

OVER THE COUNTY

WARREN

Leroy Larson and sister Miss Nora accompanied by the Misses Costello of Portland spent Sunday on a trip up the Columbia Highway, camping at Multnomah Falls. Miss Costello will teach in her Warren schools another year.

Judge W. J. Fullerton was one of the farmers who attended "Farmers Day" at Rainier on Saturday and looks much improved after the trip. He will go to Baker next week to attend the Oddfellows' state gathering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Sobleski of Yankton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morris on Sunday on a trip over the Columbia Highway.

Pete White, who recently bought the Dolan place is moving his stock from his Yankton ranch.

Miss Inez Grewell of Portland spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Grewell.

Lost—Pair rimless glasses, with gold chain, in case, between A. L. Larson's place and Beeler's. Return to Agnes Anderson, Warren.

A. E. Lund, accompanied by Mrs. O. A. Erickson and Mrs. Porter Loomis, spent Sunday in Portland.

The farmers have nearly finished their spring work and a large acreage has been planted. Grain crops are in fine shape but root crops are very late.

CHAPMAN

The dances at the Grange hall which are held Saturday nights prove to be social events and are enjoyed by all who attend.

The rain which fell Sunday night was welcomed by the farmers in this vicinity and did much good.

The Chapman school has closed a very successful term. It is understood that plans are being made to enlarge the school before the next term and employ an additional teacher in order to accommodate the 50 or more pupils who attend the school.

L. R. Frink, our capable road supervisor is making needed improvements on the Spitzenberg-Chapman road, widening the fills and lowering the grades. Mr. Frink understands how to do road work and gets the best of results.

Representative E. I. Ballagh was a visitor in our community Monday meeting numerous voters who appear satisfied with his services in the legislature and propose to return him to serve another term.

As an illustration of how productive land is in the Chapman neighborhood, J. C. Leap received almost $500 for the products from one acre of ground after he used all he wanted for family use. Mr. Leap raised a quantity of fine onions and says if he had a whole acre planted in onions, he believes he would have sacked at least 1000 sacks.

Real estate is changing hands, several new deals having been recently reported. We welcome the newcomers. There is plenty of room for all.

SCAPPOOSE

Cashier E. E. Wist of the First National Bank was a business visitor in Portland Monday.

Roadmaster T. S. Wilkes was here Tuesday and Wednesday conferring with Road Supervisor G. D. Grant relative to the road work in this district.

Good progress is being made on the new garage which is being built by the Wickstrom's and it will soon be ready for business.

There is some talk of taking the Scappoose baseball team to St. Helens on July 4th, and bring away the cup or prize for the winner of the ball game.

Representative Edison I. Ballagh was here Monday meeting the voters. Mr. Ballagh has many warm friends in the Scappoose neighborhood.

One of the first matters which the mayor and council of Scappoose will be called upon to act on and which will have their earnest consideration, will be the securing of an adequate supply of water for the town. It is understood, also, that plans have been discussed for an electric light plant.

Election talk is the principal talk in Scappoose at the present time and Friday the voters here will express their sentiments at the polls. The sentiment seems to be with the millage tax for the maintenance of the state educational institutions and of course our people favor good roads.

The Warren Construction company have a number of men at work at their camp just north of Scappoose and it is understood they will soon begin to lay paving on the highway.

S. Benson, chairman of the State Highway Commission, was in Scappoose Monday looking over the progress of the work on the highway.

VERNONIA

Harvey Duncan is still said to be in a critical condition but it is hoped he will soon be better.

Charles White arrived with his family Monday evening and is intending to make Vernonia his future home.

A weenie roast was given last Saturday night at Pleasant Hill and all requirements were ready, even the fire, but the weenies, which unfortunately were stolen out of the car at the last moment. However, everyone reported a fine time.

The high school is busily engaged in getting ready for commencement, which we hope will be a success.

B. T. Hall and family were started out of nearly seven years' growth last Monday when a large stump which had strayed out of its accustomed place, aided perhaps by a little dynamite set off by the railroad men near there, landed in the upper part of their house and threatened to come on down into the lower part.

Representative Ballagh was here this week in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Ballagh's good service in the legislature made him many friends here.

DEER ISLAND

Mrs. Thomas Dooling of Portland visited with her daughter Miss Catharine Dooling for the week-end.

Practically every one in Deer Island attended and enjoyed the school picnic which was held on the beach Sunday. Bert Adams was master of ceremonies and covered himself with glory in pulling off some of the stunts. Ed. Keolan won the fat man's race, Mattie Case the girls' race and Mrs. Frank Daley was the winner of the ladies' race. A fine picnic lunch was served and every one had an enjoyable day.

School closed a very successful term Friday. All the grades passed, and the directors and patrons of the school were so pleased with the work of the teachers Miss Catharine Dooling and Miss Mattie Lee Case that they have engaged them for next term.

By securing a number of cars for loading, the Tide Creek Lumber company has been able to keep running, though not to full capacity. The mill cuts 50,000 feet per day and the product is shipped to coast and eastern points. Quite a number of men are employed in the mill which is a valuable asset to the community.

A number of friends tendered Mrs. C. E. Clapperton a surprise party Friday night in celebration of her birthday. A delightful evening was spent and dainty refreshments served.

Superintendent Mike Kaufman of the Deer Island Logging company is again a happy man because of the fact that he again possesses his Auburn Beauty Six after having had the car in a Portland shop for some days, occasioned by the car coming in contact with a telephone pole.

F. Lengacher went to Hillsboro Tuesday and brought back a new Auburn car which he has already sold.

Mrs. Frank Daley will soon leave for Walla Walla, Washington, to spend some time with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cramer and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mayer of Vancouver, Washington, and Mrs. Bob Nerton of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daley.

Friday's election is attracting much interest and a heavy vote is expected. It is hoped that the Deer Island people will vote for good roads and we believe they will.

The contest for Representative is causing much speculation. Representative Ballagh has many friends here as has Mr. Tarbell, his opponent, and the contest is expected to be close.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Keolan, at St. Vincent hospital Tuesday, May 18th, at 7:40 p. m., a daughter. Mother and child doing fine and the father is slowly recovering.

REUBEN

J. M. Lindsay and grandson of Rainier were in town Tuesday.

J. P. Emerson of Mayger is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. T. Rambalsky, this week.

J. W. Allen and E. I. Ballagh of St. Helens were in town and vicinity this week talking with the voters as to their success on the 21st. Both have many friends in this locality who will be glad to see them win out.

A welcome rain Sunday night will aid the growing crops very materially.

Judge J. A. Eakin and wife of Astoria were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Watts over Sunday. On Sunday M. A. Jennings of Beaver Homes came in with his auto and took the Watts and Eakin families out to his beautiful home, where they were treated to a genuine farm dinner, finished off with home made ice cream of the genuine article. The guests were taken by Mr. Jennings for a ride over the roads in that part of the country. Upon their return they found that Mrs. Jennings had another feast prepared—one of those feasts that only Mrs. Jennings knows how to prepare.

W. E. Carrington and wife were visitors in Portland this week.

M. A. Jennings and wife were visitors in town Tuesday.

Otto Emmerson of Mayger visited over Sunday with his sister, Mrs. C. T. Rambalsky.

P. S. Linton, wife and daughter visited over Saturday and Sunday with friends in Portland.

J. H. Frick of Rainier was in town Wednesday.
