

MIST MISTINGS

W. B. Dillard was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

William Belcher, of Portland, was a week end guest at the home of J. W. Day.

L. K. Adron, of Portland, was in St. Helens Thursday attending to legal matters.

Miss Eugenia Deming returned Friday from a week's visit with friends in Astoria.

Mrs. S. C. Morton and Mrs. A. F. Barnett spent Tuesday in Portland and attended the N. E. A.

Mrs. Irene Day and Mrs. I. E. Dodd motored to Portland Saturday to attend the Musical Festival.

After a ten days visit to relatives in Washington, Mrs. C. D. Sutherland and children returned to St. Helens Sunday morning.

J. W. Allen, county school superintendent, has been in attendance at the National Educational Association convention in Portland this week.

Prof. and Mrs. J. H. McCoy are the proud parents of a baby girl. The little lady arrived early Monday morning and found a hearty welcome awaiting her.

"Doc" Oswald Deming and John Deming left Tuesday morning for Seaside, the former going to attend the state convention of pharmacists and the latter on a vacation trip.

C. W. Dills and Gus Bolle packed up the shad hatchery equipment Monday and shipped it to Portland. The hatchery has been in operation for the past thirty days, and millions of young shad have been placed in the Columbia river.

W. H. Burdette, who is in charge of the concrete work here for the Warren Construction Company, is a brother of the famous lecturer, the late Bob Burdette, and worked with him on the Burlington Hawkeye and Peoria Tribune when Bob first started in newspaper work.

L. R. Rutherford, who has been chosen as councilman to succeed Washington Muckle, resigned, found it impossible to accept the office, so the city is yet shy one city dad. The vacancy will be filled at the next meeting of the council.

G. W. Payne was arraigned in the justice's court Monday and plead guilty to the charges of not reporting a birth and also burying without a permit. Judge Watkins gave him the maximum fine, $500 on each charge, or one year in jail. Payne is trying to raise the money to pay the fine.

The stork left a 10-pound baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bauserman, in West St. Helens, Sunday morning. Roy says the baby doesn't yet call him daddy, but he hollers loud enough to be calling him all the other names one can think of.

The steamer Klamath, which arrived in Sunday morning, left down river Tuesday night laden with more than 1,000,000 feet of lumber, with San Pedro as her destination. Coming up the coast the steamer encountered a strong nor'wester and a heavy sea and the forty passengers aboard did not enjoy the trip.

Cecil Ross writes his brother Harold from Camp Kelly, San Antonio, Texas, that he is now receiving instructions in flying, being a member of the 28th aerial squad. The type of flying machine used is called the L. W. F. machine, equipped with an eight cylinder engine which develops 120 horsepower. The machine can fly at the rate of 120 miles per hour.

Rev. M. B. Parounagian, a native of Armenia and a graduate of the University of Cairo, will give his famous lecture on "Turkey and Mohammedanism" at the Methodist church next Thursday evening. Mr. Parounagian will wear the Turkish dress and give a vivid description of the life, customs and religion of the Turkish people. The admission will be 25 cents for adults, and 10 cents for children in the grades. Remember the date, Thursday, July 19.

Paul C. Morton, representing Mason, Ehrman & Co. of Portland, was here Monday calling on the trade. Mr. Morton has recently returned from an extended eastern trip, visiting many places in Dixie land, also at Washington, New York and Boston. He reports business as booming in the eastern factories and mills, running overtime to fill orders on hand. Crop prospects were very good.

A. J. and Mrs. Deming returned Monday, after a ten days' visit to friends and relatives in Seattle and British Columbia. They visited Chief Boatwain's Mate J. H. (Duke) Wellington at the Bremerton navy yard and found him fit and fine for navy service. Leaving Washington they traveled leisurely through British Columbia and had a delightful time.

The members of the Congregational church, Ladies' Aid and Young People's society will give a reception in honor of Rev. D. J. Taylor and bride on Wednesday evening, July 18, at 8 p. m., at Guild hall. All friends of the church, the public and especially the members of our sister churches are cordially invited to attend.

The Mist is requested by F. A. Fowler, postmaster at Goble, to announce that the examination for rural mail carrier for the Goble postoffice will be held July 27 instead of July 28, as previously announced.

Letters unclaimed at the St. Helens, Oregon, postoffice for the week ending July 7, 1917: O. F. Falkenberg, Mrs. H. F. Roddy, Arthur Steele. Letters unclaimed by July 21 will be sent to the division of dead letters. IVA E. DODD, Postmaster.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR COLUMBIA COUNTY.

To Robert L. Nelson, the above named Defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court on or before the 24th day of August, 1917, which is six weeks after the 13th day of July, 1917, the date ordered for the first publication of this summons; and if you fail to so appear and answer, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the marriage contract heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant herein, and that plaintiff be awarded the care and custody and the control of the minor child, Burdett Francis Nelson, and for such other and further relief as to the court should seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof pursuant to an order of the Hon. J. A. Eakin, Judge of the above entitled court, made on the 10th day of July, 1917.

First publication July 13th, 1917. Last publication, August 24th, 1917.

CLINTON A. AMBROSE, Attorney for Plaintiff, 313 1/2 Washington Street, Portland, Oregon.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals, addressed to the County Court of Columbia County, Oregon, at St. Helens, Oregon, and endorsed, "Proposals for improving the following road in Columbia County, Oregon, to-wit:

Frink Road, from station 56 to station 169, in Road Dist. No. 10," will be received by said County Court until 2 o'clock P. M. August 2nd, 1917, and not thereafter, and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

All proposals must be made upon blank forms, to be obtained from the roadmaster, at his office at St. Helens, Oregon; must give prices, both in writing and in figures, and must be signed by the bidder, with his address.

Plans and specifications are on file, and may be examined in the office of the County Clerk.

Each bidder shall deposit, with his bid, a certified check, cash, or a surety bond, for an amount of at least five per cent of his bid, payable to the County Clerk, which shall be forfeited to the County, in case the award is made to him, and he shall neglect, fail or refuse, for a period of five days, after such award is made, to enter into a contract and file the required bond.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

R. S. HATTAN, County Judge. A. E. HARVEY, Commissioner. JUDSON WEED, Commissioner. H. E. ABRY, Roadmaster. 30-2 A. F. BARNETT, County Clerk

MIST MISTINGS FROM WEST ST. HELENS

Mrs. Gay Little visited Rainier Friday.

Mrs. Negro was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Lottie Sherman is spending the week in Portland.

Mrs. Lewis Hight, of Portland, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Al Chambers is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Karth, and other relatives.

Mrs. Coffield, of Swenson, Ore., is visiting this week at the home of Mrs. N. Ward.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kelley and Mrs. U. D. Kelley motored to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Kelley have been spending several days with relatives in town.

Wilbur Clark, of Neuth, Nevada, is in Houlton visiting relatives. Wilbur took the folks completely by surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frantz and daughter have been visiting Mrs. Frantz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knowles, at Lyle, Wash.

Miss Kate Moore spent the week end with the family of G. L. Tarbell and attended the annual "strawberry feed" of the Yankton grange.

Nora Baseel, who has been visiting to Portland for some days, returned home Sunday evening, two of her cousins coming with her for a few days.

Miss Margaret Mehan is visiting relatives in Portland this week. Her sister Edra has just returned from the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Williams, of Los Angeles, Cal., surprised Mrs. Williams, mother, Mrs. N. Ward, by walking in unexpectedly the other day. They will settle in Portland.

Aseph Baseel met with a painful accident Saturday when he was helping P. Hansen with his truck. In some way he lost his footing as he jumped aboard when the truck started and he was jerked against the side of the moving truck and dragged. He was badly bruised and was in bed several days but is now improving.

Emmet Williams, member of the firm of J. L. Williams & Sons, went swimming Saturday night with serious consequences. In making a high dive he struck a rock and was severely injured. He is being cared for by Dr. L. G. Ross at the Williams home and is recovering, but is still in bad condition.

Mrs. Charly Baker, of Warren, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Urie. Yesterday was Grandma Baker's ninetieth birthday anniversary and was celebrated in fitting manner by a noon dinner and afternoon reception. Mrs. Baker is a Civil war veteran's widow. As dinner guests she had Wm. Cox, 85 years old and a veteran; Mrs. Wm. Cox; Mrs. Matthews, who is 80 and a veteran's widow; Mrs. Pomlee and Mrs. Rowley. In honor of the old soldiers, the house was decorated with red, white and blue flowers. In the afternoon a reception was given at which thirty-two guests were present. Ice cream and cake were served. Grandma Baker has six living children, 20 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren. At the reception she sang a solo, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," to which she has added several original verses. Mrs. Baker is well and helps with the housework, goes easily up and down steps, goes for walks, and especially delights in being among the growing plants in the gardens these sunny days.
