

MIST MISTINGS

Attorney Geo. McBride, of Portland, was here Saturday. Mrs. John Sten and children were portland visitors Tuesday. Typewriter ribbons and carbon paper can be obtained at the Mist office. Miss Carrie Elbertson, of Portland, was a Sunday visitor to friends in St. Helens.

A marriage license was issued to William Patty and Viola Seifert, of Mayger, Oregon.

The best creamery butter at Kiblan's, $1 per roll or 50 cents per pound. Phone 35.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Shinn were in Hillsboro Monday and Tuesday, on a business mission.

The steamers Walkeena and Wapama left out Saturday night, carrying big lumber cargoes.

After a week pleasantly spent at Seaside, Rev. Taylor, wife and sister have returned to St. Helens.

Mrs. Nellie Davis, of Tacoma, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ramsey. Mrs. Davis is Mr. Ramsey's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howard, of Vancouver, Wash., have been the guests this week of their son, County Agent D. C. Howard, and wife.

R. C. Merryman, vice president of the St. Helens Lumber Co., was in St. Helens Monday, on business connected with the lumber industry. He returned to his home in Exeter, Cal., Tuesday morning.

For the purpose of hearing motions and setting cases to be tried, Judge Eakin convened circuit court Tuesday morning. No matters of great importance have come before the court. Several divorce cases have been disposed of.

The Oregon Rebekahs held their annual convention at Seaside on Monday last. Mrs. Charles Blakesley, Mrs. M. F. Hazen and Mrs. Minnie Dolleshal represented the St. Helens lodge and Mrs. Chas. Graham and Mrs. James Grant were the delegates from Houlton lodge. St. Helens was chosen for the meeting place next year.

County Agent Howard returned Wednesday night from attendance at the Gresham fair. He was judge of the livestock and reports a creditable exhibit both in livestock and agricultural products. In return for his services, County Agent Hall of Multnomah county will come to the Columbia County Fair next week and judge the fruit and vegetable exhibits.

J. E. Ramsey was a business visitor to Portland Saturday. Mrs. McKay and Mrs. West, of Seapooose, were guests of Mrs. A. S. Harrison Monday.

Miss Jessie Garner, of Astoria, arrived last night and is the guest of her friend, Miss Eugenia Deming.

S. R. Sonneland returned Tuesday night from Portland, where he has been working for the Pacific Inspection Bureau.

J. W. Allen, secretary of the Columbia County Fair Association, was in Portland Thursday, arranging for more attractions for the fair.

Miss Ethel Smith was down from Portland Sunday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. A. S. Harrison. Miss Smith is attending the Jefferson high school.

Miss Hall, of Portland, has been appointed a teacher in the St. Helens school, and will have charge of the second grade. Miss Hall was here Wednesday and accepted the position tendered her.

The Northwestern Tuberculosis Conference will be held in Portland October 15 and 16. Many noted physicians who have given much study to the subject will be in attendance.

Mrs. A. M. Weist and Mrs. Virgil Stevens left Wednesday for Little Rock, Ark., and Houston, Tex. They expect to be absent about a month, and when Mrs. Weist returns she will bring her two little nieces with her.

Miss Effie Perkins, who is visiting her sisters, Mrs. H. F. McCormick and Miss Leona Perkins, has received word from San Francisco to report for duty in France with the Red Cross nurses. She expects to be called early in October, and with other San Francisco nurses go across the seas.

Mrs. L. L. Baker's mother, Mrs. Mary Slotboom, and her sister, Miss Madeline Slotboom, of Salem, were recent visitors at the Baker home.

Miss Madeline, who taught in the St. Helens schools last year and was reelected, has resigned and will the University of Oregon to take an advanced course in educational work.

H. McClure, a fireman on the dredge Multnomah, died suddenly Wednesday night. He was playing checkers with a shipmate and suddenly fell back and became unconscious. Dr. Peel was summoned and the river steamer Beaver was hailed, but as the unconscious man was being transferred from the dredge to the steamer he died. He was 30 years old and for the past several months had been employed on the dredge.

Brick and bulk ice cream at Mason's Sunday. Phone 119. Miss Babe Hendershot, of Eugene, was a week end visitor with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Lidyard.

Mrs. Victoria Perry, of Rainier, is a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Barnett.

Miss Doris Wood, of Portland, has accepted a position in the office of County School Superintendent Allen.

Mrs. Thos. Isbister entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid Society Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served.

Prof. L. L. Baker left Saturday for Tillamook, where he will spend ten days in looking after his property interests there.

Dr. S. H. Russell, the chiropractor, has moved to the Harris building, next door to the city hall. His phone number is B 126.

C. C. Walker and Frank Thompson left for Portland Wednesday morning with the determination of enlisting in the United States forestry regiment, which will soon go to France to aid in the building of railroads, sawmills, etc. Both boys have numerous friends here who wish them success and a safe return to St. Helens.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will again have a refreshment booth at the county fair. Owing to the high cost of all food supplies, the ladies will not this year solicit any contributions but would like their friends to know that such contributions will be gratefully accepted and may be sent to either Mrs. Thos. Isbister or Mrs. A. F. Barnett.

The lighthouse tender Rose tied up for the night at St. Helens Tuesday, and officers and crew were given shore leave. Before the declaration of war with Germany the Rose was in the lighthouse service, but the vessel was taken over by the navy department and is now in the coast patrol service. She is armed and has gunners from the regular navy aboard, and her officers and crew have also been signed up for naval service.

W. R. Hewitt, marine superintendent of the McCormick fleet, is dividing his time between St. Helens and Portland, looking after the ships under construction here and the installation of the machinery of the City of St. Helens which is now in Portland. Mr. Hewitt stated that work was progressing well and he expected the big motor vessel to be ready for cargo within three weeks. Balfour Guthrie & Co. have chartered the vessel and she will take a 2,200,000

ft. cargo of lumber to either Australia or the west coast of South America.

WEST ST. HELENS

Miss Edith Clark made a trip to Portland this week. John Lamberson and wife were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Graham and Mrs. Kettle and children visited in Goble Thursday.

Dale Perry is teaching Columbia Heights school, which began Monday.

Miss Nora Gensman returned Sunday from spending a few days in Oregon City.

John Fritz, Walter Nagle and Dewey Larson, of this place, are working at Goble.

Mrs. P. Hansen took little Harry to Portland Saturday to have tonsils and adenoids removed.

A. Anderson, boss carpenter at the shipyard, has moved his family back to Yankton from Portland.

Mrs. Jarvis Davis and children and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Potter and family spent Sunday on Sauvie Island visiting the Domeier family. Else is smacking his lips yet over the crawfish "cooked just right."

CHURCH NOTICES

Congregational Church
10:00 a. m., Church school.
11 a. m., morning worship.
7 p. m., Christian Endeavor.

8 p. m., evening service. Subject, "When Jesus Surprised the People."

There will be a reception of members into the church Sunday morning, September 16. All good people need the church and the church should have the support of all good people in its work of uplift. Let us work together for a better social religious life, which means better community life.

Methodist Episcopal Church
"The Friendly Church," Albert S. Hisey, pastor.

Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject "Spiritualizing the Plan."

Epworth League, 7 p. m.
Evening service, 8 o'clock.

Subject for the evening, "Khaki and Blue." The services in the evening will be patriotic. Unveiling of the Honor Roll.

If you are a stranger in the city, you will find friends here. If you need rest and strength, find it in the services of the church. A cordial welcome awaits you.

NEW GOODS

Our stock of FALL and WINTER goods has arrived early and we are prepared now to furnish you with anything in the line of Dry Goods.

We have a complete stock of Shoes. The largest and best assortment of Ladies Shoes ever shown in Columbia county, at prices ranging from $3.50 to $11.00.

Let us outfit the children with School Shoes. We have them in all kinds, sizes and prices.

Austin's

Howinell Could It?

The telephone is not making much progress in Russia. And no wonder! A man goes to a telephone and shouts:

"Hello, is that you. Dvlastivchsmartvoiczkie?"

"No; dis is Zollemschonskafnoekstiffrowoff. Who's speaking?"
"Soximochozkiertyuaks Mikboffomoff, I wanta know if Xillemanskeffiskillmajuwchzvastowaksfiblerski is still stoppling with Dvlastivchsmartvoiczkie."—London Answers.

Trade at The Toggery

O
G
G
E
R
Y

pposite St. Helens Hotel.

et the habit--make your purchases at a Man's store.

oods Guaranteed or Money Back.

everything for the workingman.

ight Prices and the Right Place.

ours for SERVICE, SATISFACTION and QUALITY.

Stag Shirts	Mackinaws
SWEATERS	GLOVES and SOX
Slickers and Pants	Oil Clothing
OVERCOATS	NECKWEAR
Aquapelle Leggings	Waterproof Hats

Now is the time and this is the place to get your new FALL HAT, UNDERWEAR, ETC.

WE INVITE FAIR VISITORS TO MAKE OUR STORE THEIR HEADQUARTERS WHILE IN THE CITY

This Store is An Exclusive Store for Men's Goods

"DICK FOR DUDS"