CHAMBERLAIN ATTACKS
 JUSTICE OF BAKER

New Cases of Brutal Inhumanity in Imposing Sentences

By SNELL SMITH
 Burlington. Further exhortation Secretary of War Baker for upgrading the system of military in-during his administration has been by Senator Chamberlain, Oregon, Democratic chairman of state committee on military af-airs during the war, and his statement is accompanied by facts:

 "We owe it to our American soldiers who have fought this fight," said he, "to see to it that justice and not injustice is meted out to them by the authorities in Washington, and with God's help I shall continue to do what I can to see to it that justice is done them. It is certainly not pleasant to criticize, but when we entered this war I forgot that I was a Democrat and remembered only that I was an American. I have, when I saw a wrong done, pointed out that wrong, and I shall continue to do so as long as wrongs are persisted in. This matter of military injustice is not a personal controversy between the secretary of war and myself, and it should not be a matter of controversy between Gen. Crowder and Gen. Crowder."
 "Let me tell you what it is about.
 In substance the articles of war provide that the judge advocate general shall have the power to modify or revise the findings of courts-martial. It is my view and that of Col. Ansell that this is the purport of the regulations.
 On the other hand, the view of Mr. Baker and Gen. Crowder is that they have no power to do what the law expressly gives them power to do. This is a strange construction of the law.
 In civil life law is a law, but in military life some people seem to think it is just the other way."
 "There are men in our army who look upon an enlisted man as a mere piece of flesh, and not as a human being with feelings and with rights that should be protected. This moment I have in mind the cases of two boys who were absent without leave for five days, and one of them was given fifteen years and the other twenty-five years by the court that had tried them. A poor boy in San Francisco volunteered, was absent a few hours, was given five years, escaped, was recaptured and then given ten years. The American people are not going to permit the American army to be Prus-sianized in any such way as this. The letters that are coming to me are heart-rending, and I shall place in the record not two or three, but a thousand cases which will shock Congress into taking proper action."

Have you ever heard this?

"My baking powder," says the smooth solicitor, "costs less than Royal."

But he omits to say that it often leaves a bitter taste, that food made with it is likely to stale in a day and that it contains alum, which is condemned by many medical authorities for use in food.

England and France prohibit the sale of alum baking powders.
