

ARMY RAPIDLY RELEASING MEN

1,103,810 DEMOBILIZED

Discharge of Overseas Men Depends on Shipping Conditions

Total demobilization now stands at 1,103,810 men and 71,235 officers. General March said a few days ago. A total of 1,501,000 men have been ordered demobilized and 305,000 have already embarked for home. Of the men released 227,000 have actually landed in this country.

General March revealed that demobilization in camps in the states is about at an end.

Discharges of men from overseas will depend on shipping conditions, General March indicated. Since the armistice the United States has converted considerable army shipping to European food relief work. The army now has virtually completed shipment of 276,000 tons of food to Rotterdam, Gibraltar, Constantinople, Constanza and the Black Sea.

With embarkation speeded up and reaching 68,000 for the first ten days of February, the state department was advised by the Dutch foreign minister that Holland will facilitate United States troop movement by way of the Rhine. Such troops will be trans-shipped at Rotterdam. Special regulations require the transports to fly only the commercial flag and that soldiers be not permitted to carry arms during the trip down the river.

Some of the army shipping is being readjusted and turned back to useful employment other than military. Some cargo vessels have been remade into troopships and a total of fifty-six have been or are being completed so as to add a 120,000 monthly troop-carrying capacity to the present rate.

FASHION NOTES

Draped collars appear on the spring wrap coats.

The richer the fabric the less it should be trimmed.

Gray astrakhan is much liked on suits instead of other furs.

Leopard skin makes a most striking trimming for beige velvet.

Coats of velour de laine are embroidered in checker board patterns.

Handkerchief linen frocks for morning wear in the south have nothing but hemstitching for decoration.

The palest flesh tone is one that has gained great vogue for hats of organdie and georgette. It is surely cool and summery and youthful.

The shops show a good many varieties of woolen gloves. These are to be worn by many smartly dressed women in place of heavy kid gloves this winter.

Sports silk in the heavy materials are seen in the shops. The most popular sports' costume of late is a skirt of white silk jersey worn with a bright colored waist.

Knitted linings are an interesting development in some of the newest wraps. Some of them are knitted by hand and others are made of machine-knitted fabrics. Needless to say they are in vivid colors.

Hemstitching and drawnwork are smart trimmings.

Plumes are returning to favor for half-season millinery.

The new frocks are still straight and not very tight.

Linon brassiers with real fillet are in the best style.

The use of braid on serge and the smoother wool fabrics is so evident that there can be no possibility of its having lost favor.

White angora is not only used to embroider many costumes, but its made into collars and cuffs for the same.

ENGLISH CHANNEL

Great Britain and France Agree on Giant Project

The London Daily Mail announces that the British and French governments have agreed to construct a tunnel under the English channel and that plans are being considered for building tunnels under the Bosphorus and Gibraltar straits. The channel tunnel will contain railway, telephone and telegraph lines, as well as pneumatic postal tubes and the cost is estimated at from $100,000,000 to $125,000,000. The Mail stated that the construction work will be started so soon as the plans are completed. Great Britain and France will share equally in the financing and all nations are to be given equal railway rates.

Between appropriating public money and appropriating private property, this administration seems to be a very appropriating affair.—Exchange.
