

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPOOSE

Max Zeismann of Castle Rock, Washington, received word from his brother, Ernest, that he was being transferred to a California training camp. He left Camp Lewis last Saturday.

Phil Clouinger moved his family to Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Devins returned to her home in Seaside Saturday morning.

Mrs. Leonard, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the hospital Thursday and underwent an operation Saturday. At the last report she was improving.

Mr. D. M. Gochmour and daughter, from Idaho, spent the week end with Scappoose friends. Mr. Gochmour had been to Camp Lewis for the body of his son, Ralph, who died there with typhoid pneumonia. We sympathize with the family.

Mrs. Price, who has had charge of the papers and magazines collected some time ago, has sold the lot and turned the money over to the Red Cross war fund.

Watch the bulletin board for notice of the opening of church services and school sessions.

Do not fail to read the intensely interesting letter about Lloyd Price in another section of the paper.

Scappoose celebrated the victory over the Germans with a large bonfire in the evening. The community gathered around and sang national songs. Speeches were made by Mr. Watts, J. B. Duncan, Frank Novak and ex-Judge Cooper.

Have you noticed the smile on Grandpa Butler. He will tell you the stork left a little girl at the home of his daughter (Mrs. Hackett) and that explains it.

Mrs. C. R. Stocker of South Scappoose, received word that her husband, Lieutenant Stocker, had been killed in action. Mrs. Stocker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon. The community extends Mrs. Stocker its sympathy.

While returning from Portland on Thursday evening, Dennis Balch, Tony Marek and Armond Duncan, met with an accident that might have been worse. They were on a motorcycle and met a car that was directly across the road. To avoid striking the car they turned to the right and went over the bank, landing under the cycle. Armond escaped with a scare and light injuries, Dennis was hurt in the chest and was not visible for a day or so, Tony took a trip to St. Helens to see if the doctor could pronounce him sound.

Eloise Barker, who with her father and mother, Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Barker, has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Hatfield, during the influenza epidemic, passed her 14th birthday on the 13th. On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Hatfield and Mrs. Barker gave her a surprise birthday dinner, inviting a few friends in to enjoy the evening with her. The Barkers will, if the ban is lifted, return to their school work at Milwaukie, next Monday.

Now that the war is over, let us not forget the suffering little ones in Belgium, France, Syria and Armenia. Two bottles are placed, one at the postoffice and one at Havlik's store to gather pennies for the Belgian and French children and Mrs. B. Blatchford will receive contributions for the Armenian and Syrian relief fund. In the midst of our rejoicing, let us remember that the women and children of all these nations need material help.

Mr. and Mrs. Propst and family of Klamath Falls (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams) is visiting her parents.

Ord Klapp of Tacoma, Washington (formerly of Scappoose) died at Fort Warden, September 11, of pneumonia.

J. B. Duncan went to Tacoma on Thursday.

Mr. James Redy was welcomed back to Scappoose, as superintendent of the logging company.

WARREN

The United War Work Campaign covered Warren and Bachelor Flats Monday morning, and as usual, went "over the top" with flying colors. P. C. Jacobson had charge of the Flats. District Chairman Fullerton had all the committee present on Friday night and all signified their willingness to co-operate for a quick drive. Nearly every shipyard and mill worker contributed a day's wages and the farmers with but a few exceptions, responded generously. The generosity of those who always respond to any enterprise, was noticeable but as is always the case, the few slackers who refuse to aid anything that they can avoid or put up an excuse for their lack of aid to anything, still keep their accustomed place. The people of Warren know them all, and when the war has ended, will not forget them.

The members of the Warren warehouse organization met on Tuesday evening and completed details for beginning business. President A. L. Larson called the stockholders together to fill the vacancy in the directorate caused by the death of Carleton Lewis.

A. Slothower, who bought a ranch on the Mountain View tract, a year ago and has been in the grocery business in Portland, has sold his Portland enterprise and moved to his ranch and has determined to become a regular rancher.

Miss Marguerite Miller spent a week with friends in Portland.

O. A. Erickson went to Portland Monday to select the two hats he lost on the results of the election.

Rumors of a re-call election have reached here and concerns some county officials.

Miss Fannie Cooper, who has been attending the training school at Corvallis, came home Saturday to recuperate after a quite severe attack of the "flu." She will remain home for several weeks.

Mrs. Andrew Johnson was married a short time ago to a man by the name of Carlson. The boys of the neighborhood gave them a chivari on Sunday night, when it became known.

DEER ISLAND

Bob Hamil and wife visited with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Foley, this week.

The many friends of Johnnie Keelan will be pleased to know he was able to take a horseback ride Monday after a serious illness with influenza.

Mrs. Augusta Jaspers is steadily improving from an attack of Spanish influenza.

Dr. Wade inoculated a number of Deer Island people at the school house Wednesday with influenza serum.

The various committees on the United War Work drive began work early Monday morning. It is needless to state we always go over the top.

Frank Todd, in the service at Bremerton, has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Burns, this week. The Deer Island Auxiliary A. R. C. elected the following officers Friday, November 8: President, Mrs. Elmer T. Connell; vice-president, Mrs. Harriet L. Loyd; secretary, Nora Appleton; treasurer, Mattie Langhale.

Mrs. Henry Caples and son are expected home Sunday from Idaho at which place she has been visiting her mother. In the meantime Mr. Caples was accommodating enough to have the "flu."

VERNONIA

High School Notes
The school board has had two sides of the playshed boarded up, thus preventing such a draught through the shed.

Thelma Pettijohn has been out of school several days on account of illness. She is a member of the freshman class and very studious.

Mr. Lester Sheeley has been selected by the Pleasant Hill district, as a member of the school board of the union high school district, to succeed Mr. Siegert, who recently moved to Rainier.

The high school and eighth grade pupils held an election on the same day on which the state election was held, using sample ballots for voting.

Mrs. Pettijohn and Misses Ruth and Esther Weigle, visited the school last Tuesday. Miss Esther Weigle is teaching in the school at Keasy.

The literary society is having some letter heads printed. The following names will appear on the stationery: Pearl Rogers, president; Lola Brown, vice-president; Gertrude Brown, secretary; Hazel Malmsen, treasurer and Lyndell Gardener, sergeant-at-arms.

Miss Dorothy Deerwester is doing some splendid work in directing the singing in the high schools. The girls are enthusiastic in their effort to accomplish all they can under her supervision.

The high school has been working on an entertainment program, which will be given as soon as possible or the danger from the influenza has passed. The proceeds from the entertainment will go toward defraying the expenses of the pupils who attended the county fair.

The subject of a merchant marine owned and operated by the United States will be the subject for debate by the literary society next Friday afternoon. Miss Pearl Rogers and Mr. Millard Counts will support the affirmative side and Miss Lola Brown and Lyndell Gardener will support the negative.

A local institute for teachers will be held at Vernonia on December 14. It is expected that the greater number of the teachers in the Nehalem valley will attend and take part in the program.

Gertrude Brown, a member of the teachers training class, substituted in the primary room, as Miss Maudie Gessel attended the funeral of her old schoolmate, Mr. Booth Hall.

The high school intends to put the hot lunch system working as soon as possible. It is hoped that it may be attended with success.

COLUMBIA CITY

Sunday afternoon the women of Columbia City met in the Sommarstrom Shipbuilding office and discussed plans for the drive. Mrs. Jasper, Mrs. Woodman, Mrs. Edward Sommarstrom, Mrs. A. G. Peterson, Mrs. Hess, Mrs. Frisendahl and Miss Florence Peterson were selected as captains of the teams.

The United War Work Campaign was postponed from Monday to Tuesday because of peace being declared. Mr. Howard, chairman of the speaker's committee of Columbia county, and agricultural college representative of this county, talked to the men Tuesday noon. The subscription up to Wednesday morning was approximately $1650.00 from this yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swift and children were in Portland Tuesday.

Mr. F. L. Peterson was in Portland Monday on business.

Dr. Thompson, Friday, Nov. 22, Orcadia Hotel.

HOTELS PREFER BERKSHIRES

Prof. C. S. Plumb, Indiana Agricultural College, explaining the Berkshire hog's popularity with hotel men, says: "The Berkshire is an easy feeder and produces a pound of meat at minimum cost. Where hotel proprietors have farms from which they supply their tables with produce, they most frequently raise Berkshire pigs. No class of persons recognize merit in quality of a food quicker than high grade hotel men. The meat of the Berkshire is firm, of fine grain, the fat interlaid with the lean, and of prime quality." An Old Man's Stomach

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. It too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90 you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pain, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

The Mist is still $1.50 per year.
