

MIST MISTINGS

Mrs. J. T. Taber transacted business in Portland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell visited friends in Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Hobbs was a Portland visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Chas. Phillips was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

Carl Rodgers of the Mist force spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents in Portland.

Mrs. Gertrude Blackmire of Portland, was a week end visitor at the home of Mrs. Chas. Phillips.

Mrs. M. Ricen and Miss Ella Rosenthal were in Portland Tuesday.

The steamer Tahoe, laden with 710,000 feet of lumber, sailed Tuesday night for the Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Gray and family motored to Portland Thursday and spent the day with relatives.

H. F. McCormick went to Portland Thursday to look after shipbuilding matters.

County Surveyor L. J. VanOrshoven left for Clatskanie this morning, where he has several days surveying work to do.

Mrs. P. H. Brakke, after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Muckle, left for her home in Portland yesterday.

The steamer Willamette carrying 835,000 feet of lumber and a number of passengers, got away on Wednesday night, bound for San Pedro.

Superintendent Carl Christensen and John Arvidson have been in Portland the most of this week looking after repair work being done on the steamer Klamath.

Mr. Jacob George, who is serving on the federal grand jury in Portland, returned to this city Wednesday night, having been excused from further jury service until Monday.

Rev. J. H. Londerville of Saskatoon, Canada, was a recent visitor at the home of his old friend, J. R. Hobbs. Rev. Londerville is thinking seriously of locating in St. Helens or vicinity.

Dr. Tucker has received the sad news of the death of his brother-in-law, Percy Knight, a resident of Portland and a prominent grain man. Deceased was well known in Portland and throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ditto went to Portland Wednesday to meet their daughter, Miss Alma, who is a student at the U. of O., and is here on a visit to her parents for the Easter vacation.

Representative Edison I. Ballagh is in Portland today attending a meeting of representatives of the coast counties relative to the building of the Roosevelt highway. It is planned to build a highway from Astoria, along the sea coast to the California line, and the project meets with the hearty approval of Mr. Ballagh, who will work for its successful culmination.

Rev. A. J. Sullen, District superintendent of the Congregation Church for Oregon, Washington and Idaho was here Thursday and held a meeting with the members of the Congregation Church with a view of erecting a new and more commodious house of worship.

Lee Hall of the Nehalem valley country, was in St. Helens Wednesday. He informs the Mist that his brother, Walker Hall, a recent arrival from Kentucky, has bought the Tom Throop place in the valley, and intends making his home in Columbia county. The place purchased contains 80 acres and is a fine farm.

The steamer Klamath, which has been undergoing repairs at the St. Helens shipyard, went to Portland Monday morning to go on dry dock. Repairs, superintended by Carl Christensen of the shipyard, were made and the vessel is again at the St. Helens dock, taking on a lumber cargo for California delivery.

The Woman's club will meet at the library Tuesday afternoon, March 25. Mrs. H. A. Childs will speak on the history of Bolshevism in Russia.

Mrs. H. J. Southard will read an official statement as to France and the Bolsheviki and Mrs. Owen will talk on the danger of Bolshevism in the United States.

News was received last Sunday of the death of Mrs. Frank Flagg, wife of the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Flagg, which occurred at Salt Lake where Frank is stationed as a guard at the government internment camp—Warrenton News. Frank Flagg was a St. Helens boy and his many friends here sympathize with him in his bereavement.

It's a sign—today you have a headache—tomorrow it is gone—next day it is back again and this continues. If you don't know the cause of your headache have Dr. Thompson examine your eyes; he will tell you whether or not your headaches are due to your eyes. Orcadia Hotel, Tuesday, April 1.

F. D. Kammeyer of Scappoose, was here Tuesday and paid a visit to the tax collector, Mr. Kammeyer, who lives in the Canyon district, recently disposed of a portion of his herd of Holstein cattle and is replacing them with thoroughbred cattle. He believes in raising good cattle and thinks the farmers of the county will soon come to the realization that good cattle are cheaper than the scrub kind.

Harry M. Salsber, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Salsber, died at the home of his parents Friday afternoon last. The young man had been ill for some time with the "flu" and other complications set in which caused his death. He was about 17 years of age and was very popular in high school circles. A number of his classmates were pall bearers at his funeral Sunday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted from the residence of the young man's parents and the interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery near Warren.

Hadel Marr of Seattle and John Joseph Gilfoy of Portland, were united in marriage by Judge M. F. Hazen Thursday afternoon. Aiding cupid is getting to be a regular thing for the judge, and apparently, he takes pleasure in such commendable official duties.

George H. Flagg, a former St. Helens boy, was here Tuesday for a few hours, having stopped over to visit relatives. George has been connected with an Astoria paper for the past six months, but now has a view a newspaper proposition in eastern Oregon.

Andy Parker and E. R. Treharne, who live near Vernonia, were in St. Helens Wednesday on their way to some point in the Willamette valley. The Pittsburg-St. Helens road not being passable, they were compelled to make the trip to the county seat via Mist and Clatskanie.

Mayor M. Saxon received a letter from his nephew, Huntington Saxon, yesterday. The young man wrote from Norfolk, Virginia, and said he was just about to leave for Antwerp on the cargo ship West Compo. Huntington (famously known in St. Helens as "Honey" Saxon) enlisted in the navy about a year ago, and is rated a carpenter, first class. He was employed by the St. Helens Shipbuilding company at the time of his enlistment.

Mrs. Flora Owen has received a letter from her son, Ray S. Owen, giving the pleasing information that he had been promoted from a captainship to major. The promotion order was signed by General Pershing and the promotion was given on account of meritorious conduct in action. Before joining the army forces Major Owen was professor of topographical engineering at the University of Wisconsin. He has been in the service since December, 1917.

Mrs. John Pringle has received a letter from her son, William Pringle, who is in the navy and on the U. S. S. Tallahassee. He was at Bermuda when he wrote the letter and was happy to tell his mother that he had taken the examination for coxswain and had been successful in getting a well earned promotion. He expected to be ordered to Panama. George has been in the navy for some time and likes it so well that he has decided to remain in the service.

The Mist is in receipt of a notice from Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue, in which he states that Income Tax Officers George K. Shaw and E. E. Montague, will be at the courthouse in St. Helens from and including March 31st to April 2nd. The deputies will assist those who failed to comply with the income tax returns within the required time. If there are any such in St. Helens or vicinity, it will be well worth their time to call on the income tax officers and endeavor to get the matter straightened, and it is the wish of the department that everyone interested should take advantage of the opportunity thus afforded.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. L. J. VanOrshoven entertained Thursday afternoon. A number of guests were present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. A. Childs gave a tea party for Mrs. Conyers, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Gill, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Ditto.

The members of the Woman's club entertained their friends on St. Patrick's day. Each guest brought ten cents, the total sum is to be given to the scholarship loan fund.

Mrs. Ibister had as guests for her tea, Mrs. J. W. Muckle, Mrs. McKie, Mrs. Fred Watkins, Mrs. Clarence Garrison, Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Smallwood.

Mrs. Charles Thompson entertained a few friends for the afternoon. Those present were, Mrs. White, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. William Rice and Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Flora Owen gave a party for the young folks, inviting Miss Townsend, Mrs. Hall, Miss LaBare, the Messers Johnson, Caly Stanwood, Louis LaBare and Ivor Welender.

Mrs. Buck entertained Monday night, inviting Mr. and Mrs. Conyers, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Childs, Miss Childs and Miss Brown.

Mrs. Charles Brown gave a tea for a few of the teachers. Her guests were Miss Higginhar, Mrs. Colvin, Miss Childs, Miss Brown and Miss Armstrong.

Mrs. Eugene Blakesley's guests for Monday afternoon were, Mrs. Deming, Mrs. Walter Blakesley, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. L. G. Ross, Mrs. Sutherland, Eugenia Deming and Miss Shaffer.

Margaret McGorty entertained a number of her little friends Saturday afternoon last, at a theatre party. After the matinee they went to an ice cream parlor where refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

The St. Patrick party given by the Pythian Sisters Monday night was a distinct success and there were about 70 in attendance. Progressive 500 was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Roy and V. E. Stevens. Kit Conyers won the consolation. A fine dinner was served, and a most enjoyable time had by all present.

Miss Hazel Brittain entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening. The earlier part of the evening was spent at the theatre and later the guests repaired to the home of Miss Brittain. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Misses Susie Kettel, Lois Clear, Monica Canary, Grace Howell, Mrs. Kettel, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Meyers, Rudolph Kettel, Arthur Kettel, L. Nyberg and Kenneth Howell.

Mrs. E. H. Scott invited a few friends for an informal Kensington. Those bidden were Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Liggett and Miss Wallace.

Announcing Mina Taylor Dresses FOR SPRING 1919

The new Mina Taylor styles for Spring are here! To you who have made the acquaintance of Mina Taylor Dresses, we don't need to say another word. Because you know from experience all their good qualities and you'll be eager to come early to make your selection from the new models. And for the woman to whom "Mina Taylor" is making her bow for the first time, there is a delightful experience in store. You'll enjoy looking through the selection of frocks on display—and you'll enjoy even more wearing one of these smart, cleverly designed dresses.

Mina Taylor Dresses "Full of Infinite Variety"

There is a Mina Taylor for every activity. There are darker, strictly "service" frocks that are just the garb for mornings when you have a lot to do about the house. Trim, comfortable, attractive, they're proof positive that workaday clothes can be good-looking. And there are Mina Taylors for all kinds of dainty use, too. For afternoons on the porch with your sewing, a visit to a friend, an auto ride or a picnic, every occasion is a good reason for one of these fascinating frocks.

Mina Taylor Dresses express your own taste and personality—they're "individual" dresses. They're a pleasure to wear, they're so comfortable and dainty and they "do up" perfectly—that great requisite of ideal summer wear. After you've once worn them, you'll understand why Mina Taylor are such "likeable" dresses.

Coats, $12 to $30 Dresses, $2 to $5

Shown Exclusively at Taber's Variety Store ST. HELENS, OREGON

PHOTOS Prices Reasonable Satisfactory Work

J. T. Scott St. Helens ENLARGING

Announcement

The stock and business of M. Rosenthal has been purchased by the undersigned who will hereafter conduct the business at the same location. A continuance of the patronage bestowed on our predecessor will be appreciated. Watch for a further announcement. M. RICEN Successor to M. Rosenthal St. Helens, Oregon.

Seventh Day Adventist Church WEST ST. HELENS

"What are the Duties of a Christian" SUNDAY, MARCH 23, 7:30 P. M.

Dress Up!

In One of Our New Spring Suits

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

for Spring are here in all the newest styles and fabrics. Clothes models for the young fellows with new-style features—waist seams, military styles, vertical pockets, rolling lapels—everything young men prefer. Conservative and semi-conservative models for older men. You'll find them here for you.

Copyright 1919 Hart Schaffner & Marx

New Hat Styles for Spring

We're ready with the new Spring shapes and colors. There's extreme styles for the younger fellows, more conservative for the older men. Get started early is our advice.

—Timely and low priced—a fortunate combination, indeed, due to enormous efforts to supply bargains to our customers. Our store has established a record for value