GE ADVISES WOMEN

mericans First, Republicans nd and Individuals Third

Americans first, Republicans and individuals third," is the Registrate George Genung, of York, gave a group of women had invited him to talk to them politics. Judge Genung doesn't believe in non-partisan alliances or third parties;—use your influence to make the party you belong to keep to high ideals, then you have its strength and its organization to get results.

"And because somebody does something you don't like," he added, "don't leave the Republican fold for the Democratic and expect them to reward you with any political plums. Those are for the women who have always been Democrats, and you will be left in the cold. Don't let personal pique make you renounce your party and its principles!"
