MIST MISTINGS

WEATHER

It may be cold and colder but it is sure to be FAIR and WARMER at the LIBERTY THEATER, Wednesday, January 14th.

Mrs. Shannon of Hillsboro is here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. G. R. Metsker.

The Womans Club will meet Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Sten.

Mrs. George Hughes, nee Miss Dorothy Johns, after spending several days with friends here returned to her home in Portland Monday.

Searl Hattan and wife who have been here on a visit to the Hattan family left Sunday morning for their home in Aberdeen, Washington.

Mr. and Drs. J. H. Beaver and son returned to St. Helens Sunday after a visit with Mrs. Beaver's mother in Portland

James Leonard who is working for the S. P. & S. at Goble, was in St. Helens Wednesday on a business mission.

Miss Ella Hatta and Miss Edrie LaBare left Sunday for Monmouth, Oregon to resume their studies in the State Normal College at that place.

E. E. Wist, J. G. Watts and George Grant of Scappoose were here Wednesday in consultation with the county court.

Lost—Auto crank for Hudson automobile. Black and nickle plated. Leave with H. M. Terry or at Mist office. Reward. 4 2 x

A. P. Martin, State Deputy Consul for the Modern Woodmen was in St. Helens Wednesday night to install the recently elected officers of the local lodge.

NOTICE—The Clerk's office will discontinue the collection of dog license taxe pending a decision of the Court as to the validity of the law.
J. W. Hunt, County Clerk.

The steamer E. H. Meyer will leave out tonight laden with 950,000 feet of lumber and piling for delivery at San Pedro and San Diego, California.

Sherman Miles has sold to R. F. Jones of Portland a 20-acre tract from the Miles farm on the Warren St. Helens road. Mr. Jones may locate on the land at a later date, but bought it more as an investment.

H. G. Smith, formerly a resident of Columbia County but now residing in Baker was here Sunday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Buck. Mr. Smith is now connected with the engineering department of the State Highway Commission.

The steamer Klamath arrived in Wednesday noon and will sail tonight for San Pedro witha cargo of 1,000,000 feet of lumber. Her passenger accomodations are all taken as the travel to California is quite heavy just at this season of the year.

Representative E. I. Ballagh returned from Salem Tuesday morning where with other members of the Fisheries Committee and Game Committee of the House and Senate, a conference was held with Governor Olcott with reference to the State Game Commission.

J. L. Chittem is taking a lay-off from the blacksmith shop on account of one of his legs having come in contact with the hoof of a mule he was trying to shoe. Chittem, who hails from Oklahoma, thought he knew all about mules, but this creature taught him another trick. The mule stayed in the shop and Chittem picked himself up out on the street.

Tonight is the night for the big school play and doubtless the school auditorium will be filled to overflowing with those eager to witness the children of the grades present their fairy play. The pupils have been well drilled and will present the beautiful pageant in faultless manner.

The Christmas Cantata given at the Methodist Church Sunday night was attended by a large crowd, in fact, many were unable to gain admittance. The chorus and solos were well rendered and all of those who were so fortunate as to gain admittance were highly appreciative and compliment Director Hollingsworth and his singers.

The Mist is informed there will be a Red Cross dance at the city hall on Saturday night, January 17. It is understood that the proceeds from the dance will go towards securing a Red Cross nurse for this vicinity. Further particulars will be given later.

G. S. Gray, assistant roadmaster, was a recent visitor to his old home in Centralia, Washington. The American Legion, an organization of which Mr. Gray is a member, is determined, he says, to bring to justice those who participated in the Centralia murder of the Legion men.

Dr. Thompsan has purchased and will operate during 1920, one of the lates and most scientific instruments known to optical science, which assures his patrons of absolutely correct glasses. This brings his standard of examination up to "second to none" in the state. Don't fail to have Dr. Thompson demonstrate, and examine your eyes, with this wonderful instrument, next visit Wednesday Jan. 14. Orcadia Hotel all day.

The stork remembers former St. Helens people as was evidenced by the fact that after leaving a boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith in Baker, he continued his journey around the block and left a girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Conlin. Possibly the old bird was anxious to get back to the Columbia River country, for he completed his task in Baker in less than 24 hours. Mr. and Mrs. Conlin formerly lived in St. Helens and have many friends here.
