HIGH SCHOOL NOTES Billy Dodd and Stewart Bothwell went to Portland Saturday and visited the automobile show. The student body is anxiously awaiting the arrival of their new cars although the boys declined to tell us what kind they had ordered. The St. Helens debating team is trying to arrange a game with Clatskanie but as yet no definite arrangements have been made. The high school students were very sorry to see Miss Beatrice Allen leave St. Helens. She went to Washington with her parents. The St. Helens high school now has a baseball team. The spring weather is especially conducive to sports and with the material we have our team is sure to be a winner. It is rumored that the Rainier high school intends paying us a visit soon.

SCHOOL NOTES Low First The pupils of this grade have completed both primers and are beginning in their first readers. In spelling Louise George and Elizabeth Eschen are at the head of their class. Helen Stone has been on the sick list this week with a cold. Second Grade. Donald Christensen left school Friday. He will stay with his aunt, Mrs. Tabor, and attend school in Portland during the remainder of the school year. Hartley Cronkite holds the championship in his room for spelling. He can spell orally or write every word required for the second grade. Visits from the parents will be appreciated. We are always pleased to have father or mother come and see how our work is progressing. Third Grade. William Linn gave a birthday party Friday afternoon, and invited some of his school mates. Ruby Goin is back in school after being absent a month. The grade is studying Holland and her people, which is proving very interesting. Ruben Johnson has left school and moved from the district. Fourth Grade There were three new pupils entering this grade on Monday. Wallace Henderson and Joe Lessard came from Portland and Roland Durst from Roseburg. The enrollment is now 44 pupils. The pupils have finished their stories of Edison, Lincoln, Washington and Longfellow, whose birthdays occurred during February. The "A" class has a long division and taken up the subject of weights and measures. Natalie Tarbell out of school on account of illness. Fifth Grade "Jumping the rope" is the fashion among the boys and girls of the fifth grade. The Northeastern States are being studied by the "B" class. Many persons living in the cities of these states would be surprised to hear where they are located. Our attendance is slightly better than last week. "Why do we have bones in our bodies?" If we had 100 bones in our bodies, we could tie ourselves in a knot. Sixth Grade. The "B" class is enjoying the modeling of relief maps of the West Indies. The "A" class is anxious to begin the study of South America so that they may make relief maps. A spirited spelling contest is being held between the different rows in the room. Many of our boys and girls have enrolled as club members. A meeting will be held this week to organize for the work. Eighth Grade C. Morris gave a very interesting talk to the eighth grade on club work Tuesday. The girls organized a cooking club and will start at once. Mrs. C. E. Lake was chosen local club leader. The eighth grade is studying the duties of the cabinet and keeping in touch with the latest current events. The class is planning a party in the very near future.
