WARREN

On New Year's eve the Warren grade had an open meeting in the parlors of Warren. About 40 guests were in attendance and a large number of friends. This was the first annual meeting of the grade since the annual election of officers...

under Mrs. C. Churchill, wife of Mrs. C. Churchill, superintendent, Frank Smith, manager, and Miss Nora Lacey, pianist. The music was most enjoyed and pleasure expressed at the assembly quality. One of the events which added much pleasure and amusement was an old fashioned game of cards which G. W. Mills and guests participated in. Refreshments furnished by the ladies were enjoyed by all present. New Year's was celebrated in a most enjoyable manner...

By and G. W. Johnson and family a goodly crowd was present and a thorough good time was had. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamnerback spent Thursday in Portland on business. The young people of the Swedish Lutheran church rendered a program on Saturday evening at the church which was well attended. Miss Fanny Cooper who has been spending the holidays at home returned to her school at Vancouver. C. L. Larson spent New Year's day in Portland. The annual assembly of the Young Men's Christian Association was held on Saturday evening at the church...

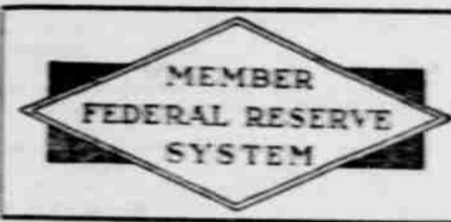

Miss Martha Schneider and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith are making rapid progress in the William system of shorthand. In a recent test they wrote 120 words per minute. They have been taking shorthand only 40 days. They will be able to take 20 days more with 90 days instruction and write 120 words per minute. Don't forget the basketball game on the home floor Friday evening, January 7th. Both the boys and girls teams will meet the St. Helens players. Admission 25 cents. The Western Electric company is installing lights in all class rooms, assembly room and the gymnasium. The plant has a capacity of 1200 watts. The plant factory will give you an opportunity to have a good time and inspect the new lights. Christmas vacation found the visiting staff somewhat scattered. Mrs. Helen Wm. Schmeckelberg and Mr. Williams spent the holidays at their home in Portland. Mrs. Mary Jones visited in Seattle, Ore. and Mrs. Helen Wm. Schmeckelberg visited the Oregon State Teachers' association meeting in Portland. Have you subscribed for the Coast or Coastman yet? COLUMBIA CITY Under the management of E. J. Bellard of St. Helens and with Ed Graham, specialist looking after a 1,000-barrel oil tank was moved last week from Portland to Columbia City to be shipped to Des Moines, Iowa, and used for fuel oil by the Portland Wood Pulpers association. Fred and Harry Caples are very well prospering since they are now engaged in the lumber business. They have made several thousand dollars and have a very satisfactory business of high grade lumber. A first term of students has been attending the school of general building, three points over the old building. They are studying themselves in carpentry. E. E. and G. G. Graham were out of their heads Friday and the whole town was for a general overhauling and repainting. Fawcett 1921, same as 1920. We welcome you for the good things you have to offer. Almost 1000 lbs. of a new and better manufactured plant and engine were sent to the ground. Let us see what we can do for you. BEAVER HOMES Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boddie are in Vancouver, Washington, on a visit to Mr. Boddie's parents. Fred Killion, our road supervisor was in St. Helens Wednesday in his private car. C. W. Daniels is one of the men who are arranging for a big dance to be given at the Beaver House on Friday night. The dance is under the auspices of the ladies and it is hoped there will be a large crowd in attendance. The new residence of Mr. L. Smith is nearly completed. The heavy and expensive rains of the past several weeks have made the roads in the Beaver House district almost impassable. E. Graham has bought the old building. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews have rented the building and will be permanent residents of our community. Mr. and Mrs. E. Robinson of Fred and spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carra.

TWENTIETH CENTURY STORES Are Abnormally Normal

Abnormal means Contrary to rule. That explains our policy. As a rule, Grocers are climbing prices or else they are thinking of doing so. TWENTIETH CENTURY STORES ARE DOWN: DOWN ALL OVER IN ALL THEIR STORES ON EVERYTHING. Understand, not going down, but DOWN. We don't say the bottom has been reached, but maybe so, in some of the lines at least. Some of these days, present prices may be higher. Fair quantity buying is not business at the prices we quote today. Quotations in this ad are good for Saturday and Monday.
