OBITUARY

Magnus Fletcher Graham was born at Kosiusko, Miss., March 4, 1851, and died in St. Helens Thursday, May 9, 1918, aged 67 years 2 months and 5 days.

Deceased grew to manhood amid the scenes of his boyhood, and in 1890 moved to Birmingham, Ala., where he remained for five years before going to Huston, Texas. From Texas he came, with his family, to Fisher, Wash., in 1914 and made that place his home until he came to St. Helens two years ago to make his home with his daughters, who had then recently moved here.

In 1879 Mr. Graham was united in marriage with Miss Susan Elizabeth Howell, who was his faithful companion in life until her death three years ago. The family of nine children grew to adult life with the exception of two. They are Mrs. Bessie Cornthwaite, Mrs. Virgil Stevens, Mrs. Alice Wreford, all of St. Helens; Mrs. W. J. Habermacher, of Addicks, Texas; S. J. and K. J. Graham, of Huston, Texas, and S. H. Graham of the United States navy.

Both Mr. Graham and his wife were active members of the Methodist church and took much interest in church affairs. The body of deceased was taken to Fisher, Wash., and buried in the family plot in the little cemetery at that place.
