School Notes

Mary Metcalf was absent last Friday.

The Scappoose high school will have a baseball team this season.

The floor of the play shed has been completed and it is a great benefit.

The English III class is going to find out "How the other half lives."

On Friday afternoon, instead of the usual literary program, the high school pupils hiked to Warren to witness the baseball game.

A baseball game with Warren and our grammar grade boys was held on Friday in Warren. The score was 17 to 15 in favor of Warren. It does not usually happen that our boys are beaten, and on the coming Friday, when a game will be held here, our boys will make up for this game.

WARREN

Mrs. Russell and son spent the week end with Prof. C. J. as guests at the Baker hotel.

Mrs. Grewell and sons, of Scappoose, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Silas Wellborn.

The farmers have taken advantage of the good weather of the last few days and have begun seeding. The grain acreage will be about 60 per cent more than last year and potatoes about 50 per cent less.

A thief or thieves entered the barn of John Farr and stole about 300 sacks last Friday night. Mr. Farr suspects a junk peddler who has been around for the last month. With sacks at 25 cents the looter made a good night's wages.

Scappoose high school came to Warren to cross bats with the Warren boys on Friday, and, as is usual, the result was in favor of Warren. This is the first series of the year, and Warren says to expect the same result from each school that is venturesome enough to play them.

Prof. D. C. and Mrs. Howard, of St. Helens, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Farr on Saturday.

A St. Patrick's party was given by Miss Fannie Cooper at the residence of her parents on Saturday evening. About 18 young people attended and had a jolly time telling Irish stories and jokes. Miss Beth Perry, of St. Helens, and Mrs. C. J. Russell, of Portland, were outside guests. Cards were played and refreshments were served. All decorations were of green, in honor of the day celebrated.

The men of the Grange who are to bring cakes prepared by themselves for the meeting on Saturday night are making preparations to do their cooking. Gus Isaacson will cook his on Friday evening, and he guarantees not to waste mroe than the alloted amount of ingredients and will have clean hands. Jim Bacon is conserving the freshest of eggs. K. F. Larson will trim his whiskers before beginning. A. H. Tarbell will use Shorthorn milk. Joe Erickson, Jr., says he will label his so there will be no controversy, as he expects his to be best. C. M. Hyskell will make a Hoover cake, using graham flour and molasses. Carl Rylander will use rainwater as he claims it makes the cake lighter. A. Benson says his cake is bound to be light for a jovial cook is always successful. He has tried several places for first class raisins and says they will go good. O. A. Erickson will make a marble cake, using black molasses for coloring. His will be eggless as Mrs. Erickson says he eats all the eggs for breakfast. Eric Astrom will make a cake and in all probability send it with Mrs. Astrom as he has been threatened if it was not good to stay away. Mr. Colt, of the St. Helens Creamery, says he would like to make one out of butter but the heat makes it unshapeable. Mayhap he will patronize "Heinie." A. L. Larson will use turnips (yellow) as he says it will save the yolks of the eggs in coloring. He will use hog's butter and bees' honey. A. L. Morris will not tell what his will contain but has been trying to buy some 200 year old Chinese eggs. He will label his so as to distinguish it from Joe Erickson's mixture. Arthur Lund will be in attendance and sample all the cakes first and if they do not prove indigestible he will help serve them. Arthur has a robust constitution. As a precaution a physician will be present if possible.

DEER ISLAND ITEMS

The 23 women who gathered from far and near at the work room of the Deer Island auriliary of the Red Cross on Friday last accomplished so much by their effectual team work it was necessary for Mrs. Connell to make a trip to headquarters for supplies for the next meeting.

The knitting classes are noted for their speed and efficiency, one of them having completed three sweaters in nine days. The auxiliary is especially proud of its knitters. Instruction will be given and yarn furnished at any time. It is in anticipation of the great drive on the western front the demand for hospital supplies is so urgent. Bed shirts, convalescent shirts, slings, etc. Don't forget the date, Friday, the 15th, at the Grange hall.

At the recent cat show held at Meier & Franks, under the auspices of the American Cat Association, Mrs. Jack Appleton's White Persian cat Queen won third prize. A Silver Tabby, Persian Karuse won first prize and winner, making her not only the best cat in the Silver Tabby class but securing enough points to be put in the championship class. The winner's prize was a gold medal. This show was held under the ruling of the American Cat Association, which is very exacting regarding eligibility for champion honors. Each of the cats competed in the most fancy company and blue blood.
