

DO YOU KNOW?

German interned ships taken over during the war carried a total of 931,619 troops to and from France.

Andrew Jackson, seventh president of the United States, called himself a South Carolinian, but some documentary evidence has been published to show he was born in Union county, N. C., less than three-quarters of a mile from the South Carolina line.

One of the last flouring mills in the state of Oregon to discard the old mill stone method of grinding flour for the roller process was at Kings Valley in Benton county. The mill stones used in that mill came around the "Horn" from New York and were in use more than fifty years.

More dirt has been moved in the state of Iowa in the construction of drainage ditches or tiling than was moved in the excavation of the Panama canal.

At the Horse Show

Two men thrown together at a horse show were discussing their adventures with the equine tribe.

"A horse ran away with me once and I wasn't out for two months," remarked the man with the Trilby hat.

"That's nothing!" remarked the man with the bowler. "I ran away with a horse once and I wasn't out for two years!"
