WARREN

Professor Russell gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the conservation of food last Tuesday morning at general assembly, after which the cards were distributed, one to each family. The children were urged to see that every family in Warren community signed the pledge and got the other cards. Uncle Sam need have no fear regarding the conservation of food in this community.

Mrs. Fritz Widmer, Mrs. Coil and Werner Widmer, of Sauvies Island, visited at the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boesel, Tuesday.

The student body will hold a business meeting and rally at the Grange hall next Thursday evening, the 25th, at which time the question of athletics will be definitely settled. Another important matter to settle will be the manner of raising this year's installment on the piano. We have a few Daniel Websters and Calhouns in the school, and they propose to make their point of views understood.

Louis Boesel, home on a furlough, visited here last Saturday and Sunday. Louis said that he is enjoynig himself immensely and wouldn't have missed it for anything.

Miss Hattie Grewelle and her brother, Trueman, left for Portland Saturday, where they expect to work

Mrs. Erickson and her three daughters from North Dakota are visiting at the home of Ernest and Charley Rylanders. They intend staying here a few days, after which they will go to St. Helens or Portland to live.

Miss Myrtle Larson left last week to teach school in Harney county. From a geographical standpoint, Myrtle is out in the "wide and lonesome," but that's the place where teachers are made or ruined, we are told, so take it from us Myrtle will make good, and then watch her.

There is expected to be a basket social at the Grange hall soon, so watch for it.

Miss Hilda Muhr and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Muhr, visited Mr. Muhr at American Lake over Saturday and Supnday.

A farewell party was held at the home of Trueman Trewelle last Wednesday evening, the 10th, in honor of Harvey Hay, who is now in the naval training camp in California. Harvey, who was a member of the Warren band and Boy Scouts, goes as a musician. We presume that it will be many months before Harvey can make a visit to Warren, but he and that uniform will certainly receive a heary welcome.

NEHALEM VALLEY

We are having such a nice long spell of fine weather now that the road work is progressing with amazing rapidity. Mr. Mill is doing his utmost to finish the graveling before it rains again.

Mrs. Thrapp has returned from a visit at Portland and Hillsboro.

Mr. Weed returned Sunday from his semi-monthly trip to St. Helens He saw the wreck of the auto at Hillsboro that caused the death of three people, one of them being Albert Hornshoe, who is well known in Nehalem. His wife was so badly hurt that she is not expected to live. Their two little daughters were badly hurt but are out of serious danger.

Mr. Wilkinson's second daughter. Gladys, was taken very sick Thursday night. Mrs. Dr. Cole was called, also Dr. Wooden. The conference disclosed it to be a case of pneumonia in its worst form. Her father was away working but came home immediately on hearing of his daughter's sickness.

Mrs. Emma Rose and infant daughter, of eastern Oregon, arrived Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Christensen, and other friends in the valley.

Mr. Watson, of Forest Grove, with several friends, passed through the valley Sunday.

Some cattle buyers took some cattle out of the valley Thursday.

This is a fine time for sowing fall grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinen, of Portland, are visiting a few days with her sister, Mrs. Powell, and Mrs. Peterson, below Vernonia.

There have been a series of dances and parties given in honor of our boys who have been home on furlough from the army and navy. Bob McPherson, Bert Wood, Dewey Van Blaricom, Everitt Tucker, Cyril John, Homer Sheeley, Russel and Gale Stanton, of the navy, and Glen Sheeley of the medical corps in Washington. The boys all seem to be in ship shape, and look as if they had been very well treated by Uncle Sam. We wish them Godspeed and success for the future.

BACHELOR FLAT

Mr. Pope is busy threshing. It is rather late, but better late than not at all.

Mrs. Steffie Neigle spent a few days visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, last week.

Mrs. Merril, of West St. Helens, visited with her sister, Mrs. Burkhead, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White were shopping in Portland last Saturday.

There were quite a number of the folks from the Flat wandered out to Warren last Saturday evening and incidentally rode the goat at the Grange lodge, but all seemed able to report for duty Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lillich and daughter, Minnie, visited in St. Helens Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin White.

Mrs. Player, of Clatskanie, has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Burkhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burdahl drove up to the Rose City last week in their Ford. They report having a very pleasant trip and the roads in very good shape.

The Bachelor Flat Sewing Circle met on the 13th at the schoolhouse. After the business was finished some of the sisters gave the rest a very enjoyable surprise by treating them to some very good coffee and cake, which all seemed to enjoy. It was decided to take the money on hand to build a much needed play shed for the children. There not being sufficient funds to build one, a basket social will be given soon to help swell the funds. It is hoped everyone will take an interest in this. The date will be announced a little later. The next meeting of the circle will be held at Mrs. P. Jacobson's, on November 3. It is hoped to see a good attendance and everyone bring your own work. Hours from 2 to 4:30 p. m. We would be very glad to have some new members join with us, as we hope to make this a social as well as a beneficial affair.

Eugene Heating has moved his family out on the DeSpain farm and will take charge of the place this winter. It is understood that Mrs. DeSpain will spend the winter in California with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Soderberg and children, Mrs. Neigle and son Walttie took a trip up the highway last Sunday in O. Erickson's new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Peterson have taken rooms in the Long building, in West St. Helens, and will be glad to welcome their many friends.

SCAPPOOSE

Miss Gypsy Johnston spent the week end with friends in Portland.

Irene Stoltenberg left on Monday to take a business course at Links college.

Mrs. J. Divens, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Leonard, left on Sunday to join her husband in their new home at Seaside.

Mrs. Gochnour has moved from the J. G. Watts ranch to Mr. Fish's cottage, formerly occupied by the Niblock family.

Mrs. Eskridge, of Sheridan, is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. M. Watts.

Floyd Bachelder has returned from his ranch at La Pine, in central Oregon, to attend school here for the winter. He is staying at the home of Mr. Grewell.

John Anderson is home for a few days, having hurt his foot at Chapman camp last week.

Fred Lange, who has employment at the Scappoose lumber camp, was changing a belt when the belt slipped and he strained one of his hands and lacerated an ear. He was bandaged and taken to the Good Samaritan hospital and at last report he is improving nicely.

Mrs. Dan Gust was operated on last week at a hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Gordon, who has been staying with her mother, Mrs. Dawson, for two months, has returned to her home in Knappa.

Mrs. Lawson and son are visiting in St. Helens for a few days.

Orville Garrison made a flying trip on Saturday from Camp Lewis, to give his relatives and friends a pleasant surprise. He returned Sunday.

Loren Johnson left Sunday morning to attend college at Corvallis. His many friends were quite surprised. It was late Saturday evening when Loren decided he could go. He was a student there last year.

J. G. Watts and family spent Sunday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hackett spent Sunday with Mrs. Hackett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Butler.

Mrs. M. J. Watts is still in Portland, not having fully recovered from her illness. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.
