CORRESPONDENCESCAPPOOSE

Miss Lottie Blatchford, of Vancouver, was home for Easter.

C. H. Johnston was a Portland business visitor on Monday.

Mal Engliert is suffering with rheumatism and complications.

Watts & Price shipped two car loads of potatoes to Sioux City, Iowa.

Miss Laura Whitney, of St. Helens, is visiting in the home of M. J. Butler.

Mrs. J. G. Watts and daughter Hazel spent Tuesday in Portland shopping.

Rev. Johnston and family were entertained Sunday at the home of Anna Holaday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler spent Sunday in Portland with their daughter, Ellaroe.

Chas. Sandstrom has bought 15 acres of land of Mr. Olson, near the Riley place.

James Pomeroy and wife and Mr. Frame dined with the J. G. Watts family last Sunday.

Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. McKay attended lodge Saturday night at St. Helens.

Mrs. Johnston and daughter Gypsy visited Mrs. Morton at St. Helens several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Price and the Perry family came down from Portland for Easter services.

Fred Uhlman is in possession of a five-passenger, six cylinder Buick car. Who'll be the next?

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roy, of St. Helens, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Roy's mother, Mrs. Adams.

Two sawmill men from Seattle were here looking at the Watts & Price mill with a view to operating it.

Lloyd Price came home from Honolulu Friday night. He is wearing a healthy shade of tan that don't wash off.

Miss Crow and Mrs. Crowley spent Sunday in Vancouver, and Miss Taylor spent the Easter day at her home in Portland.

Tony Barber is preparing to build a fine new barn. Mr. Platz and other carpenters from here started work on it Tuesday.

Chas. Leonard has been accepted by the navy department and Lloyd and Roy Price have applied for positions as they have had training at C. A. C.

Mrs. Blatchford gave a party at her home last Saturday for her Sunday school class. Games and refreshments and a general good time were the features.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Watson, Grandma Farmer, Mrs. Mary Tempes, of Portland, motored from Portland to spend Easter day with the Van Cleve family.

About 25 of the high school girls presented themselves at the home of Gus Lange last Saturday afternoon with packages containing miscellaneous fancy and useful articles with which to shower Miss Minnie, who will soon be a bride. An elegant lunch was served.

A lecture will be given by C. C. Thompson on "Ben Hur," in the near future. The lecture is under the auspices of the senior class. There will be descriptive songs and pictures. The senior class is also preparing an Irish play, "The Twigs of Thorns," which will be given soon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Frakes and son George have received an invitation to attend the wedding of Miss Irene Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, to Mr. Wilbur Hendrixson, of Seattle, on Wednesday, April 11, in the beautiful Portland home of the bride's parents.

Special Easter services were observed in the Congregational church here on Sunday. In the morning there was a combination service of solos, speaking and quartettes. The choir rendered two anthems. The evening service consisted of a special Easter song service and three anthems by the choir. A rousing sermon by the pastor on "Why the United States Entered the War," was delivered. The church was crowded.

True to our promise last week, we will now print our life-sized chrome of Uncle Silas Crookshanks. Uncle Si blushed like a school girl as he modestly requested us to paint him natural, for at best he is no beauty. We hope you will follow the stroke of the pen carefully, and when the picture is complete may each reader frame it with his imagination and hang it in the hall of memory.

Uncle Si grew like a weed, and thus reminds us of Prof. Dodson. He has a sharp visage which resembles J. G. Watts. We find only a few hairs between Si and Heaven—in that respect we are reminded of Dr. Blatchford. His skeleton is almost devoid of adipose tissue, which is very much like Dr. Hatfield. The fringe of hair around his head is black, somewhat like Mr. Niblock. On one side of his upper lip we count six hairs and on the other side are just a half dozen—now that's just like Ernest Smith. The shape of his mouth is a crescent moon—for example see D. W. Price. Si's eyes wear a dreamy expression similar to Ann Holaday. Uncle wears a No. 1 shoe like M. J. Butler. His fingers are bony and crooked, allowing the money to slip through, just the same as Mr. Kontek. He walks with a graceful stride, very much the same as Clay De Grare. When Si speaks his tongue twists into a double bow knot, which is characteristic of Mr. Ogle. He wears a sad, sweet smile, just like Will Piper. Next week Uncle says he will give us his impressions of the church dedication.

WARREN

Mrs. Bertha Uhlman and daughters, Hilda, Laura and Lottie, of Scappoose, visited with Mrs. Uhlman's mother, Mrs. Louisa Boesel.

Jim Bacon and family, who for about a year have lived in Rainier, are back on their place. Many of their friends greatly welcome them.

Mrs. Olga Floren and her sister, Kathleen, of Portland, visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson the latter part of last week.

Charles Miller visited at the county seat Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duncan entertained Mr. and Mrs. T. Grewell and son Tommy Sunday. The cause of the event was the celebration of Mrs. Duncan's birthday.

Fred Danielson was in Portland visiting Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Anna Benson and Beatrice Lind went to Deer Island last Friday to attend the funeral of Pauline Hammer, a former classmate, who died on Wednesday.

Elmer Dalgren has a severe attack of tonsillitis.

The many friends of Miss Signe Newman, formerly of this place, were surprised to hear of her marriage to Mr. Robert Peterson last Wednesday at Astoria. They went to Seattle and California on a wedding trip.

Mrs. C. J. Russell had the pleasure of being visited over Easter by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Winn, and her sister, Mrs. A. L. Hency and daughter Edith, all of Portland.

Miss Marguerite Miller visited with her friend Ernie Gill, of Maple Lane, Sunday.

Frank Beeler has usurped Johnnie Lund's championship as "black eye" owner. However, beefsteak, raw onions, arnica and various first aids to the injured have done wonders for Frank's eye.

Misses Fannie Cooper and Myrtle Larson were in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farr and family, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, of Yankton, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarbell Sunday.

Miss Hilda Muhr spent Saturday and Sunday in Gresham, where she attended a reception given in honor of a friend.

S. W. Dalgren has just purchased a new Ford delivery truck.

Mrs. Cora Allumbaugh, Oscar Tucker, and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cooper spent Sunday in Oregon City.

The Sunday school program of the Lutheran church was very well attended and all parts were well rendered. On account of the sickness of Supt. Mrs. C. O. Dalgren, the program was under the direction of the assistant superintendent, C. J. Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Garrison and daughter Blossom motored to Cascade Locks in their new Maxwell car Sunday.

Miss Mary Thomas visited with her parents at Goble Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ruth Peterson, of Portland, visited with her parents from Tuesday of last week till Monday this week.

C. R. Miller spent a few days visiting in the Rose City last week.

The student body had a long business session last Friday. Many subjects were discussed, among which were the questions of proper school yells and the obtaining of suits for the high school baseball team. Elvina Berglund was elected as compromiser of the yells and also yell leader.

Miss Ellen Almquist, of Portland, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Mr. Maris, a field worker for the Industrial Club, and Supt. J. W. Allen of Columbia county schools, visited our school Monday afternoon.

Supt. Allen gave a short talk and then introduced Mr. Maris, who gave a very interesting talk on the Industrial work. Quite a number of girls who did not complete their work in time for the fair last year are now going on with the extended work, which they claim is more interesting than the first ten lessons.

Miss Claudia Berglund, of Portland, is now at home. She intends to stay till the latter part of the spring.

Mrs. Bertha Uhlman, of Scappoose, and Mr. and Mrs. P. Loomis, of this place, visited in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Miller spent Saturday and Sunday visiting with Mrs. Bangund, of Deer Island.

The Warren band boys met April 5 at Erickson's hall, to reorganize for the coming summer. The following officers were elected: Elmer Dalgren, president; Frank Beeler, secretary; Raymond Harms, treasurer; F. A. Hoyt, instructor. Meetings will be held every Thursday night for practice. There are fourteen members enrolled with four members out at the time of adjournment last August.

The Warren High School Baseball team has accepted a challenge for a game to be played with St. Helens High here on Arbor day.

One of the most important events of the week was a genuine surprise party last Friday, given by Mrs. F. E. Harms on her friend, Mrs. G. Isaacson, which proved to be true to its name. A delicious lunch was spread and those seated about the table were Mrs. F. E. Harms, Mrs. Joe Erickson, Jr., Mrs. John Farr, Mrs. P. Loomis, Mrs. O. A. Erickson, Mrs. Josephine Spaulding, Mrs. C. J. Russell, Mrs. P. H. Lund, Mrs. N. F. Baker, Mrs. Alfred Buss and Mrs. G. Isaacson, the hostess.

A program consisting of several songs and recitations will be given in the Evangelist church. Rev. J. Bowerson is expected to be down from Portland and give a little lecture on the lesson of the day and he will also preach in the evening.

W. J. Fullerton has been very quiet for the last week or more, and we heard the reason for it was that he was saving his voice for an auction sale to be at H. W. Heizenreter's farm April 16. We are wishing him a great success in selling the goods.

Mr. Howard, the county agriculturalist, and Dr. Edwin Ross will be at the Warren grange Saturday to talk on the agricultural line of business in the county. All grangers are invited and requested to attend the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Myers spent week with P. J. Loomis. Mrs. Myers is a sister of Mr. Loomis.
