With Brighter Skies Come New Spring Things

Like the early spring buds and the first flights of returning birds, we too are showing many signs of returning spring. Gay colors, prettier patterns and sprightlier weaves in many fanciful textures of new goods already announce a season of more pleasing styles and more becoming selections than we have shown for several seasons past.

Here are Some Daringly Beautiful NEW SILKS

Delightfully contrasted effects in strong colors are cleverly harmonized with bold patterning in the most striking of the new French designs—in this individual and exclusive showing of silk fabrics for early spring wear. New voile and satin plaids at this store are beautiful to behold and are causing no little favorable comment. They are also selling. These sheer plaids are most suitable for wear with the spring suit or coat.

36 to 40-inch georgettes, satin messaline and taffeta are to be had here in all colors and in many newest shades. See them this week.
