

OVER THE COUNTY

SCAPPOOSE

Mrs. eBhn of Portland is the guest of Mrs. Hicks for the week.

J. W. Pomeroy has purchased a home in Portland.

Mrs. L. G. Smith is in the hospital.

Last reports she was doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marek are occupying one of the Adam cottages.

Mr. Vota, superintendent of the S. P. & S., and Mrs. Votan were visiting relatives in Scappoose Sunday.

A car load of our citizens were at the auditorium Monday night to hear the speakers on the Irish question.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Billo of Portland are very happy over the arrival of a little son. Mrs. Billo is a daughter of Mrs. Reed.

The Ladies Aid had a sewing bee at the home of Mrs. McClure last Thursday. A pleasant time was enjoyed, as well as a profitable one.

Reports of Henry Lamberson (Grandpa) are not very encouraging. He is with his daughter, Mrs. Whitel in Portland.

J. E. Miller moved on Friday from the aBrett place to the property he recently purchased from Cooper Whitney.

Rev. McIlure preached at Ridgefield last Sabbath. Rev. Wiley, of Portland, occupied the pulpit here morning and evening.

The regular meeting of the Aid will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Sandstrom Thursday, Feb. 12th at 2 o'clock.

Inez Wikstrom left Saturday for Monmouth, and enters as a student.

I. G. Wikstrom has placed a new fence along his property on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Holaday, Miss Martin Miss Brown, Miss Stovall, were at the auditorium last week to hear the Australian poet, given under the management of Ellison and White Chataqua Co.

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. R. J. Prakes will be glad to know that she is slowly recovering from her recent illness of nine weeks. Most of the time in bed. She caught a severe cold which developed into a gripe.

Fred Lange our R. F. D. man was seriously injured Monday afternoon about 4:30. He was working around his car when the batteries exploded, burning his face. He was taken to the eye and ear hospital, where the doctor decided one eye would have to be operated on. We hope for a favorable report soon.

The triple F club will give an entertainment at Watts and Price's hall Feb. 13th. This will be the first of a series of musical entertainments. The club just recently organized and the girls are working hard. Scappoose has fine talent and we assure you the entertainment will be second to none.

Some of our sick and convalescing: Miss Ruby Tipton is much improved. Mrs. Cooper is able to be about a little each day and is still in Portland. Mr. Mills is on the sick list, all the Ullman family are ill excepting Mrs. Ullman, Hilda is very ill with influenza, Alma Scudder is ill, Mrs. Gerlach is on the sick list. Mr. Milloy closed his restaurant Saturday night, the 31st until later.

WARREN

A. B. Hazen made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Porter Loomis and Mrs. O. A. Erickson spent Wednesday in Portland.

Gust OJosephson has bought the place of Mrs. Engstrom. The latter will make their home at a Bachelor Flats.

OJhn OJosephson, Gust Gull and Gabe Josephson were in attendance at the dairymen's league meeting at Portland on Tuesday.

Raymond Harms, who is at Detroit, Mich., with the Ford Motor Co., writes to his parents that he is doing his best to keep warm. The weather he states is so cold and there is so much to Ray to catch cold that he states he has plenty to do. He yearns to return to Oregon.

On Saturday evening, Feb. 14th, Valentine's Day, a character social will be given by the Grange in their new hall, which is now completed and is one of the best finished halls in the county. Miss Hyskell, the Grange lecturer, is making elaborate preparations for entertaining the members in their different costumes or characters. A royal time is expected and all members are requested to come attired in dress suitable to the character they wish to represent. It is stated that honors will be bestowed on those best representing the characters portrayed.

The gripe and mumps are the popular vocations of Warren. The older people have the gripe and the younger have about depleted the stores of pickles for testing if they have the mumps. The former has been a visitor for the last week or ten days at the home of A. H. Tarbell taking turns of the entire family. It also visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Snider, Miss Nera Larson and many others. The mumps give the school children a good excuse from school and school director A. H. Carlson acted as health officer and sent several children to their homes. C. J. and Miss Anna Larson are anxiously awaiting the recovery of Miss Anna from mumps to take an extended trip for a couple of years. A very few families have escaped either one of the other of these epidemics.

DEER ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lester of Clover Hill went to Portland Wednesday.

Fred Adams shipped a truck load of cattle to the Portland stock yards Monday.

Miss Dooling is staying with Mrs. Clapperton during Miss Case's absence.

The regular meeting of the Women's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Adams Wednesday afternoon February 11.

School in the primary room was dismissed Thursday owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Case. Miss Case has gone to her home in Portland.

Mrs. eBhn of Warren was called home from Portland where she was visiting by the serious illness of her daughter Marie. Charles and Raymond were also ill, although at the present writing all are better.

Mrs. Freeman and daughter, Mrs. Kyle came home Sunday from Good Samaritan hospital. Mrs. Kyle is surprising her friends by her rapid recovery after having been an invalid for so many years.

The Tide creek bridge is nearing completion. The main cement work is all done and the railing will be finished this week. The grading and fill on the south end will soon be finished and before very long the bridge will be open to traffic.

The cow girl who was through here recently buying up old horses was Lorena Trickey one of the Pendleton round-up girls, she having ridden there in 1918 and 1919. She won bucking contest, also in the relay race in 1919.

All those reported last week as being seriously ill are now doing finely. Some of them are able to be out and all of them are out of danger. While the epidemic, whether "flu" or otherwise is not as serious as last year, it is bad enough and everyone should watch colds carefully and make all the means possible to avoid exposure. Everyone is hoping that the worst is over.

VERNONIA

A fine big boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. eBn Smith on Feb. 1st.

Mrs. Redmond was taken quite ill Saturday morning but is reported to be improving rapidly.

Vincent Listrom and his cousin Paul Alimsten walked in from Bixton Sunday.

Mr. Lee Rogers swallowed a tooth pick Friday night and was very ill for a day or two but is now feeling better.

The high school party given Friday night was well attended and a splendid time was had by all who did attend.

The party given Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Goldie Murphy by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mow, was well attended and those present all reported a pleasant time.

Curtis OJhn while working on the new railroad up Rock creek cut his foot very badly and was taken at once to Timber where he could get surgical attention.

Prof. G. W. Brown who has been seriously ill for about a week does not seem to be improving as fast as could be desired and has been ordered by the doctor to stay indoors for another week.

The electrical apparatus that was ordered for the high school laboratory some months ago has just arrived and is in time for the science and physics class to get the full benefit of their use.

YANKTON

The directors of the school plan to open it in the near future or as soon as the epidemic of "flu" or gripe is over.

Mrs. Charles Ryegert who has been suffering with the "flu" has a nurse in the person of Mrs. Weberding and is getting along much better.

Mrs. J. Peterson, after a short illness in Portland, died there several days ago. She had lived in the logged off land settlement near Yankton for several years and had many friends in this neighborhood.

The sick in the neighborhood are getting along nicely and in the near future, we hope Yankton will be entirely free of "flu." Joe Paulsen is better, the Briggs children are improving and will be out soon. Mrs. Bowdler is reported as convalescent. Joe Sobieski and family are all better, the Dahlberg family are rapidly recovering from their recent indisposition. A. A. Markannen, Pete White and family, and Miss Brown, one of our school teachers, are all reported as recovering. Almost every family in the Yankton neighborhood has suffered with the epidemic which made a lengthy visit in our community.

NEHALEM VALLEY

We have had warm weather for some time.

Mr. Johns has been running the scraper over the roads the past week.

Several influenza cases have been reported in the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Leslie have moved to Vancouver where they will make their home or away.

Born to the wife of Ben Smith Sunday evening a bouncing baby boy. Mother and child doing well.

Electric Light Globes

For the convenience of our St. Helens customers, we have laid in a large stock of MAZDA electric light globes. Each globe tested before sold. No better globe is made than the MAZDA.

10, 15, 25 and 40 Watt globes.....	35c
60 Watt globes.....	40c
75 Watt Clear or Frosted.....	75c
100 Watt, Clear Bowl.....	$1.10
100 Watt, Frosted Bowl.....	$1.15

We have a special White Light Globe, 50 Watt at 65c. It's globe gives a strong white light and is rapidly becoming a great favorite, also a Special Mill Lamp, 50 Watt at 45c. This is stronger than the ordinary globe and made for rougher usage.

For Farm Lights

We have not overlooked the farmer in our light department. We have the "AIR-O-LITE" lamp and lanterns. They are absolutely safe, give a powerful light and are economical. We would be glad to have the farmer or any one not using electric lights in their residences, to inspect these.
