

MIST MISTINGS

Rudolph Ketel and his sister Susy spent Friday in Portland.

Mrs. A. S. Harrison spent the week end at Salem with her mother.

J. T. Taber called on the Portland wholesalers Tuesday.

County Clerk J. W. Hunt was in Portland Tuesday on a business mission.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Alexander and baby spent the week end with Mrs. Susan Ketel.

Miss Madeline Frayley of Eugene is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harold P. Broughton.

Miss Ethel Smith and Miss Adeline Adams spent the week end at the Holland ranch.

Prof. L. L. Baker is in Portland attending the summer school of the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Von A. Gray and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Gray's mother in Portland.

Misses Alice and Ann Quick and Miss Elizabeth Philip were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Heist at their Portland home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton and children and Miss Olga Heilborn spent Sunday with Mr. Morton's mother in Portland.

Odd Fellows Attention—Your presence is requested at I. O. O. F. hall, St. Helens, at 9 a. m., July 4th to assist in the parade. By order of the N. G.

The steamer Klamath arrived in Monday night and will sail today, carrying a full load of lumber and a heavy passenger list, destined for California ports.

Mrs. Annie L. Heaver of Lower Lake, California, is here on a visit to her brother, W. E. Lidyard. F. T. Lidyard of Eugene, is also a guest at the Lidyard home.

Andrew Henrikson of Scappoose was a pleasant caller at the Mist office Friday. He had just returned from Arlington, Wash., where he had been on an extended visit.

Mrs. W. A. Levi and daughters left Friday morning for Spokane where they will spend several weeks with relatives and friends. Mr. Levi accompanied them as far as Portland.

H. E. Cornwalte, who since selling out his hardware business in St. Helens, has been engaged in the automobile business in Texas, is in St. Helens on a short visit to his family.

To complete her cargo of 1,200,000 feet of lumber, the barkentine Lahana dropped down from the Columbia County mill to the Lumber company's dock. It is expected the vessel will be loaded about Tuesday and will leave down river to call for an African port.

L. O. Vadintas of Mist was in St. Helens Tuesday on business matters.

The barkentine Lahana will finish taking on her cargo of 1,250,000 feet of lumber tonight and drop down to Astoria, awaiting a crew. As soon as the crew is secured Captain Arneson will leave out for Durban, South Africa.

S. E. Lynch received a postal card from Louis Muhr last Friday in which it was stated that his company were leaving Camp Lewis for "somewhere." The supposition was they were bound for an eastern port and on the way to France. Louis is in the ambulance corps. Harry Richardson is another St. Helens boy in the same company.

Doctors Oswald Deming and S. B. Hoskin, Mr. S. M. Miles and Mr. H. S. Mason returned early Friday morning from Camp Lewis, Washington. While in the Sound country they visited Tacoma and Seattle. The day they were in Camp Lewis, eight trains of 16 coaches each, left the camp for some eastern point. Other troop trains were in readiness to be loaded with soldiers.

William Russell is in the city, coming down from Seattle, where he was employed by the Hunt Company, who had a large contract with the government for creosoted piling and timbers. Mr. Russell is arranging his affairs in order that he may leave with the next contingent of drafted men who are called on July 5th.

In response to a message stating her brother, Henry Muchow, had passed away at the home of his mother in Portland, Mrs. Von Gray left Wednesday night for Portland. Mr. Muchow was 40 years of age and a few months ago came west in the hope of regaining his health. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon and the body taken back to the old home in Nebraska for interment.

Oren Johnson writes his father, W. J. Johnson, that for the past month he has been in Paris, attending a tractor school. Oren enlisted in the field artillery in Portland July last and went with the Oregon boys to France. For some good reason he has been assigned to a different service, but was not at liberty to state why.

Daisy Mabel Hyde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hyde, died Friday evening, June 21st, at the residence of her parents in this city. The girl had been ill only a few days and her sudden death was a surprise to her parents and friends. The funeral was held Monday from the Methodist church and the interment was in Warren cemetery. Rev. A. S. Hisey conducted the funeral services and members of the Boy Scouts acted as pall bearers.

SERGEANT R. D. LAWS, U. S. A. AND BRIDE

Sergeant Roy D. Laws, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Laws of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Esther Lee at Junction City, Kansas, June 2nd. Sergeant Laws met his bride in San Francisco when he returned from duty in the Hawaiian Islands. When his regiment was transferred to Fort Riley, Kansas and he received a well earned promotion, he wrote to his intended and she and mother journeyed to Junction City and the ceremony took place.

Roy Laws enlisted in the cavalry at Vancouver, Washington, early in 1917. He was sent to California and later transferred to Honolulu. Some months ago, he was sent to Fort Riley. The young soldier by strict attention to duty has worked his way up to sergeant and his friends here hope he will soon have the shoulder

There are about 5,000 Germans interned in the United States. City Attorney J. W. Bay was in Portland Thursday attending to legal matters.

E. G. Ditto and H. A. Large motored to Portland Thursday and transacted business matters.

Mrs. M. E. Stine of Monmouth, mother of A. J. Deming, is here on a visit to her son and his family.

The Teachers examination is now being held in the courthouse and being conducted by Superintendent Allen.

In one army camp there are 55 battalion baseball teams, besides the headquarters, staff, brigade and division teams.

O. P. Jamieson, formerly connected with the St. Helens Mercantile company, was a business visitor in St. Helens Friday. Mr. Jamieson will again take up the practice of law in Portland.

Parties coming from Astoria Thursday stopped at St. Helens enroute to Portland. They reported the road in fairly good condition all the way to Astoria.

Standard safety razors are now being issued to men in the expeditionary forces. In addition, each man is issued a toothbrush, comb, hairbrush, soap and towels.

More than 700,000 tons of cereal food-stuffs were shipped to the allies from North America during May, according to the food administration. April shipments were more than 800,000 tons.

George Wilson has bought out the interest of Sam Alexander in the Central Meat Market and from now on will be associated with Ray Norton in the conduct of the business. Mr. Wilson is an experienced beef and cattle buyer and will look after that end of the firm's business.

In response to a message stating that his father-in-law, Robert Sane, was dead, J. W. Allen left for Forest Grove yesterday morning to attend the funeral. H. J. Southard and Mrs. Southard and Mrs. Thos. Isbister, who knew the deceased well, accompanied Mr. Allen.

Thomas V. Holstein, formerly of Yankton, but now living in Klackit, Washington, and Miss Iris C. Griffiths, formerly of Yankton, but now residing in Portland, were married Wednesday afternoon by Judge Morton. The couple came down from Portland, accompanied by Mrs. E. D. Barker and Miss Mary E. Griffiths, a sister of the bride. Both of the contracting parties gave their ages as 18 years and the groom had the written consent of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice DuBulsson and daughter Marjorie of Tacoma, were guests of Mrs. S. C. Morton and Miss Olga Heilborn, their cousins, Wednesday. The DuBulsson's came by auto from Tacoma and report the road in excellent condition except one stretch between Kelso and Kalama.

Larsen & Company and the St. Helens Mercantile Company, in line with the government's request to operate all business on an economical basis as possible, have agreed to have a joint delivery and that delivery will be made three times a week. In many towns in Oregon, this system has been installed and is working advantageously to all concerned. Sooner or later, as the able bodied men are called for army service, it will become necessary for one to be his own delivery man and the people of St. Helens and other places might as well become accustomed to it for it is a necessity.

Miss Esther Weigle of Libby, Montana, is visiting friends here and taking the teachers examination now being held.

Mrs. John Morgando, who underwent a serious operation at a Portland hospital the first of the week, is reported as getting along nicely.

Col. J. S. Parke, who has been on duty in Storrs, Conn., has been relieved of that special duty and is on the way to Portland. He hopes to visit St. Helens friends in the near future.

The traffic ordinance will go into effect July 3rd and Chief of Police George Washington Potter has instructed the assistant chief, Walter W. Blakesley, that the ordinance must be strictly enforced.

Hon. John F. Logan of Portland will make the address at the W. S. S. mass meeting tonight in the Plaza. Mr. Logan is an eloquent speaker. Be sure to hear him.

THE WOMANS CLUB

The local committee of the Womens Division of the Council of National Defense met at the library room Wednesday afternoon. The committee is composed of representatives from each of the different womans' organizations of the city: Mrs. Robert Dixon from Guild; Mrs. Murphy, the Congressional Aid Society; Mrs. John Sten, Woman's Club; Mrs. Wood, M. E. Aid Society; Mrs. F. George, Pythian Sisters; Mrs. E. A. Crouse, Eastern Star and Mrs. Doleshal, for the city at large. The Rebekahs will also be represented.

The committee will have charge of all patriotic service work and war activities. Chief among them will be the keeping of the thrift and war savings clubs and the child welfare work.

Mrs. L. L. Baker, who is county chairman recently attended a conference in Portland, called the committee together and laid the work before them.

The first activity will probably be the weighing and measuring of the children. Every baby between the ages of 3 months and six years, must be weighed and measured for Uncle Sam knows how precious and valuable are the babies, and wishes to decrease the mortality among the babies.

A representative from England at the National Council recently held in Washington, stated that while the mortality in the trenches was only 2 per cent, there were 14 per cent of the babies dying. In Minnesota, the mortality is 7 per cent among the babies.

The president of the United States has authorized the work of the Child's Welfare Bureau and the governor of Oregon has asked that all co-operate in the work and endeavor to save the lives of babies. The Womans Club have entered heartily into the work and hope to accomplish much in this direction.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of those who so kindly rendered their assistance in our hour of bereavement.—Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hyde.

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE

There is money on hand to pay all City of St. Helens general fund warrants, endorsed prior to April 1st, 1918. Interest stops after June 28th.

A. L. STONE,
City Treasurer.

YOU!

Will you greet the Fourth of July with a happy consciousness of a good deed well done?

June 28th has been set as National War Savings Day. Your country expects you on that day to pledge every penny you can, up to $1,000, toward the purchase of War Savings Stamps.

The price of American citizenship is no longer cheap. A new hour has struck. The crash of war has ground all semblance of cheapness out of being an American. We must pay the price now.

ON JUNE 28th, YOUR COUNTRY ASKS YOU TO BALANCE YOUR PATRIOTIC CASH ACCOUNT.

Every penny you withhold that you are able to lend extends aid and comfort to the enemy.

No legal summons will compel payment. You are called to payment by the higher, more chivalric summons to volunteer your pledge to purchase this year every dollar's worth of War Savings Stamps you can.

W. S. S.

National War Savings Committee

This space contributed for the Winning of the War by

A. E. AUSTIN

Gem Theatre

FRIDAY, JUNE 28TH

Olive Thomas, in "Indiscreet Corrine"

William S. Hart, in

"THE GENTLEMAN FROM BLUE GULCH"

NOTICE—Show will be open from 2:00 to 7:30 P. M. No show in Evening. W. S. S. Drive at 8:00 P. M.

SATURDAY, JUNE 29

Anita Stewart

IN "THE GLORY OF VOLANDA"

"The Woman In The Web"—Episode 7th

ALSO A DREW COMEDY

SUNDAY, JUNE 30TH

"Womanhood"

"THE GLORY OF A NATION" WITH

Alice Joyce, Harry Morey

AND AN ALL-STAR CAST

MONDAY, JULY 1ST

Olive Tell

IN "THE GIRL AND THE JUDGE"

AND A MUTT AND JEFF COMEDY

TUESDAY, JULY 2ND

"Doug. Fairbanks, in "Double Trouble"

ALSO A COMEDY

WEDNESDAY, JULY 3RD

"A Case at Law," with Dick Rosson

ALSO A COMEDY—'TIS A TRIANGLE TREAT

THURSDAY, JULY 4TH

—A BIG DOUBLE PROGRAM—

"Miss U. S. A.," with June Caprice

ALSO A FOX FILM COMEDY AND

"A RICH MAN'S DARLING"

CURRENT EVENTS

THE PICK OF THE PICTURES

So many people think of our Market when they want meat because they have found it pays to get

Fresh Quality Meats
AT
Central Meat Market

THE BEST MEAT MARKET IN THE COUNTY
Phone 60 Free and Prompt Delivery

If you don't buy War Savings Stamps this week
?????????
Have you read of Belgium's fate?

This space contributed for the Winning of the War by
LOUIS FLUHRER
MAYGER, OREGON