

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE

Mrs. Hazel Cooke and little son returned home from Portland Monday evening.

Mrs. R. F. Niblock entertained "The Neighbors" on Wednesday, at a luncheon. Those present were Mrs. D. Bessemer, Mrs. W. Cambell, Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mrs. C. Lamber-son and Mrs. May Getchell.

Arch Duncan, of Tacoma, spent the week-end with home folks.

Tony Guba has rented the Dan Freeman cottage.

Floyd Grewell has purchased the Jess Morgan property, and taking possession this week. Mrs. Jakes had her household effects removed on Tuesday.

The Lady Maccabets gave a reception Thursday afternoon in Watts & Price hall in honor of Mrs. Earl Kilworth, Mrs. W. C. Campbell, Mrs. Arch Duncan and Mrs. Roy Van Clevemembers, who had been absent for a long time. Refreshments were served and all report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Duncan were guests of Miss Eva Garrison for dinner on Saturday evening.

On the opening day of the Red Cross drive the young ladies gathered in $268.00. The young ladies were so attractive in their spotless white, and with their Red Cross outfit that everyone almost handed over their purse and said give back what you don't want.

Bud White, of Bremerton, Wash., is home for a few days; he leaves soon for the East.

Mr. A. Seifert and Henry Larsen, of Portland, were visitors in Scappoose on Tuesday.

Frank L. Smith shipped two carloads of cattle to North Portland Stock Yards this week.

The Red Cross social at Chapman Saturday night resulted in $60.00.

Mr. M. B. Beaver has a new Overland.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Crowley, Judge Cooper and Mrs. Cooper were guests of Mrs. Nivlock Thursday evening at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowley are enjoying a vacation at the springs for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler left Sunday morning for a trip to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, to see their son Clauancy, who is leaving for France in the U. S. engineer corps.

The lecture in the hall Saturday night by Mr. Skulason was well attended, and a fine talk we had. There was a short program.

Marjorie Holliday spent the week-end with the home folks, returning to Eugene on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Hatfield, Mr. Woods, Dr. and Mrs. Blatchford motored to Portland Sunday afternoon, and heard Hobson speak on "America in the War."

William Schultz, who was operated on for appendicitis and other complications last Saturday, is slowly improving.

The Red Cross drive, under the supervision of Miss Maud Watts, has made rapid strides. Three of the girls, Eva Garrison, Vera Price, Mrs. Arch Duncan, succeeded in raising $268 on Friday. The regular solicitors started work Tuesday.

A suitable program is being arranged for Decoration day; Congregational Church S. S., 10:15; morning worship, 11:15; evening service, 8 o'clock. The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered in the evening.

Mr. Gerloch and family, of Libby, Mont., arrived Saturday. Mr. Gerloch, a brother of Mrs. Roscoe, has accepted a position in Portland. Mrs. Gerloch will remain with Mrs. Roscoe for some time.

WARREN

No. 348 Wolf Creek Assembly. United Artisans, wish to thank all those who supported the basket social last Saturday evening. One hundred and twenty dollars was realized for the benefit of a neighbor. Mr. Larsen, who was burned out a short time ago.

The Warren school closed a very successful school year on Saturday night, when 15 pupils were graduated, the largest class in the history of the school. Rev. A. Hisey, of St. Helen's, spoke long and entertainingly to the graduates, extolling them on their behavior and of their conduct, by which they will be judged. Prof. C. J. Russell congratulated the class as being 100 per cent perfect graduates. Since coming to Warren Prof. Russell has made a very marked improvement in the conduct of the school children. Their deportment and manners are exceptionally advanced and the advancement of all under his charge is freely commented on. He has resigned to accept a position with the University of Oregon at Eugene, where he will fit himself for greater possibilities in the teaching line. His departure is regretted by both parents and pupils. There has been no one as yet appointed to fill the vacancy. His many friends wish him the utmost success in his future endeavors. The following were graduated: Walter Olson, Eva Farhell, Leo Farr, Laura Farr, Margaret Reiper, Irving Erickson, Theodore Cooper, Agnes Kallberg, Ingrid Kallberg, Agnes Johnson, Ed- win Norbeck, Emil Hedlund, Annie Benson, Carl Swenson and Theodore Peterson. The class colors, red, white and blue, were much in evidence. A pleasing program, both vocal and instrumental, was given.

The Warren orchestra presented Miss Martha Reysen with a handsome gold ring in appreciation of the services rendered as a member of the orchestra. Miss Reysen will continue her musical studies in Portland. She will be missed by the music-loving of Warren.

Miss Mary Thomas, of Goble, formerly a teacher in Warren schools, spent a couple of days meeting her many friends here. She was the guest of Mrs. John Farr.

Ben Hazen made a speedy trip to Portland on Friday, accompanied by Miss _____

Col. W. J. Fullerton was nominated for County Judge on the Democratic ticket, and his many friends, both Republican and Democrat, are promising his candidacy their unqualified support. Col. Fullerton is a progressive and always first in any improvement for his home county.

GOBLE

Miss Catharine Giles is spending her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Link, Mrs. Roy Hoven and Mrs. Wm. Robbins motored to Portland Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Alexander, of Goble, are the proud parents of a nine-pound baby boy.

Mr. L. F. Jones is visiting his sister, Mrs. Linnie Jones, at Moelips, Wash.

Miss Marguarite Kearns spent Sunday with friends in Deer Island.

Jennie Belle Link made a trip to Rainier, Wednesday.

Bertha Nussbaumer and Joyce Hyberger were in Rainier Tuesday.

Cass Fowler, who is stationed at American Lake, Wash., spent Saturday and Sunday in Goble.

Arthur Cooper and Emil Vah- haighl, who are stationed at Fort Casey, were in Goble this week to visit Mr. Cooper's sister, Miss Lillian Cooper.

Miss Susie Ketel of St. Helens, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Alexander.

Nicholas and Mamie Welter and Henry Giles spent the week-end in Goble.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown have moved into their house on the hill. Every one will miss Mr. Brown at the store.

The Goble school is very proud to say that all the class graduated and with high honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. H. Welter, Frank Welter, Jr., Miss Catherine Giles, Miss Madeline Thomas, Miss Bertha Nussbaumer, Mr. Emil Nussbaumer and Private Stanley Thomas attended the Red Cross dance in Deer Island Saturday.

Mr. Henry Welter, who has been laid up with a smashed finger for some time, returned to work at the shipyards Monday.

Mrs. Beeston, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. M. Hoven.

Miss Audrey Mallaber, who has been attending high school in Rainier, is home for the summer vacation.

Geneva Fowler, who has been attending high school in Kalama, Wash., is home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. Cass Fowler is spending the week-end in Portland.

The Red Men's Lodge held open meeting in their hall here, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. S. L. Voigt attended the commencement exercises of the Kalama High School Friday evening. Harry Bishop and Otto Cantwell were present also.

NEW OVERLAND ON DISPLAY

The New No. 4 Overland will be on exhibition at the Overland Company's branch in Portland, May 26, 27, 28 and 29. Any one wishing to see this latest and most powerful production of the Overland factory can do so by calling at the Overland branch on the dates mentioned, or if they will notify me, I shall be glad to arrange to take them to Portland and see this car.

J. F. DOPPLMAIER, Overland Agent for Columbia County.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received, addressed to the County Court of Columbia County, Oregon, and endorsed "Proposals for Erecting North Bank Bridge," to-wit: To erect one 90-foot span wooden truss bridge, one 50-foot span wooden truss bridge, one 32-foot span bridge and about 720 lineal feet of pile approaches, near the town of Birkenfeld, in Columbia County, Oregon.

All tools and labor to be furnished by the contractor and all material for the structure to be furnished by Columbia County. Bids will be received by said County Court until 2 o'clock p. m., June 7th, 1918, and not thereafter, and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

All proposals must be made upon blank forms to be obtained from the Roadmaster at his office at St. Helens, Oregon; must give the prices proposed, both in writing and in figures, and must be signed by the bidder, with his address.

Plans and specifications are on file and may be examined in the office of the County Clerk and also in the office of the Roadmaster.

Each bidder shall deposit with his bid a certified check for an amount of at least five per cent of his bid, payable to the County Clerk, which shall be forfeited to the County in case the award is made to him, and if he shall neglect, fail or refuse, for a period of five days after the award is made, to enter into a contract and file the required bond.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

S. C. MORTON, County Judge. A. E. HARVEY, Commissioner. JUDSON WEED, Commissioner. H. E. ABRY, Roadmaster. J. W. HUNT, County Clerk.

Best Remedy for Whooping Cough.

"Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts, East St. Louis, Ill. "It kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it." This remedy is also good for colds and croup.

Have Dr. Thompson give your eyes a thorough examination with the latest instrument known to science—the ophthalmoscope. With this instrument the eyes can be illuminated and the inner as well as the outer conditions, and smaller defects found. He gives as thorough an examination as could be had in any first class office, which cost you nothing. Consult him Thursday, May 30. St. Helens hotel parlors all afternoon.
