist office.

The St. Helens people who are visiting in the eastern states complain of the extreme heat, the industrious mosquito and electrical storms. They will be glad when they return to Oregon, where the days are balmy and the nights delightfully cool.

Mrs. J. R. Hobbs, who for the past ten days has been in a Portland hospital, returned to St. Helens Monday. Her many friends will be glad to know of the improvement in her health.

Best Box Chocolates at the Royal. Mrs. Chas. Brown was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Brick ice cream every Saturday and Sunday at Mason's Place your order now.

Fred Ketel of Troutlake, Wash., is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Ketel.

The Ladies' Guild will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Guild hall. A full attendance is desired.

John G. Manning left Wednesday for Portland, where he will be for several days attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone and Mrs. Dinham motored to Hillsboro Sunday and were the guests of Mrs. Dinham's parents.

The greatest hat sale ever held in St. Helens — prices unmercifully slaughtered. Come in and see for yourself. Noah's Ark.

J. E. Myers, late of Goldendale, Wash., spent several days in this city as the guest of his brother, Lewis Myers, of the St. Helens Bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McVey and son John, of Columbia City, left Saturday for Newton-Hamilton, Penn., and expect to be absent some three months.

Rev. F. J. Meyers, formerly pastor of the Congregational church here, was a visitor to the city on Saturday. Mr. Meyers now has charge of a church in Portland.

Marion county, by the direction of the county judge, is oiling the Pacific highway. It requires about 1000 gallons to the mile. California fuel oil is the stuff used.

Senator G. M. McBride of Portland, was a business visitor to St. Helens on Saturday. Mr. McBride is now candidate for the county judgeship of Multnomah county.

Frank Wilkins, after a week pleasantly spent with his family at their summer home in Westport, Wash., returned to St. Helens Monday morning. Frank was all smiles when he saw that the Columbia river had given up the occupancy of his dock and warehouses.

Commissioners Harvey and Weed went to Rainier Saturday night and remained over Sunday to attend the chautauqua being held. Harvey, who has a reputation for oratory, is frank to admit that Murdoch is just as good an orator as himself, or, to use Harvey's words, "He has a shade the best of me."

J. T. Tabor was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

You can get a regular $2 hat for 98c at the big sale. Noah's Ark. Wilson Cantrille, a dispatcher for the Southern Pacific R. R. Co., is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barnett left Thursday afternoon for Rainier, to attend the closing exercises of the chautauqua.

H. E. Buck, manager of R. C. Merryman's big orange and fruit ranch at Exeter, Cal., is in the city renewing old acquaintances.

The Sunset Athletic Club will give a grand ball at the Sunset Gym on Saturday night, the 15th. The dances at this popular club house are noted for good floor management, good music and a general good time.

Rev. and Mrs. Sandifur spent several days as the guests of old friends in Rainier. They also attended the chautauqua. Rev. Sandifur was formerly minister of the M. E. church in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Meyer of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Meyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mickleson of Minnesota, were St. Helens visitors Thursday inspecting the big motor vessel City of Portland.

Mesdames H. F. Hazen, McQueen, Fuller and Cole were guests of Mrs. H. F. Anderson on an auto trip to Portland Wednesday, where they were entertained by Mrs. Lillie Perry in honor of the birthday of both Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Fuller.

The Misses Marion Morton and Harriet Ross were guests of Miss Carrie Elbertson at a party Saturday in her Portland home. Miss Elbertson accompanied the young ladies back to St. Helens and spent Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Edwin Ross.

Hereafter the Harkins Transportation Company will provide for a round trip Friday between Portland-St. Helens and Astoria, which up to this time has been omitted, as it is layover day for the speedy Georgiana. The steamer Undine will make the Friday trip.

F. W. Roberts of Goble, was a pleasant caller at his office Tuesday. Mr. Roberts is master of Beaver Home grange and is making active preparations for the meeting of the Pomona grange which will be held with Beaver Home grange August 5.

Wm. Russel, while at work in the mill Tuesday, met with an accident. He was engaged in unloading lumber from a truck when one of the heavy timbers fell and crushed two of his toes. It was quite painful at the time but is not a serious wound.

Tom Watts of Reuben, dropped into the office Monday to tell us about a beet that is growing in his wife's garden, and asks us if we "can beat a beet" that is 8 ft. 6 in. tall. He planted the beet more than a year ago, and since Oregon's winter climate is so very mild, he just let it keep growing winter and summer. He expects to get a steam shovel and dig it up before the county fair is held so he can exhibit the largest "dead" beet ever exhibited.

Hon. C. W. Fulton came down from Portland Wednesday on legal matters in Judge Eakin's court. He has recently returned from the republican national convention, where he represented Oregon as one of the national delegates. He is very enthusiastic over the nomination of Hughes and says he is sure to win. Mr. Fulton is an ex-United States senator and would still be a member had the result depended on our vote.

COMING EVENTS

Little Mary Miles Minter, the "flower of the screen," will be seen in the stellar role of "Lovely Mary," at the Strand Theater on Sunday.

"Lovely Mary" is a story of the Southland, with a beautiful love story in a novel setting and background. There are scores of excellent photographs made in the picturesque locales of Florida. Many historic buildings and locations are seen in the production, besides the state prison camps around which the story was written.

"The Unknown," a thrilling and unusual drama of the foreign legion and Algeria, will be the attraction at the Strand on Monday, the 17th, with the distinguished romantic actor, Lou-Tellegen, in the stellar role.

This is one of the most unusual photodramas that the Jesse L. Lasky Co. has ever produced and according to all reports has scored a phenomenal success.

"The Cheat," in which the celebrated American beauty, Fanny Ward, is starred, will be seen at the Strand on Wednesday, the 19th. The Lasky Company has surrounded Miss Ward with a cast of unusual excellence, consisting of such prominent persons as Summe Hayakawa, the celebrated Japanese actor, James Neill, Jack Dean and others. It is a Paramount picture.

Let us rig you out for Camping.

You can have just lots of fun camping out if you will come in and let us "rig you out" properly before you go. If you get anything to "fry in the pan" you must have a good gun and rifle, some ammunition and fishing tackle that won't break when Mr. Fish tackles your hook.

It's tantalizing to see game and have no gun, or to hook a "big one" and lose him, isn't it? Don't do it.

Our stuff's the best; it stands the test.
