Louis W. Boesel arrived home last Friday after spending nearly two years with Uncle Sam. Louis is the picture of health and is feeling fine. He was in the commissary department.

Sherman Miles is becoming efficient in ranching. Practical experience is a good teacher. He now knows when a hen wants to sit and by the aid of his many good neighbors, is quietly acquiring the knowledge that make an intensive farmer.

The Warren home guards met on Monday evening at the hall and discussed the advisability of disbanding, which will be accomplished at a future date. A public community home-coming will be given the Warren boys as soon as the two that are not yet mustered out, arrive. Every organization in the district will co-operate.

Saturday's meeting of the grange was exceptionally well attended and important matters were discussed and decided upon. A membership drive was inaugurated in which P. H. Lund and A. H. Tarbell are to be captains. They will be assisted by

GOBLE

Martin Hoven went to St. Helens Thursday on a business mission.

On account of a few cases of scarlet fever in this community, the Gobble schools have been closed for the past week.

Bob Kenney, who has been ill with the mumps for the past week, is now better and states he will begin work on the Victory Loan drive next week and see to it that Gobble again goes over the top.

Road Supervisor Fritz Anliker is getting his crew assembled and the road machinery in shape so that he can carry out the road building program in this district. Anliker is a road builder who understands his business and has accomplished much in this district.

The Warren Construction company who have the contract for paving the highway between Deer Island and Delena, will establish a large camp here. Their head engineer has been here making the necessary arrangements and he states they will have a paving plant and rock quarry in operation in the near future.

The members of the grange and a keen interest is being taken in the outcome. The team having the greatest number of applications for membership by June 14 is to be the guests at an entertainment and supper to be paid for by the losing side. The entire membership of the organization will participate. There are a goodly number of farmers who are not members of the grange and an effort will be made to have every enterprising farmer in Warren and Bachelor Flats as members. There are over 500 people in the district that are eligible as members and a united effort will be made to secure nearly all of them.
