SCAPPOOSE

Albert Johnson shipped a fine Holstein to Nehalem last Monday.
 Rev. C. H. Johnston and wife were shopping in Portland on Monday.
 Mrs. L. Tidcomb moved her household goods to Portland Tuesday.
 J. Gochnour moved his family to Castle Rock, where he has purchased a farm.
 Mrs. Barnes and Miss Merrill spent Monday at the home of George Rhodes.
 Elmer Smith, of Buxton, spent the week end with his brothers, E. C. and Fred Smith.
 Mrs. D. W. Price and daughter Vera were Portland visitors Sunday and Monday.
 Prof. Dodson walked up to Pisgah Heights last Sunday and found snow almost to his waist.
 Dr. Ross, of St. Helens, is now attending Mr. Bonnell, who is in a very serious condition.
 Miss Ardath Hagey entertained the choir at her home Friday night. Ice cream and wafers were served.
 Miss Ellaree Butler and Al. Hackett were guests at the home of M. J. Butler on Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Crowley, Miss Crow, Miss Taylor and Mrs. McDonald dined with the Niblock family on Monday.
 The girls' basketball team played the St. Helens girls last Saturday night. Score, 5 to 1, in favor of St. Helens.
 Mrs. Cleve Barnett and little daughter visited several days with Mr. Barnett, who is working at Wasco.
 A party was given at the Shatte day night. There was dancing, games and refreshments, and a general good time.
 Mrs. Rita Duncan, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnston, has returned to her home in Washington.
 Church dedication services next Sunday, at 2 p. m. No church services in the morning or evening.
 Everybody extended a cordial invitation to attend.
 Clark Grant was able to be brought home Sunday from Portland. He had rested a few days in the city after his trip from North Yakima. We hope for his speedy recovery.
 R. C. Bonser, Mrs. Bonser and two friends motored from Portland Saturday in search of men to put in a crop of potatoes on Mr. Bonser's farm. Everybody is planting spuds.
 D. W. Price was washing his car lately and had the seat out of the car, as he worked. It began to rain, so he started the car to go into the garage. The car started quick, and so did D. W. but he went over backwards and got stuck in the opening and could not get out in a hurry. Result, a badly smashed car to take to the car hospital.
 Community Club meeting last Wednesday night was an enjoyable event. It was a St. Patrick affair. The program consisted of songs by the audience, interspersed by quartet by Niblock, Dodson, Smith and Moore; quartet by Helen Watts, Hazel Watts, Ruby Tipton and Gypsy Johnston; solo, Mrs. Molly Johnston, "The Owl Plaid Shawl;" solo, Mr. Moore, "Where the River Shannon Flows;" solo, Miss Tipton, "Come Back to Erin;" readings by Miss Marjorie Holaday and Miss Ginevra Boyle.

WARREN

Mrs. J. M. Grewelle, of Kelso, Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Grewelle.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Hazen, of Wauna, Oregon, spent the week end with relatives and friends here last week.
 John Farr made a business trip to Rainier Wednesday morning. On his return he stopped at Goble to visit with Mrs. P. Neer.
 The horse shed of the Evangelist church is now completed and many of the farmers can come to church and not have to let their horses stand in the rain.
 Fritz Widmer, of Sauvie Island, visited Saturday at F. W. Boesel's with his mother-in-law.
 Prof. and Mrs. Charles Swenson, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larson, Sunday.
 County Supt. J. W. Allen visited our school Thursday afternoon. Elmer Duncan also visited the same day. Prof. Allen gave a very interesting talk on current events of the day to the high school and briefly mentioned his great disappointment in the recent actions of certain senators at Washington. Not knowing that school closes at 3:30 instead of 4 o'clock, he had a narrow escape from disappointing a room or two.
 Rev. J. Bowersox and wife, of the Evangelist church, spent Sunday at the home of F. W. Boesel and family.
 E. Bertelsen, of Barlow, Oregon,

WARRREN

BACHELOR FLAT

Mrs. E. Morton spent a few days in Portland last week, visiting friends.
 Mrs. Hammet has been enjoying a visit from her daughter, of Portland.
 J. W. Johnson expects to do some farming this summer, we guess, as he purchased a fine spah of colts last week.
 Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Fowler, of St. Helens, visited with Mrs. Lillich one day last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Saxten soon expect to start for Idaho, they having rented their farm. They will be greatly missed, as they have been here a number of years and made many friends.
 It is supposed that Mr. Bumgardner is going into the poultry business this year, as he was seen taking some Bantam home the other day.
 George Birdall is home again for a short period, being laid off on account of the snow in the camp.
 Mrs. Horton is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bumgardner. Mrs. Horton is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Bumgardner.
 There will be church services in the schoolhouse Sunday, at 3 p. m., conducted by Mrs. Murphy of Clatskanie.
 The Bachelor Flat Sewing Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Daniels March 29.
 E. Bertelsen, of Barlow, Oregon, was visiting at the home of P. J. Anderson the first part of the week.

 The concert given at Erickson's hall Sunday by the Swedish Singing Club Columbia of Portland was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bacon and daughter Erma, of Rainier, visited with relatives and friends the latter part of last week. They returned to their home Sunday evening.
 Matt Grewell and daughter Goldie together with Ruby Tipton, of Scappoose, visited Sunday at the home of Tom Grewelle.
 The seventh and eighth grades are very much interested in the spelling contest which they are having to determine who will enter the county contest in St. Helens, May 5. They are developing some good spellers.
 Carrie and Louis Boesel were Portland visitors Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Garrison motored to Corbett, Oregon, Saturday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Neerum. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wickstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wickstrom, of Scappoose.
 Several of the young men of Warren attended the militia meeting in St. Helens Wednesday evening. Just how they were impressed is not known as yet. However, we can depend on the young men of Warren to do just the right thing at the right time in any matter pertaining to national honor.
 Mrs. Chas. Miller and Mrs. Banglund visited Thursday with Mrs. Lafferty, of St. Helens.
 Mrs. Cora Allumbaugh, Oscar Tucher, Blossom Garrison, Esther, Leonard and Runo Johnson motored to Beaverton Sunday.
 Misses Claudia and Alfhild Berglund, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Berglund.
 O. A. Erickson has purchased a new Ford for the purpose of delivering his groceries.
 Little Betty, Jane and John Merrick, of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of A. O. Berglund. They had the time of their lives in the country, boating on a pond nearby.
 Mrs. Sam Dalhgren and her brother Elmer Sandstrom spent the week end in Portland.
 Misses Carrie and Lucy Boesel spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Fred Uhlman, of Scappoose, on the former's return from Portland Saturday evening.
 The eighth grade organized last Tuesday evening, electing the following officers: Alfred Hedlund, president; Inez Grewell, vice president; Omer Beeler, secretary; Carrie Boesel, class poet. A special meeting will be called after the next meeting of the student body next Friday to select the class colors, motto, emblems, etc.
 Evidently someone must represent each athletic season with a wholesome self-respecting black eye. Prof. Russell represented the basketball season, having received his emblem at the first game with St. Helens. Now comes John Lund, claiming himself as having the best representative black eye of the baseball season.
 The high school athletic club organized a baseball team last Monday morning. Frank Beeler was elected manager, and Omer Beeler, captain. We are looking forward to some good games between our school nine and some other enthusiastic and ambitious schools. This was our first year at basketball, but watch our boys clout the horsehide and make a hole in the atmosphere like a scared coyote around the diamond. "Speak up when you're ready."

NEHALEM VALLEY

The sunshine certainly looks cheering after so much snow.
 Mrs. Helstein has been out to Portland visiting and doing some shopping.
 Mrs. Weed was in Vernonia to attend some shopping Saturday.
 Rev. Withim has returned to the valley to take up his work here.
 The next meeting of the L. S. C. will be March 29, at Mrs. B. Baker's home, 1 1/2 miles above Kist. We trust the distance will not hinder a goodly number from meeting there, as tying comforters for Mrs. Baker will be the main feature of the day.
 Rev. Folkens began a series of Biblical lectures last Saturday night at Pleasant Hill, with an encouraging attendance.
 Mrs. George Olson has returned from a trip to Portland, where she says there is lots to see in the line of traffic but not much buying in the markets as prices are so high and money scarce.
 Mrs. Hult visited with her sisters, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Wiles, Thursday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wiles and family have moved to Vernonia from the east, to make their future home there.
 The Ladies' Sewing Club met at Mrs. R. L. Wildman's Thursday. Owing to the meeting being at the upper end of the valley the number present was not as many as would have been had it been more central.
 Mrs. Thrapp has returned from a visit to her mother out in the valley.
 Rev. Withim preached at Pleasant Hill Sunday. The day being pleasant the attendance was large.

TRENHOLM

Miss Effie Eversaul has returned home after a short visit with her uncle near Houlton.
 Mrs. Billie Tatro has come to Trenholm to make an extended visit with her husband's parents.
 Mrs. D. R. Fowler has been suffering with blood poisoning in one hand but is now better.
 Mrs. Tatro entertained Saturday evening with a birthday party for her son, Billie Tatro.
 Although past the middle of March it is still snowing in Trenholm.
 H. P. Ross, of St. Helens, accompanied by a party of Portland friends, was in Trenholm Sunday.
 About two feet of snow is on the hills back of Trenholm.
 E. Kelley and family spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tatro.
 Miss Agnes Brown visited with friends in St. Helens.
 Mr. Eversaul and daughter Effie attended the funeral of Mr. Eversaul's sister-in-law at Scappoose last Thursday.
 H. E. Brown and family, of Portland, motored to Trenholm Saturday to spend the week end with Mr. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown.
 Mrs. Mada Griffith and son left for a visit with Mrs. Griffith's mother at Washington.
 Miss Lucile Clark, of Fern Hill, Oregon, visited Trenholm last Saturday on business. It is reported that she is engaged to teach the Trenholm school for the coming year.

OBITUARY

Henrietta Parson was born August 26, 1859, in Albany, Oregon. May 29, 1906, she was united in marriage to James W. Eversole at Long Branch, Wash. They moved to Scappoose three years ago. Mr. Eversole securing employment on the Pomroy farm. Mrs. Eversole was sick only a few days, death following an operation for septic peritonitis in a Portland hospital March 13, 1917. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss a mother and father, three sisters and two brothers, also a husband and four children, Marguerite, Gladys, Grace and Elmer.
 Funeral services were conducted at the Congregational church, Rev. Johnston officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Fairview cemetery under a profusion of flowers. Many friends extend sympathy to the bereaved ones, especially the little children, who will miss the influence of their sweet mother. A writer has told us "It is not the bitterness of death, but of life. Death is but the gate which opens into the lily gardens where our loved ones wait and where, though bruised at times, the wings of hope will sometimes bear us past all injustice and ingratitude, to their side."

The spelling bee that was to take place the 24th has been postponed.
 Mrs. Morton and daughter Hilma and son Edwin, Mrs. O. Paterson and E. Paterson, of this place, attended the concert at Warren Sunday, and came home very much pleased with the entertainment.
 M. Burkhead has been kept busy lately inspecting the many orchards, as he is fruit inspector.
 Mrs. Annie Boegle visited with Mrs. Lillich Sunday.

TRY OUR WANT ADS

Several hundred letters are sent each month by the readers of Mist's want ads to those who place the ad. Here's just one sample: "Dilley, Oregon, March 19, 1917. St. Helens Mist: Some time ago I ordered a little want ad in your paper, said ad to run for two weeks. I notice the ad is still running. Also, will say that I swamped with replies thereto.
