

MIST MISTINGS

Mrs. Carl Christensen visited with friends in Portland Thursday. Miss Amy George was a Portland visitor Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Harold P. Broughton was a Portland visitor Tuesday. W. T. Hinson spent several days this week with friends in Vancouver, Washington. Wanted—Some one to take care of five months old baby. Enquire at the Oradia Hotel. Mrs. M. Rice returned Wednesday night after a short visit to Portland. Fred W. Herman, the Rainier attorney, was a business visitor in St. Helens Monday. Misses Aileen and May Townsend of the high school faculty, spent the week end with relatives in Portland. Guy Deming of Bend, Oregon, was here this week for a few days visit with his brother, A. J. Deming. Mrs. Victoria Perry of Rainier, is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Barnett. Mrs. S. B. Hoskins returned to St. Helens Tuesday night after a two day visit with relatives in Portland. Mrs. Anna Paulsen returned to Portland Wednesday after a short visit with her daughter, Miss Marie Paulsen. Mrs. F. D. Tarbell and children spent the week end with friends in Portland returning to St. Helens on Monday. Mrs. M. A. Stine of Monmouth, was here this week, a guest at the Deming home. Mrs. Stine is A. J. Deming's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker and children of Portland, were week end guests of Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Muckle. Miss Jesse Beauchamp and Miss Bertha Beauchamp of Camas, Washington, are here on a visit to their aunt, Mrs. W. A. Levi. Masquerade Ball—At St. Helens rink, Saturday night, November 1. Dance tickets, $1.25; Gallery tickets, 25 cents. You are welcome to a good time. Same good management and Portland music.

Mrs. C. C. Cassatt visited relatives in Portland Tuesday. H. D. Scott transacted business in Portland Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Lynch spent Thursday in Portland. Archie Newbold spent the week end with friends in Portland. J. F. Ryan was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday. Miss Opal Smith will entertain a number of her friends with a Halloween party tonight. William Betnar, a resident of West St. Helens, has been seriously ill, but is now convalescent. Caly Stanwood, who is now making his home in Eugene, was greeting friends here Thursday. The Methodist church at Houlton has been shingled and other necessary repairs made so that the house of worship is now more comfortable. Professor and Mrs. O. E. Mauthe of Portland were week end guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler. Mrs. S. E. Lynch, who has been visiting at her old home in Barnston, Nebraska, for the past three months, returned to St. Helens Monday night. The steamer Klamath carrying a cargo of 1,025,000 feet of lumber and 60 passengers sailed Wednesday night bound for San Pedro via San Francisco. Pete Brakke came down from Portland Saturday night and spent the quiet Sabbath with Washington Muckle at his ranch on the Warren road. Mrs. E. A. Ross, who has been quite ill for the past week is much improved, a bit of news which will be most gratifying to her many friends. J. H. Griffis, the contractor, was up from Kalama Wednesday. He has contracts for several buildings in Kalama and is making good progress on the work. The steamer Willamette arrived in the river this morning and proceeded to Portland to discharge her up freight cargo. She will come to St. Helens Sunday. Judge Thomas Cleeton of Portland, was in St. Helens Wednesday. He is a former resident of St. Helens and while here had a visit with many of his old time friends.

John H. Dart of Rainier, was here for a short visit with relatives. F. B. Holbrook, one of the prominent residents of the Beaver Homes section, was transacting business in St. Helens Wednesday. Thomas Isbister left Tuesday for Shepherd Springs to see if he couldn't get some of the rheumatism boiled out of his system. The funeral of the late Mrs. Johanna Peterson was held Sunday. The services were at the Portland crematorium and a number of St. Helens friends attended. Mrs. U. S. DeSpain was taken to a Portland hospital Monday and underwent an operation. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is getting along nicely. C. D. White returned last week from an extended visit east. He went as far east as Chicago and stopped at St. Paul and in Montana for awhile. The east is prosperous, Mr. White says. Mrs. Anna Broawitz of St. Paul, Minnesota, is here, a guest of her sister, Mrs. David Wicklund. Mrs. Broawitz was called to St. Helens on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Peterson. Mr. Thomas Inman and his sister, Miss Lasette Inman of Beloit, Wisconsin, are in St. Helens, the guests of Mrs. Fannie P. Ross. The Ross family and the Inman family were warm friends back in Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen entertained about forty guests last night at a Halloween party. Cards and dancing contributed to the pleasure of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served. Miss Madge Allen and Miss Wanda Sain will entertain the members of the Himalya club tonight at a Halloween party which will be given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen. The Columbia Dancing club gave the first of a series of dances at the city hall Saturday night. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the affair was most enjoyable. Mesdames A. F. Barnett, Roy Gill and S. R. Hoskins were the patronesses. At their regular meeting Tuesday night, the members of Avon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, changed the hour of their meeting from 8 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. and will meet at the latter hour during the winter months. The recently organized Parents-Teachers association of West St. Helens held a social affair at the McBride school last night. Matters pertaining to the good of the school were discussed. C. M. Beeler was up to Portland Sunday to renew his acquaintance with the little daughter which the stork brought to him and Mrs. Beeler on the 22nd inst. Mother and daughter are getting along finely and Charley is very happy. Columbia Post American Legion, plan to give a big dance on Monday night, November 10th. They have secured the Webb orchestra of Portland to furnish music for the occasion. Members of the Legion expect that a large crowd will attend the dance. The reception to Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey at the Methodist church last Friday night was a delightful affair and the large crowd present thoroughly enjoyed the evening. There was an entertaining program of music and short talks and delightful refreshments were served. The Friendship class of the Methodist church held an enjoyable party in the church parlors Wednesday night. About 35 were present. The evening was spent in playing interesting games and there was a musical program. Refreshments were served. The civil service examination for census takers for Columbia county for the 1920 census will be held at the St. Helens schoolhouse Saturday, November 1st, beginning at 1:00 o'clock p. m. Only those who have admittance cards will be permitted to take the examination. It is understood that there are three applicants from St. Helens and quite a number from different parts of the county.

Judge Fullerton came down from Warren Tuesday night to attend lodge. He stated that quite a number of the Warren grangers planned to go down to Clatskanie to attend Pomona grange meeting tomorrow. In order to rush the work of taking out rock on the highway, Contractor L. O. Herrold has bought another large air compressor. The machine arrived Thursday morning and is at work this morning. The engine of train 32 broke a side rod Wednesday night between Rainier and Goble, which necessitated sending down a engine from Portland to pull the disabled engine in. The train was about four hours late arriving here. Fred Kettel says that as fine apples can be raised in St. Helens as in Bachelor Flat. As proof of his assertion he brought to the Mist office some specimens of Northern Spy apples grown at the Kettel residence on Columbia street. The apples are exceptionally large and well colored and perfectly sound. The tree is seven years old and this year's yield was seven boxes. County Engineer H. E. Ahry received notice from A. B. Carter, secretary of the state examining board, notifying him that his application for registration as a professional civil engineer had been acted upon favorably. Under a law passed by the last legislature, all engineers seeking to practice in Oregon are compelled to pass an examination as to their fitness and engineering qualifications. E. Oier, an employe of the St. Helens Shipbuilding company met with a painful accident Tuesday afternoon. He was working on the inside of the ship under construction at the yard, and in some manner lost his balance and fell from the scaffold about 10 feet to the floor of the ship. His left leg was broken and he was quite badly shaken up. The injured man was taken to Portland for hospital attention. Coroner White was called to Clatskanie Wednesday night to investigate the death of Christian Langfelt, an old gentleman, 72 years old. Deceased lived with his daughter, Mrs. Ed King and after eating breakfast Wednesday morning, went to his room. The daughter left the house for a few hours and when she returned found her father dead in bed. Heart disease which had troubled him for a number of years, was the cause of his death, Coroner White said, and deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Drainage District in Columbia County and State of Oregon, containing 35.43 acres of land be strictly foreclosed; and that defendants and each of them and all persons claiming through or under them be barred and foreclosed of all estate or interest in and to said real property or any part thereof, and that all payments made thereon be forfeited to the plaintiff herein, and said contract cancelled, and for such other and further relief in the premises as to the court may seem meet and equitable. This summons is published and served on you by publication in the St. Helens Mist, a newspaper of general circulation published in said

Columbia County, State of Oregon under and by virtue of and in accordance with an order made by the above entitled court, on October 19, 1919, which order provides that this summons be published in said newspaper once a week for six consecutive weeks. The date of first publication is October 31, 1919. The date of last publication is November 12, 1919. Plaintiff's attorneys reside at address is 1125 Yeon Building, Portland, Oregon. CORLISS & NEWELL Attorneys for Plaintiff

CUT THIS OUT VALUE 10,000 YOUR NOMINATION COUPON I hereby nominate (Write name plainly, stating whether Mrs. or Miss) (Write address plainly on this line) As a candidate in the voting contest of THE ST. HELENS MIST Mail or bring this coupon to the office

LIBERTY THEATRE Home of Good Pictures

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31st— Monroë Salisbury in "Sundown Trail" A great picture of the golden days of old California. Good Comedy

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1st— Theda Bara in "Siren Song" This is one of Theda Bara's best pictures also MUTT & JEFF Cartoon

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd— Mabel Normand in "Fek's Bad Girl" The exciting career of a village wildflower—she was a devil in her own home town and "THE WIDOW'S MIGHT," a two-reel Billy Parson Comedy

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd— Tom Mix in "Fame and Fortune" You like Tom and you will like this picture, too

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4th— Makuakane and Kapu PRESENT— The Royal Hawaiians FEATURING— Princess Kane and Eddie Nickols, the Yodeling King AND A FIVE-REEL FEATURE—

The Praise Agent The sort of picture that every one likes KINOGRAM—Current Events There will be no advance in Admission—Come Early WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5th—

Bessie Love in "Carolyn of the Corners" You'll love Bessie Love in this big rural photoplay Harold Lloyd Comedy, "HIS ONLY FATHER," and Current Events THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6th—

Bessie Barriscale in "Her Purchase Price" The story of an oriental pearl of paradise—this is the best picture Bessie Barriscale has ever appeared in. DON'T MISS IT also a Good Comedy Special Announcement Starting Monday, November 17, the Liberty Theatre will have Country Store Night $20.00 in merchandise given away absolutely free every Monday night

The QUALITY STORE Set Your WET WEATHER WEARABLES Now Fall and Winter are rapidly approaching and you should prepare yourself now against colds and sickness by keeping yourself warm and dry. Come in and let us fit you up now, with that Slicker Coat, Rain Hat, Rubber Boots, Umbrella, Rubbers, etc. Slicker Coats We carry the well known brands such as Sawyer's Excelsior, guaranteed to shed the rain. They are heavily reinforced, button and snap fasteners, three-quarters length. Luckily, we were to get this big supply of slickers at this much needed time, to sell as reasonable as $6.50 and $12.00 Rain Hats This much needed article can be found here, in most all kinds of Rubber, etc., all sizes to fit your head and prices to fit your purse. Rubber Boots Don't let anyone tell you that Rubber Boots aren't as good as they used to be. Come here for yours at the old price of last year and we guarantee every pair that we sell. Men's Hip Boots $6.50 up Men's Knee Boots $4.50 up Boys and Girls Boots range in price from $2.50 to $3.50 Rubbers For Father, Mother, Sister, Brother and the small children as well, good heavy quality, some made up with good heavy roll edge, toe rubbers as well. Priced from 75c to $2.00 Heavy Rain Shirts Stag Shirts need no mentioning as they are of the famous Hirsch Weis Brand, made of all wool khaki covered with good heavy drill, in back and sleeves, guaranteed not to leak, at $12.00 High Top Shoes Trench Shoes, 16-inch tops, eyelets and hooks, wing and cap tips, extra heavy soles, made up on Goodyear welts, stitch downs, etc. $10 to $16.50 Umbrella Special We have just received a shipment of Umbrellas. A very good value for $2.00 Umbrellas that cannot be duplicated today for anywhere near the price we ask for them. Well reinforced stays, good heavy covering. Special for Friday and Saturday $1.65 AUSTIN'S ST. HELENS OREGON

No. 1268 Eq. SUMMONS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF COLUMBIA. Columbia Agricultural Co., a corporation, Plaintiff, vs. H. W. Cole, Henry Ballhorn, W. A. Hall and C. H. Stockwell, Defendants. To H. W. Cole, defendant above named: In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby summoned and required to appear in the above entitled court and answer or plead to the complaint filed therein in this suit against you, on or before Monday, the 15th day of December, 1919, which is the time prescribed in the order of the Honorable J. A. Eakin, Judge of the above entitled court pursuant to which this summons is published, in which you are required to so appear, answer or plead; and if you fail to so appear, answer or plead, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, which relief is that the plaintiff have a decree that there is due plaintiff from the defendant, H. W. Cole, on account of a certain contract of sale the sum of Five Thousand Five Hundred Eighty ($5,580.00) Dollars, with interest thereon from January 1, 1917 at the rate of six per cent per annum until paid, and the costs and disbursements herein; that the contract of sale, dated June 21, 1915 and covering Lot numbered Sixty (60) in Midland

Social and Aesthetic Dancing Professor O. C. Mauthe, physical director of Multnomah Athletic Association will conduct SOCIAL DANCING CLASSES For Children and Adults at City Hall, St. Helens Beginning, Saturday November 1st Children's Hours 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. Adult's Hours 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. Course of 8 Lessons for $6.00 For further information meet Professor Mauthe at City Hall before class lessons