The Mist takes pleasure in presenting this week the candidacy of Walter L. Tooze, Jr. of McMinnville as a delegate to the republican national convention at Chicago.

Mr. Tooze has adopted for his slogan: "Republican victory supreme national importance; for president your choice my choice." He has been an active party worker in this state for eight years on the republican state central committee.

Briefly, this is his life history. He was born in Butteville, Marion county, Oregon, Feb. 24, 1887; graduated from Bishop Scott Military Academy in Portland in 1904, and from the University of Michigan law department at Ann Harbor in 1908. Mr. Tooze practiced law in Dallas, Polk county, from 1908 to April, 1917, when he heeded the call of his country to arms and entered the officers' training school at San Francisco. In August, 1917, he was commissioned a captain of infantry and was assigned to the 91st division at Camp Lewis, with which he remained for a year. In July, 1919, he received his discharge at Camp Grant, Illinois.

The subject of our sketch is a law partner of Senator W. T. Vinton at McMinnville. He has been city attorney at Dallas and Paris, Tex., and has been an active worker in all state campaigns since the close of his school days. He desires to go to the national convention and will appreciate your support.

SCAPPOOSE HOLDS FIRST ELECTION

Today is election day in Scappoose. The municipal officers to take affairs of the newly incorporated town will be chosen. The candidates as appearing on official ballots are as follows: Mayor, J. G. Watts; for marshal, C. F. Cathart; for treasurer, Mrs. Wist; for aldermen, G. W. Chas. Wikstrom, E. E. Whit, Campbell, M. B. Grewell, Price.

The voters will be called to select one mayor, one marshal, one treasurer and aldermen. It is understood that there is very little opposition to the names named and it is generally expected that all those whose names appear on the ballot will be elected. All are representative citizens and form a strong organization in the young municipality through the early stages of its career.
