 Mr. Scudder had the city water put into his house this week.
 A dance was held at the home of Fred Adams Saturday evening.
 Helen Watts and Marjorie Holiday are home for Easter vacation.
 Cooper Whitney was in Scappoose Sunday, seeing if things looked natural.
 Mr. Paige is having his house repapered. Mr. Grewell is doing the work.
 Mr. Sheeler has rented D. W. Price's house, formerly owned by the Gilletts.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harrison, of St. Helens, spent last Tuesday with Mrs. Scott.
 Choir rehearsal was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watts, Wednesday evening.
 The Red Cross packed two huge boxes of clothing for the Belgium relief fund on Friday.
 Mrs. Palmer and children are moving from the Scudders house to the Robert McKay property this week.
 Christine Rickert has gone to San Francisco to see her fiance, Mike Callahan, who has been on the sick list.
 Mrs. Noah Hill sold the chickens and rented her place to Mr. Gilmour and has gone to Portland for an indefinite stay.
 The Macabee Ladies are practicing a drill to be given at the meeting in Portland next week. A full attendance is earnestly requested at the rehearsal Saturday afternoon.
 Mrs. W. B. Scott was a business visitor in St. Helens on Friday, and then was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison for the evening and Saturday.
 Mr. Redy, superintendent of the Nehalem Timber & Logging Co., has resigned, his resignation to take effect April 1. He will leave for British Columbia, near Vancouver, where he has interests in timber and a sawmill of his own.
 Congregational church: There will be a union service in the morning at 10:30. The children will have their Easter exercises. At the evening service, 7:30, there will be special music by the choir, and this will be Mr. Johnston's last Sabbath as pastor here.
 The Loyal Legion organizers visited Scappoose Lumber Company last Thursday and every man became a member. On Friday they went up to the Nehalem Timber & Logging Company. Several of the men refused to sign and they were seen departing from Scappoose on the 4:00 o'clock train.

School Notes

WARREN

Mrs. C. Lewis spent Saturday in Portland.
 Harold Carlson is taking a vacation and Miss Nora Larsen is mail carrier in his stead.
 Mrs. U. S. D'Spain, of Bachelor Flat, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarbell.
 Mrs. Thomas Grewell is spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, in Portland.
 Chas. N. Bendure has returned from the Portland hospital, where he successfully underwent an operation.
 A pie social and entertainment will be given in the near future, the funds to be devoted to the work of the Red Cross.
 Miss Elizabeth Hyskell, of Lincoln High School in Portland, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell.
 F. A. Hoytt has circulated a call for the formation of a home guard. Over thirty have signed the call and an organization meeting will be held the latter part of the week.
 A. H. Tarbell and A. L. Morris, of the Grange, attended a joint meeting of the Granges of Columbia, Multnomah, Clackamas and Washington counties last Tuesday.
 Messrs. Adams, Anderson and Clarke, members of the recently re-organized Grange at Deer Island, spent Saturday afternoon consulting with members of Warren Grange in regard to by-laws.

 The Red Cross clothes collection held here last week was a bounteous success. Over three boxes of clothes for the Belgians were donated, and the promoters are lavish in their praise of the residents of Warren. The goods received were of splendid quality and little worn. They consisted of men's, women's and children's clothing and shoes.
 An open meeting of the Grange is called for Saturday night in conjunction with a meeting of the farmers who do not belong to the Grange, to definitely settle plans for the building of a warehouse. It is urgently requested that every resident farmer of the district be in attendance as the object is the most important, from a financial standpoint, ever held in Warren.
 "Get your money ready," is the slogan of the local committee on the Liberty Loan which will be begun in a short time. Mrs. N. F. Baker is local representative and is making preparations to see and solicit every resident of the district and expects to be met with a ready response. There are a number of bond owners in the district, but Mrs. Baker expects each house to take at least one bond. "The supreme effort of every man, woman and child in the district must be put forward," said Mrs. Baker, "and now is the time."
 Warren Grange continues to grow as rapidly as ever. Three new members were admitted on Saturday evening. Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis, Mrs. C. C. Colt and Miss Marguerite Miller were initiated. The drawing card was the sampling of the cakes made by the men, or supplied by them. Many of the cakes used were made by the men without aid of the ladies. They proved themselves excellent cake bakers, and the ladies tendered a vote of thanks and appreciation for their efforts, to the men. Every meeting brings a large crowd, and Grange meetings is the looked-for society event of Warren. Progress and enterprise is their slogan. Warren Grange is now one of the largest in the state.

The Pneumonia Season.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask anyone who has used it.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!
 See E. E. Quick, St. Helens, and insure your property in the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Oregon. Don't put it off. Mch29f W. L. WARREN, Agent.
